WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, December 30, 1813.

DISPATCHES have been received at this Office from the Marquess of Wellington, dated the 19th and 22d instant.

It appears that since the battle of the 13th, Marshal Soult has made several movements on the right bank of the Adour, and towards the rear of Sir Rowland Hill's position; but these movements were foreseen, and frustrated.

The enemy being foiled in every attempt to dislodge the allied forces from their positions, the main body of the French army has retreated from Bayonne, and has marched up the right bank of the Adour, towards Dax.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, December 31, 1813.

A DISPATCH and its enclosures, of which the following are copies and translations, have been received by Earl Bathurst, addressed to his Lordship by Lieutenant-Governor Hamilton, and dated Heligoland, December 20, 1813.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to acquaint your Lordship, that the army under the command of the Prince Royal of Sweden, has taken possession of the dutchy of Holstein, after several actions, attended with complete success to the allies; it appearing that on the 4th instant, the different corps d'armée moved forward, and on their passage over the Stecknitz, Marshal Davoust precipitately retired upon Hamburgh, leaving the right flank of the Danish army quite exposed, which was taken advantage of by General Count Woronzoff, who advanced beyond Bergedorff, and defeated all the French cavalry, in a bloody engagement, at Wandsbeck. The allies pursued vigorously their advantages, taking many prisoners, cannon, waggons, and military stores, and having entirely separated the Danes from their ally, the French, forced them to take shelter in the fortress of Rendsburg. General Baron De Tettenborn was also enabled, during these events, with his light troops, to do essential service, and to take possession of the batteries of Wollerwick, by which the navigation of the river Eyder is secured and rendered free.

The General's communications to me, bearing date the 11th and 18th instant, from Tonningen, are laid before your Lordship, together with the terms upon which a cessation of arms, under the mediation of the Court of Austria, has taken place between the allied army and that of the Danes.

I have the honour, &c.

WILLIAM OSBORNE HAMILTON,
Lieutenant-Governor.

SIR, Tonningen, December 11, 1813.

I HASTEN to apprise you of the brilliant success which has attended the Prince Royal of Sweden's operations against the Danes. In less than six days, the whole of the dutchy of Holstein has been conquered, and the war is to be continued in the dutchy of Sleswig, which I have just entered, after passing the Eyder at Frederickstadt, and taking possession of Tonningen and Husum.

On the 4th of December all the corps of the army of the Prince Royal moved forward; and when they crossed the Stecknitz, Marshal Davoust precipitately retired upon Hamburgh, leaving quite exposed the right wing of the Danes, which was posted at Oldeslohe. He was pursued by General Woronzoff, who moved beyond Bergedorff, and defeated the whole French cavalry in a sanguinary engagement at Wandsbeck. General Wahlmoden marched direct upon Oldeslohe, and Marshal Stedingk manœuvred on Lübeck, while I, with my light troops, pushed into the interior of Holstein by Trittau, and hung on the enemy's flanks and rear: from the first day, I cut off all communication between the French and the Danes, and took from the latter a considerable number of prisoners, carriages, and ammunition waggons; I likewise intercepted some dispatches of the highest importance, the contents of which, led us to expect more successes. Prince Frederick of Hesse, did not hold out against all these combined movements, but commenced a precipitate retreat on the Eyder. Lubeck was evacuated by the Danes, who were defeated at Bornhoft, on the 7th of December, by the Swedes, and vigorously pursued by General Walmoden, while I, with my troops, reached the Eyder before them. At present they are concentrating at Rendsburg, and all Holstein being conquered, they could oppose but little resistance, if we were to take possession of all they possess on the Continent. In the mean time, the King of Denmark is doing all he can to obtain a suspension of arms, and he will probably make peace, on any conditions the Prince Royal may dictate.

My posts are at Husum, where I took seven pieces of cannon, and upon the roads of Flensburg and Schleswig. I hope that the battery of Wollerwick, which I have caused to be surrounded by my troops, will soon capitulate, and thus the communication by sea will be open. Some gun-boats, which the Danes had at the mouths of the Eyder, have escaped, and if the naval forces of your countrymen is not too distant from these coasts, they might now fall into their hands.

I have the honour to be, &c.

General Baron DE TETTENBORN.

SIR, Tonningen, 18th December 1813.

I hasten to communicate to you the events which have taken place in these parts, subsequently to those of which I apprised you in my last letter. I was on the point of carrying my operations into Schleswig; beyond Frederickstadt and Husum, when I received intelligence of a very obstinate engagement which General Walmoden, with a part of his troops, had sustained against the whole Danish army, which, after this action, (in which the loss on both sides may be estimated at more than a thousand men) took shelter in Rendsburg. The communication between General Dörnberg, (who had been detached upon the right bank of the Eyder) and General Walmoden being momentarily cut off, and the enemy having been reinforced at Schleswig by four battalions, a regiment of cavalry and ten pieces of cannon, arrived from the interior of the country; the critical position of General Dörnberg, obliged me to direct my operations towards Schleswig, and I could only send a detachment towards Flensburg to intercept the enemy's communications. I was preparing to attack Schleswig, in case the enemy did not accept the summons which I had sent to him to evacuate the place, when I received intelligence of the armistice which has been concluded with the Danes, by the mediation of Austria. I hasten to communicate a copy of that interesting document.

Before the conclusion of the armistice, I succeeded in obtaining possession of the battery of Wollerwick, which has surrendered by capitulation, after having been cannonaded for several days.— We have taken, on this occasion, twenty-eight pieces of cannon, very considerable quantities of provisions, ammunition, &c. This important capture makes us masters of the mouths of the Eyder, and the communication by sea is entirely free. I hope to make good use of this, and invite you to do the same.

I have the honour to be, &c.

General Baron DE TETTENBORN.

Suspension of Arms between the Allied Armies and the Danish Forces.

IT is agreed upon—

1st. That all hostilities between the Allies and the Danish Forces, shall cease, from the 15th of this month at midnight, with the exceptions contained in the second article, and the armistice shall be in force until the 29th instant at midnight.

2d. Pending the duration of this armistice, the Allies shall be at liberty to possess themselves, if they can, of the fortress of Gluckstadt and that of Friedrickstadt, Prince Frederick of Hesse having declared that it was not in his power to cede those places, because they were not under his command.

3. The Allied Forces shall evacuate the Duchy of Schleswig, with the exception of the points hereafter mentioned, which shall be occupied by them, as well as all the territory situated between the line which these points form and the Eyder, viz. :—

Eckernförde,
Golteburg,
Heckeberg, Selk,
Hollingstadt, Husum.

4th. The high road of Rendsburg to Schleswig, shall be open to couriers. The Danish army shut up in Rendsburg, are to draw their means of subsistence by this route alone, for the numbers actually under arms, and the sick in the hospitals. There shall be granted from ten to twelve thousand rations per day; and the Danes are at liberty to provision the place every three days, for which purpose commissaries shall be appointed on both sides, to take cognizance, by approximation, of the rations carried into the place.

5th. During the cessation of hostilities, there shall not be carried into the place of Rendsburg, either ammunition or troops. The garrison is not to be augmented under any pretext, before the resumption of hostilities. The Commander in Chief of the Danish troops, Prince Frederick of Hesse, pledges himself besides, not to add to the fortifications of the place, nor construct any fêches, &c. On the other hand, the Allied Army will not throw up any fortifications whatever against the place, and they shall, during the duration of the armistice, remain behind Jevenstedt and Sterfeldt, and Jevenberg, towards Holstein, which places shall remain neutral, and on the side of Schleswig, behind Schirnum, Bansdorf, Duvenstedt, Sorgbrück, Hohn, and Elsdorf, and they may be occupied by the advanced posts of the place.

6th. The garrison of Rendsburg shall not make any sortie, attack, or march against the allied forces, during the armistice; and, on the other part, the allied troops shall not make any attack, or march against the place.

7th. There shall not be at Schleswig more troops than such as are appointed for the guard of Prince Charles of Hesse, and these shall not exceed one thousand men. Troops coming from the interior, shall not proceed beyond Hensburgh.

8th. The allied army is not to augment the number of their forces in the dutchy of Sleswig, before the armistice shall have expired.

Admiralty-Office, January 1, 1814.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Pellew, Bart. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Caledonia, off Toulon, the 6th November, 1813.

SIR,

IF I was not aware that every shot fired from His Majesty's fleet before Toulon upon that of the enemy would be pompously displayed in the Moniteur, by the Government of France, to deceive all Europe, as well as their unhappy subjects, I should have considered it unnecessary to trouble their Lordships with the following detail of the transactions of the squadron under my command on the 5th instant.

His Majesty's fleet had been blown off their station by a succession of hard gales for eight days, and it was only yesterday morning that the land was discovered, together with the inshore squadron, as per margin *, which had reached Cape Sicie the preceding evening. The fleet were standing with close-reefed topsails, towards Toulon, to reconnoitre, with a strong wind from E.N.E., when at 10 A.M. the enemy, as customary with such winds, was seen getting under weigh, and came out with fourteen sail of the line, and seven frigates, for their usual exercise, close in shore, between Cape Brun and Cape Carcaviane. A sudden change of wind to N.W., seemingly unexpected by them, permitted me to hope that we should be able to bring the rear to action; and the Scipion having communicated by signal the prospect of cutting off the leewardmost ships, she was directed, with the advanced squadron, to attack. The Caledonia, Boyne, and San Josef, leading some distance a-head, and followed by the fleet, were, I thought, near enough to afford support, with every prospect of success; but unfortunately, from the wind heading, they were not able to fetch the leewardmost ship, a three-decker, bearing the flag of a Rear-Admiral, to windward of St. Marguerite, and, consequently, only a partial firing took place, in passing on different tacks, and after wearing from the shore, between Sepet and Cape Brun.

Had the body of the fleet fortunately been more advanced when the change of wind took place, I am confident we should not only have brought the enemy to close action, but every ship we had weathered, would have been our reward, although they had not been above a league eastward of the port, and always under cover of the batteries.

The French fleet, the moment the wind changed, used all possible expedition to get back into the harbour, and the Vice-Admiral was among the first that reached the anchorage.

The casualties in the ships on this occasion, are too trifling to mention, were it not for the wounds of two fine young officers, Lieutenant Clarke of the Marines, and Mr. Cuppage, Signal Midshipman of the San Josef, who each lost a leg by one unlucky shot.

I have, in common with every officer and man in this fleet, deeply to lament that a fairer opportunity was not afforded for displaying the full extent of their exertions in the cause of their Sovereign, and in support of the honour of his flag, confident there cannot be found more ardent zeal in this just struggle, than among the officers and men I have the happiness to command.

I beg leave to enclose a return of the casualties on this occasion, and

Have the honour to be, &c.

EDWARD PELLEW.

Dean of His Majesty's Chapels Royal, in the room of the Right Reverend Father in God, John, late Bishop of London, deceased.

The Lord Chamberlain has been pleased to appoint the Reverend John Carlton, D. D. Rector of Hartest-cum-Boxted, and of Stansfield, in the county of Suffolk, to be one of His Majesty's chaplains in ordinary, in the room of the Reverend J. Smith, deceased.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, that it should be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees of any of the goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (B), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint locks of the Crown and the London Dock Company, in any warehouse or warehouses, erected or to be erected, situate within the premises of the London Dock Company, without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandize, of the duties of Customs or Excise due on the importation thereof; subject nevertheless to the rules, regulations, and restrictions therein contained; provided that no such goods, wares, or merchandize should be so lodged or secured, unless or until such warehouses or other works belonging or to belong thereto, should be so far completed that in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely lodged, and remain under the regulations and directions in the said Act contained; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, were thereby authorized and empowered, in writing under his or their hand or hands, to certify and make known his or their approbation of such warehouses, which certificate should be published three times at least in the London Gazette, and in two or more public morning newspapers usually circulated in London: And whereas the table marked (B) above referred to, is in the words following; viz.

"A list of articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in the warehouses within the premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the duties due on the importation thereof being first paid,"

Rice,	Tobacco,	Wine,
Brandy,	Geneva,	and other Spirits.

And whereas certain vaults for wine and spirits, and warehouses for other articles of merchandize, and other parts of the said works have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in use: And whereas the vaults herein-after mentioned, part of the said works, have been since completed;

We, being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify, that in our judgment the fifth and last division of the vaults situate under the new tobacco warehouses at the east end of the dock, are so far completed as to be fit and ready, in every respect, for the reception of wine, brandy, Geneva, and other spirits.
