Admiralty-Office, January 11, 1814.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Fremantle to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Milford, Trieste; December, 1813.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour of enclosing a report from the Honourable Captain Cadogan, of His Majesty's ship Havannah, giving an account of the surrender of the very important fortress of Zara to the Austrian and British forces.

The judgment, perseverance, and ability shewn by him, on every occasion, will not, I am persuaded, escape their Lordships observation.

Captain Cadogan, with the crews of a frigate and a sloop, has accomplished as much as required the services of the squadron united at Trieste.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) T. F. FREMANTLE.

His Majesty's Ship Havannah, before Zara, December 6, 1813.

SIR,

IT is with great satisfaction I have the honour to inform you, that the fortress of Zara, has this day capitulated to the combined Austrian and English forces, after sustaining a cannonade of thirteen days from the English batteries, consisting two thirty-two pound carronades, eight eighteen pounders, and seven twelve pound long guns, as well as two howitzers worked by Austrians.

As the courier which conveys this information will set out immediately, I shall defer entering into particulars until another opportunity, and confine myself to the general terms granted, which are, that the garrison are to march out with honours of war; to ground their arms on the glacis, and then to be conducted as prisoners of war, until exchanged, to the outposts of the nearest French army.

The outwork of the garrison to be occupied this evening by the Austrian troops, and the whole of the enemy to march out on the 9th, at ten A. M.

As soon as I can make ready a copy of the terms, I shall have the honour of forwarding them to you: in the mean time,

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) GEO. CADOGAN, Captain.

Rear-Admiral Fremantle, &c. &c. &c.
