Archibald MacArthur, Gent. to be Busign, vice M'Nicol, promoted. Dated as above.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Corporation of Huntingdon.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Corporation of Huntingdon, in Common Council assembled; take the opportunity afforded us, by your Royal Highness's presence in this county, humbly to approach your Royal Highness with sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the late signal victories which have been obtained by the arms of His Majesty and his august allies.

We particularly beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on the deliverance of his Majesty's Hanoverian subjects, after so many years of suffering, from the grasp of the invader, and their restoration to the blessings of his Majesty's paternal government; and we rejoice on the re-establishment of the independence of Holland, after the miseries under which it has so long laboured.

We contemplate, with the highest satisfaction, the firmness and persevering energy that have so eminently distinguished your Royal Highness's Councils, by which the laws and constitution of this country have been so ably maintained in times of unparalleled difficulty and danger, and by which the nations of Europe have been stimulated to exert that manly resistance against tyranny, and to engage in that noble struggle, which, under the blessings of Divine Providence, have been crowned with such glorious success.

We repose the fullest confidence in your Royal Highness's measures, and beseech your Royal
