

desired in the point of Religion. That the Duke of Lorraine was expected at Vienna, to be present at a Council of War, where, among other things, the necessary Orders would be dispatched for the raising eight Regiments of Foot, three of Croats, and two of Dragoons. Here are arrived Deputies from the Chapter of Liege, who come to represent to his Electoral Highness, the proceedings of the French in the Country of Liege.

Hamburg, Jan. 13. The Duke of Hanover is going to make the Elector of Brandenburg a Visit; and the general opinion is, when together, will take the Resolutions necessary for the maintaining the peace of the Empire. From Saxony they write, that the Court is full of old experienced Officers; that the Elector is going to provide Magazines in some of the most convenient Places within his Territories; and that his Electoral Highness will in a short time have a very good Army on foot.

Brussels, Jan. 13. The Prince of Parma, of whose return hither we told you in our last, has settled Affairs in Flanders to his great satisfaction; the States having consented to the Subsidies he demanded for the payment of the Troops in that Province, &c. From Liege they write, that now they begin to despair of accommodating Matters with their Elector; That the Chapter of Liege had sent Deputies to Cologne, to represent to his Electoral Highness, the sad condition the Countrey is reduced to by the proceedings of the French, and to pray him to send some fit person to Paris, to lay their Complaints before the King. In the Province of Limburg, the people are in great fear of the French, and therefore remove their best Goods to Aix la Chapelle, and to Maestricht.

Hague, Jan. 16. The States of Holland have resolved to raise the Moneys demanded by the Council of State, for the maintenance of the Forces this present year; upon which the Officers have received Orders to begin their Recruits, which will in all amount to between 10 and 11000 Men. We have an account from Paris, that the Heer Van Sarsenberg, our Ambassador, was arrived there. We are informed, that overtures have been made for the exchanging the Marquise of Bergen-op-zoom, with such Lands as belong to the Prince of Orange in Burgundy, but that the French King has not approved of them.

Paris, Jan. 14. By the way of Venice we have Advice, That the Peace which the Sieur du Quesne had made with the Tripolins had been confirmed at Constantinople; we know not the Conditions, because the Bark that was charged with the Sieur du Quesne's Letters, has been taken by the Algerines. It is added that the Sieur du Quesne having finished this Affair with the Tripolins, is to go for Constantinople to fetch away our Ambassador, if the Grand Vizier continues to deny him the Sofa. They of Tunis have demanded the liberty of the Moors, belonging to that City, that are Slaves in the French Gallies, and seem to have a mind to make this a pretence to break with us. It is said that the King is going to establish a Bank here, as is now at Venice and Lyon. On Friday last the Commissioners appointed by the King to examine the Propositions of the Deputies of the Clergy concerning the Regality, met at St. Germain's, occasioned, as is thought, by the arrival of a Courier from Rome, which we are told, brought among other things an account, that the Pope continued very firm in that Matter. According to the last account we had from Luxemburg, our Troops continued very closely to block up that Place, some of them being posted within Cannon-shot. It is said, that the King Declared on Monday last to the Archbishop of Paris, That he did approve the Propositions of the Clergy in the matter of the Regality; and told him, that the said Deputies of the Clergy would do well in the next place, to consider how the said Propositions may be best put in execution.

Swansey, Jan. 5. We have had very bad weather, in which a Ship of Bristol, called the Victory, of 400 Tuns, was cast away near the Holmes, most of the Seamen being Saved, but the Passengers Drowned.

Whitehal, Jan. 11. This day the Ambassador from the King of Fez and Morocco had his publick Audience of their Majesties: He was brought from his House in the Strand, by the Right Honourable the Earl of Ranelagh, one of the Gentlemen of his Majesties Bedchamber, and Sir Charles Comers, Master of the Ceremonies, in his Majesties Coach, followed with a great many other Coaches with six Horses apiece, to Whitehal, in the usual manner, and was conducted through His Majesties Foot-Guards to the Council-Chamber, and after a short stay there to the Banqueting-House, where he was received at the Door by the Right Honourable the Earl of Arlington, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesties Household, and led up to their Majesties, who were seated under the State, attended by a very great number of the Nobility and Gentry, and by His Majesties Band of Gentlemen-Pensioners, and Yeomen of the Guard. The Ambassador having made a short Speech, presented to His Majesty a Letter from the King his Master, which His Majesty delivered to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Jenkins, who received it upon his Knee: After which, His Majesty was pleased to ask the Ambassador of the Health of the King of Fez; and the Ambassador having Answered thereunto, and finished what else he had to say, was reconducted in the same manner he came, to his House.

Advertisements.

Novum Jesu Christi Testamentum à Sebastiane Castellane Latine redditum. Londini, apud Sam. Mearne.

Peter Williamson went away from his Master John Mayne, the 9th Instant; he is a tall well-set Man, with a Light Periwig, a mix'd Stuff Suit, and clouded Stockings, a Cloth Campagne Coat, a Black Hat with a Gold Hatband: he is about 30 years of age, fair Complexioned. Whoever can give notice of him to Mr. John Mayne, (so as he may be secured) at the Three Crowns without Bishopgate, or to Langly Curtis, shall have ten pounds reward.

Lost on Monday last being the 9th Instant, a Parchment Deed, bearing date the 4th of February, 1656. made between William Turner then of London, Draper (now Sir William Turner) and others, of the one part, and Sir Edmond Pym Baronet, of the other part. If any person hath found the said Deed, they are desired to bring the same to Mr. Churchill, Bookseller in Aviemary Lane, London, or to Mr. Berry's Stationer in Grays-Inn, and they shall have 10 s. reward.

John Wilmore, about 16 years of age, of a pretty Ruddy Complexion, and something thick Lipped; an Apprentice to Lawrence Hunt, late of Chester, Watchmaker, hath been missing from the Widow of the said Hunt, ever since the 24th of September last past, and is not yet known, whether Living or Dead; If any Person can give any Intelligence of the said John Wilmore, to William Royden, of the Parish of Christ-Church, Southwark, Brewer, by Letter or otherways, they shall be rewarded for their pains.