WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, January 30, 1814.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, has been received by Earl Bathurst, addressed to his Lordship by Field Marshal the Marquess of Wellington, K.G. dated St. Jean de Luz, 16th January 1814:

SINCE the army passed the Nive on the 9th of December, General Mina has had three battalions of the troops under his command at Bidarray, on the left of that river, and at St. Etienne de Baygorey, in observation of the enemy's movements from St. Jean Pied de Port.

The inhabitants of Baygorey were noted in the late war, for their opposition to the Spanish troops, and they are the only persons who in the present war have manifested any disposition to oppose the allies; and I was in hopes that the measures which I had adopted would have induced them to remain quiet.

With the aid of the inhabitants of Bidarray and Baygorey, and General Paris's division of the army of Catalonia, and such troops as he could collect belonging to the garrison of St. Jean Pied de Port, General D'Harispe moved upon the troops of General Mina's division on the 12th instant, and obliged them to retire into the valley of the Aldudes.

No movement has since been made on that side.

My last accounts from Catalonia are of the 31st ultimo, at which period there was no alteration in the situation of the troops in that quarter.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of January 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the fifteenth day of July last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the eighth day of February next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months, to commence from the said eighth day of February next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition:" But is it His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall prevent the exportation of any of the articles, specified in the Order in Council of the 20th May last to the coast of Africa, under the conditions contained in the said Order. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of January 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the fifteenth day of July last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, or other naval stores, will expire upon the eighth day of February next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whosoever do, at any time for the space of six months from the said eighth day of February next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships of war, or any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of naval stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, tallow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments, within the same season; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal City of Chester, deeply impressed with the liveliest sense of gratitude to Almighty God for the manifold and inestimable benefits which he has bestowed on this United Kingdom, and for the blessings we enjoy under His most gracious Majesty's mild and beneficent Government, humbly presume to approach your Royal presence to offer to you our sincere congratulations on the signal and glorious victories obtained by His Majesty's arms, and those of His Allies, over the forces of the enemy, and to assure your Royal Highness that we contemplate the happiest results from a continuance of their united exertions: that your Royal Highness's Person and Government may experience uninterrupted happiness and prosperity, is the ardent prayer of your loving subjects the inhabitants of Chester.

Signed by order and on the behalf of a Meeting of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the said City of Chester, assembled in the Town-Hall of the said City, on Friday the 24th day of December 1813,

Wm. Newell, Deputy Mayor.

[Transmitted by General Thomas Grosvenor, M. P. and presented by the Right Honourable Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, humbly beg leave, with hearts full of duty and affection, to offer to your Royal Highness our most sincere congratulations on those signal successes which have attended the arms of the British empire and the illustrious Allies, who have united for the deliverance of Europe.

When we reflect upon the terrible events of the war, which for so many years has been the scourge of the civilized world, we cannot but feel the most lively sentiments of admiration for that unshaken constancy of mind which enabled our venerated Sovereign to maintain the dignity and independence of his empire, amidst the terror and desolation by which it was surrounded.

We triumph in the firmness and energy with which your Royal Highness has followed his illustrious example, even when left almost alone in the arduous contest for liberty and honour; and we bow, with devout gratitude, to that protecting Providence which has guided your Royal Highness's councils, and given success to your arms.

Encouraged by your Royal Highness's example, instructed by your wisdom, and supported by your powerful assistance, Europe at length has broken the chain which held her in slavery; and hopes may now be entertained, that the enemy, having learned moderation and equity, may give to your Royal Highness an opportunity of putting a period to the miseries of war, and of securing to the world a peace, not delusive, but real; not transitory, but lasting; such as shall gratify the feelings of humanity for the present, and leave no apprehensions for the future.

It is the glory of your Royal Highness's administration to have given birth to those hopes: May it be your happiness to see them confirmed; and long to enjoy the gratitude of the nations you have rescued from oppression; long to witness the prosperity of that empire which Providence has entrusted to your care.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by the Right Honourable Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants, Common Council, the Archdeacon, Clergy, Gentry, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Colechester, and its vicinity, beg leave to approach the throne with sincere and ardent assurances of our zealous and permanent attachment to your Royal Highness's person, family, and Government.

We feelingly condole with your Royal Highness on the subject of the lamented indisposition of our beloved Sovereign, whose private and public virtues, and whose zeal for the great interest of religion, have shed an inextinguishable lustre around his throne, and who has ever reigned in the hearts of his loyal and affectionate people.

But turning our eyes from scenes which wound our sensibility, to those which must excite the proudest national sympathies, we congratulate your Royal Highness on the brilliant career of glory, which has attended the late patriotic struggles for the liberties and independence of Europe—but particularly for the happy deliverance of the Electorate of Hanover, from the oppressive and humiliating yoke of French usurpation, and its restoration to the paternal Government of your Royal Highness's august family. We also feel the most lively exultation in the emancipation of the United States of Holland from the pressure of a remorseless despotism, and at the prospect of the happy renewal of commercial intercourse between Great Britain and its ancient ally; from which the most beneficial results to the mutual interests of both countries may be so justly anticipated.

When we view the present re-organized state, of the liberties and independence of Europe, we are presented with a most pleasing and animating prospect—an odious despotism over the commerce, the industry, the public and private comforts of nations, triumphantly overthrown; a well-grounded hope, of the speedy restoration of the balance of power in Europe most rationally entertained, and the patriotic union of confederated states nobly exerted in support of legitimate Government; this quick succession of brilliant events, whilst they exalt the British character, stands almost unrivalled in the annals of military fame. And to crown the whole, the consummate talents and continually increasing renown of that Illustrious Commander Field Marshal the Marquess of Wellington, planting, in co-operation with our allies, Britain's triumphant standard on the enemy's territory, and bursting asunder the chains that held captive the liberties of Spain and Portugal; happy and free ourselves, we sympathise in the political distresses of other countries, and glory in being instrumental in procuring their liberty and independence.

Under the protecting providence of Almighty God, we delight in tracing those glorious events to the operation of that enlightened policy influencing the Councils of your Royal Highness's Government; by which the immense resources of this united empire have been directed to the most happy results; by which the justice of our righteous and hallowed cause has been so ably maintained; and the energies of the allied powers have been so skillfully called into action.

We further contemplate with high satisfaction the firm, but temperate language which your Royal Highness lately adopted in your address to the two Houses of Parliament—"That no disposition to require from France sacrifices of any description, inconsistent with her honour or just pretensions as a nation, will ever be, on the part of your Royal Highness, or on that of His Majesty's allies, an obstacle of peace." This is a declaration worthy of the patriotic Prince of a free people; and long may the God of empires support your Royal Highness in these glorious efforts to restore the happiness and independence of Europe, and to uphold the civil and religious liberties of this envied land.

Given under the seal of the Mayor and Commonality of the said Borough of Colchester, and signed by me for and on behalf of the Corporation, and the Archdeacon, Clergy, Gentry, and other Inhabitants of the borough and its vicinity, in pursuance of a resolution unanimously passed at a meeting for that purpose, held at the Moothall of the said borough, this 23d day of December, in the year of our Lord, 1813.

W. Sparling, Mayor.
