AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 19th of March, 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by sundry Acts of Parliament, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 7th of this instant March, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to allow, and did thereby allow, for the space of six months, to commence from the 25th day of this instant March, the importation from any port or place whatsoever, into any port or place of Great Britain, of certain articles of provision therein named, subject to the rules and regulations set forth in the said Order, without payment of any duty whatsoever, except in respect to the article of rice, which when imported should be subject to such duties as might by law be payable hereon; and whereas it is expedient that rice imported in British ships or vessels, directly from any of the possessions of the East India Company, or from any British colony or plantation, should be exempted from the payment of the said duties, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by sundry Acts of Parliament, set forth in the said Order in Council of the 7th of this instant March, is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for the space of six months from and after the 25th day of this instant March; the importation of rice from any of the possessions of the East India Company, or from any British colony or plantation, in British ships or vessels, without payment of any duty whatsoever; any thing contained in the Order in Council above-mentioned of the 7th day of this instant March, to the contrary notwithstanding. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 7th of March 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty, by sundry Acts of Parliament, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, by His Order in Council of the twentieth of February one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to allow, and did thereby allow, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the importation into any port or place of Great Britain, of certain articles of provisions, in the manner and under the conditions therein mentioned; and whereas by an Act passed in the fifty-first year of His present Majesty, cap. 14, it is enacted, that an Act made in the thirty-ninth year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the exportation, and permit the importation of corn, and for allowing the importation of other articles of provision without payment of duty, to continue in force until six weeks after the commencement of the next session of Parliament," which was continued by an Act of the thirty-ninth and fortieth years of His present Majesty, and amended and further continued by several subsequent Acts until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, shall, from and after the said twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, be, and the same is thereby further continued during the continuance of the war, and until six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for the space of six months, to commence from the twenty-fifth day of this instant March, the importation from any port or place whatsoever into any port or place of Great Britain, of any beans, called kidney or French beans, tares, lentiles, calavancies, and all other sorts of pulse; and also of bulls, cows, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, and swine; and of beef, pork, mutton, veal, and lamb (except salted beef and pork); and of bacon, hams, tongues, butter, cheese, potatoes, rice, sago, sago powder, tapioca, vermicelli, millet seed, poultry, fowls, eggs, game, and sour crout, in any British ship or vessel, or in any other ship or vessel belonging to persons of any kingdom or state in amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any manner whatever, without payment of any duty whatsoever, except in respect to the article of rice, which, when imported, shall be subject to such duties as may by law be payable thereon; provided that a due entry shall be made of all such articles as aforesaid that shall be imported, with the proper officers of the Customs at the port where the same shall be imported, under the penalties and forfeitures mentioned and referred to in the said above-recited Act, passed in the thirty-ninth year of His present Majesty: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Chetwynd

Copy of a Letter from Captain Sir Michael Seymour, of His Majesty's Ship Hannibal, addressed to Admiral Sir Richard Bickerton, Bart. and transmitted by the Admiral to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Hannibal, at Sea, SIR, March 27, 1814.

I HAVE the pleasure to acquaint you of the capture of La Sultane, French frigate, of forty-four guns and three hundred and thirty men, at a quarter past three P. M. yesterday, after an ineffectual endeavour to disable this ship.

When spread on the look-out from the Hebrus at ten A. M. Isle de Bas S. E. twelve leagues, with a light breeze from the S. W. it came very thick weather, and guns were heard in the N. N. E. and on its clearing up, proceeding under all sail, I found the Hebrus near me, the Sparrow in the N. W. and two enemy's frigates E. by N. five or six miles distant, one with jury topmasts and sails, and the other with double reefed topsails, apparently having suffered from tempest or action. We neared them fast, but on the wind's changing at eleven to the N. N. W. very fresh, one hauled S. E. and the other E. by N. and I directed the Hebrus, as the best sailing ship, and the Sparrow to pursue the seemingly most perfect frigate; and I lost sight of them, going above ten knots at two P. M. when the Hebrus was closing the enemy very fast, and afterwards about three, four guns were heard.

The other ship is L'Etoile, which with La Sultane, lost each twenty killed and about thirty wounded, in action with the Creole and Astrea, off Isle of Mayo, two months since, and each had three hundred and fifty men on sailing from the Loire.

I have given charge of the prize to Lieutenant

Crouch, an able officer, who has served many years with me, and

I have the honour to be, &c.

IRON WORKS AND COLLIERY FOR SALE.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued, and now in prosecution, against John Thomas, at the Angel Inn, in the town of Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan, between the hours of Four and Six o'Clock in the Afternoon, on Wednesday the 6th day of April 1814,

Lot 1. All those Iron Works, situate in the parish of Machen, in the county of Monmouth, called Pontyruister Iron Works, consisting of a Rolling Mill, capable of turning out forty tons of half iron per week, and a Wooden Helve Hammer for drawing out steel, with carpenters shops, smith forges, turning machines, store-houses, eighteen workmen's, and other convenient buildings.

Also, a substantial newly erected agent's house, with stabling, out-offices, gardens, and premises thereto belonging.

Also, a piece of ground adjoining the river Ebbw, containing by estimation seven-tenths acres or thereabouts, on part of which the above iron works and other buildings and premises have been erected and made, and the whole of which is held under a lease granted by William Phillips, Esq. together with all his right to the said river, for a term whereof twenty-seven years is unexpired from the 5th day of March last, subject to a yearly rent of 1311. 5s. and which lease contains a covenant for granting a further term of forty years of the same premises, to commence from the expiration of the said lease, on payment of 5201. down, and the said yearly rent of 1311. 5s.

Also, a piece of freehold land, situate in the parish of Risca, in the said county of Monmouth, only divided from the said seven-tenths acres by the said river Ebbw.

The above iron works are worked by water, of which they have a constant supply from the said river Ebbw, and are distant from the shipping port of Newport about six miles, and most eligibly situated about three quarters of a mile from the Monmouthshire Canal, and a tram road leading from Sirhowy and Fredgoe Iron Works to Newport, with which tram road they communicate by another tram road about three quarters of a mile in length.

Lot 2. A valuable Colliery near Northbridge, in the parish of Monmouth, in the said county of Monmouth, about eleven miles and three quarters from Newport aforesaid, containing coals of the best quality, adjoining Penner Colliery, and is the same as will be seen.

The whole of this colliery is leasehold, and different parts of it granted at different periods, the longest term of which is seventeen years from the 24 day of June, 1811, subject to the payment of certain gallages and rents. There is also 18d. per ton to be paid for all coals brought out through the main level thereof.

The above colliery is now let to Mr. Moses Moses, under an agreement for a lease thereof for seven years, from the 12th day of July last, at a clear rent of 2001. per annum, payable monthly by a bill at two months, over and above and independent of the said gallages, rents and payments.

Also, to be sold by auction, at the time and place above mentioned, subject to such conditions as shall be then and there produced (by order of the Assignees),

Lot 3. An Agreement for a lease of an undivided moiety of a limestone quarry, situate in the parish of Risca, in the county of Monmouth, for a term of twenty-one years, commencing the 1st of November 1810, at the yearly rent of 201. This quarry is most advantageously situated close to the Monmouthshire Canal.

There are a variety of articles lying at the said iron works, too numerous to mention here, which will be extremely useful to a purchaser of those works, and may be taken by him at a valuation. A list of the whole of which may be seen, on application to William Parnell, at the works.

For a view of the iron works and limestone quarry, apply to William Parnell, at the works; and of the colliery, to Mr.

Moses Moses, Argos Colliery, Redwally, Monmouthshire, and for further particulars, to Mr. David Williams, Solicitor, Newport, Monmouthshire.

THE Assignees of the estate of Thomas Hilditch, of Shrewsbury, in the County of Salop, Shropshire, a Bankrupt, hereby give notice, that they advertised his house situate in Castle-Street, in Shrewsbury, to be sold by auction on the 21st day of August last, but no bidder appeared; that the Assignees have since advertised the house for sale by private contract, but have received one offer only to purchase the same, and that for the sum of 3901. The Assignees therefore give this public notice, that on Monday the 11th day of April next, they shall contract to sell the house for the same sum of 3901. unless they receive a higher offer for the same at the same time; and they request that every such offer be before mentioned, may be made either personally or by letter post paid, to Mr. Tecce, Currier, in Shrewsbury, one of the Assignees.
