

SUPPLEMENT

TO

The London Gazette
EXTRAORDINARY.

Of SATURDAY the 9th of APRIL.

Published by Authority.

SUNDAY, APRIL 10, 1814.

Foreign-Office, April 9, 1814.

COLONEL LOWE arrived this night at this Office with Dispatches from Lord Viscount Burghersh, of which the following are copies.

MY LORD, Paris, April 7, 1814.

THE great events which have of late occurred in this capital will be best detailed to you by His Majesty's Ministers assembled at this place.

The corps of Marshal Marmont, amounting to twelve thousand men, passed in the night of the 4th within the lines occupied by the Allied troops. This corps has taken its cantonments near Versailles.

Marshals Ney and Macdonald, accompanied by General Caulaincourt, arrived at the same time, as bearers of Buonaparte's proposal, to submit to the decision of the Senate and the people of France, and to abdicate in favour of his son.

This proposition not having been agreed to, he has now surrendered himself to the wishes of the nation.

The Senate have this day announced the adoption of a Constitution for the Government of France, under the dominion of their ancient line of Kings. There seems no diversity of opinion in the nation. All have obeyed the call of the Provisional Government. Buonaparte stands alone and unprotected in a country where, but a few days past, he disposed at pleasure of the lives of its inhabitants.

In this concluding scene of the most memorable æra which history records, it is impossible, my Lord, I should resist a feeling of public duty, prompted also by a sense of gratitude and affection, in calling your attention to the able and distinguished manner in which Prince Schwartzenberg has conducted the operations of this campaign. Exclusively of the talent which he has marked when in the field of battle, to the successes which have ever attended his career, the world will still look with almost increased admiration, to the conduct he has pursued since his entry into Paris.

Where conciliation, where every kind feeling of the heart was required to change a system of carnage and desolation to the protection of a people, but of late a most bitter enemy, the character of Prince Schwartzenberg secured to him success.

More security, more order never reigned in this capital. Peace and tranquillity, the happy omens, may we hope, of the future regenerated state of Europe, exist here amidst the troops of every nation, in spite of feelings lately of so great hostility.

From his great and exalted situation, from the virtues which adorn his character, the Emperor of Russia has been best able to appreciate the merits of Prince Schwartzenberg. In token of the esteem he bears him, and in estimation of his great services, he has decorated him with the grand Order of St. Andrew, and has presented it in diamonds.

I have the honour to be, &c.

BURGHersh, Lieut. Col. 63d Reg.

*The Right Honourable the Viscount
Castlereagh, &c. &c. &c.*

My Lord, Paris, April 7, 1814.

BUONAPARTE having accepted the conditions proposed to him, Marshals Ney and Macdonald, and General Caulincourt, have this day arranged with Prince Schwartzenberg the following line of demarcation, to be observed between the Allied and French armies:

From the Mouth of the Seine, the Allies will occupy the right bank of that river, and in addition, the Southern limits of the Departments—

- 1st. Of the Lower Seine.
- 2d. Of the Oise.
- 3d. Of the Seine and Oise.
- 4th. Of the Seine and Marne.
- 5th. Of the Yonne.
- 6th. Of Côte d'Or.
- 7th. Of the Saone and Loire.
- 8th. Of the Rhone.
- 9th. Of the Isere as far as Mount Cenis.

On the side of Lord Wellington, it has been decided, that the line of demarcation shall be fixed according to the ground occupied by his army, and the one opposed to him, at the moment the couriers now dispatched shall reach him.

I have the honour to be, &c.

BURGHersh, Lieut. Col. 63d Reg.

The Right Honourable the Viscount Castlereagh.
