SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 1814.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects, the Vice Warden, Magistrates, Yeomanry, and Miners of the Stannaries of Devon, in your Royal Highness's Duchy of Cornwall, humbly request permission to approach your Royal Highness with the warmest sentiments of loyalty and attachment to the person and family of your Royal Highness, and to our excellent Constitution.

Whilst we deeply lament in common with your Royal Highness and the nation at large the continued indisposition of your Royal Father, our august and venerable Sovereign, we beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere congratulations that Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, your beloved daughter, has attained the age assigned for her entrance into public life, and to lay at the feet of your Royal Highness our earnest prayers for her future welfare and happiness.

The brilliant successes of His Majesty's arms employed in rescuing the kingdoms of Spain and Portugal from foreign tyranny and usurpation, and the present glorious prospect of happiness that dawns over Europe, resulting from the sound and enlightened policy of your Royal Highness's Government, impress us with the deepest sense of gratitude, and feelings of the highest national exultation.

Should imperious circumstances necessarily protract the period when an honourable peace will, we trust, by the blessings of Divine Providence, crown the noble efforts of your Royal Highness to establish the independence of Europe, we humbly solicit your royal sanction to raise from among our body, in your Royal Highness's Stannaries of Devon, a regiment whose services shall extend beyond the regulations of the present local Militia establishment, by the performance of garrison or other duty throughout the western district, and by a longer period of service in each year, in order to facilitate, to the extent of our humble means, the measures lately adopted by your Royal Highness's Government respecting the regular militia.

Finally, should your Royal Highness graciously condescend to accept the offer which we thus presume to submit to your Royal Highness, we beg to express our readiness to lay before your Royal Highness, through the medium of the distinguished Nobleman appointed by your Royal Highness as Lord Warden of the Stannaries, the particulars and extent of our proffered services, and to assure your Royal Highness that our utmost exertions may always be confidently relied on to support the honour and dignity of your illustrious house and the best interests of our beloved country.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness, our sincerest congratulations on the many splendid victories that have been obtained by His Majesty's forces, and those of His illustrious Allies.

We behold with heartfelt satisfaction, in common with every friend to humanity and social order, the liberation of millions of our fellow men, from the galling yoke under which they had so long groaned, in almost hopeless misery, and we confidently anticipate the many great and inestimable blessings which the civilized world may now expect to receive from the triumphant progress of the allied armies, which will, we trust, under Divine Providence, soon deliver Europe from the tyranny of French domination, and establish a strong and permanent barrier against the future encroachments of inordinate ambition.

Among the many great and eventful changes which have thus been recently produced, we, as Britons, cannot but feel peculiarly gratified by the restoration of His Majesty's German dominions to their legitimate Sovereign, and, of the United Provinces to the Prince of Orange; the renewal of our ancient relations of amity and commercial intercourse with the Dutch Nation, must necessarily open abundant sources of prosperity to British interests, and contribute at once to our national security, and to public and individual wealth and happiness.

We assure your Royal Highness, that we have the fullest reliance on the wisdom of your Royal Highness's Government, the energy of which has hitherto led to results glorious beyond all former example; and we trust that a continuance in the same firm councils, will procure for His Majesty's subjects the early establishment of peace and tranquility, the just reward of their long and arduous resistance to the invader of the liberties of Europe.

Given under the seal of our corporation, this 23d day of December 1813.

Thomas Smith, Mayor.

Admiralty-Office, April 16, 1814.

A LETTER has been transmitted to this office, addressed by Captain Coode, of His Majesty's ship Porcupine, to Rear-Admiral Penrose, dated in the Garonne, above Pouillac, the 2d instant, giving an account of the capture or destruction of a flotilla of the enemy by the advanced boats of the British squadron, under Lieutenant Dunlop, of the Porcupine.

The flotilla was observed at daylight, proceeding down from Blaye to Talmont, and, on the approach of the boats, the vessels were run on shore, and their crews, with about two hundred soldiers from Blaye, lined the beach to protect them; but Lieutenant Dunlop landing with a detachment of seamen and marines, drove them with great loss into the woods, and remained till the tide allowed the greater part of the vessels to be brought off.

One gun-brig, six gun-boats, one armed schooner, three chasse marées, and an Imperial barge, were captured; and one gun-brig, two gun-boats, and one chasse marée, burned.

This service was performed with the loss of two seamen missing, and fourteen seamen and marines wounded; and the gallantry and good conduct of Lieutenant Dunlop, and the other officers and men employed on the occasion, are highly commended by Rear-Admiral Penrose and Captain Coode.

No. 16885.

of March last; Henry Trigg, of Berden, in the county of Essex, shoemaker, hearing some persons in the shop adjoining to his house, went with his father, Henry Trigg, to the door of the shop, which opened into the street, and they there met two men coming out of the shop, one of whom rushed by them, and escaped. The other, having been knocked down, and secured by the son, was delivered into the hands of his father. Henry Trigg then went in pursuit of the man who had escaped; but, upon hearing a scuffle take place between his father and the man he had left him in charge of, and fearing lest he should break from him, he returned to his father's assistance; and while they were all three struggling upon the ground, the person who had escaped, returned and fired a gun or pistol, but without effect; and in a very short space of time he came up to Henry Trigg, the son, and, with a dreadful imprecation, swore that he would do for him, and immediately fired a second time, and shot Henry Trigg, the son, in the left side of his breast, which occasioned his instant death.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of the offenders (except the person who actually fired at and shot the said Henry Trigg,) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her or their accomplice or accomplices in the said murder; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and convict the said offenders or any of them, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted thereof.—Such reward to be paid upon conviction of any one or more of the offenders by the inhabitants of the neighbourhood of Berden.

Whitehall, April 12, 1814.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about two o'clock on the morning of the 4th instant, five or six persons or more, disguised in slops or flannel shirts, broke and entered into the shop of Mr. Thomas Morley, of Gilt-Hill, in the parish of Greasley, in the county of Nottingham, and destroyed five stocking frames, with the work that was on them;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually broke the said frames) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices in the said felony, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and convict the said offenders, or any of them, or cause them or any of them to be apprehended and convicted thereof; such reward to be paid upon conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by Messrs. Needham and Nixons, of Nottingham, owners of the said frames.
