

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 1814.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and faithful subjects, the Vice Warden, Magistrates, Yeomanry, and Miners of the Stannaries of Devon, in your Royal Highness's Duchy of Cornwall, humbly request permission to approach your Royal Highness with the warmest sentiments of loyalty and attachment to the person and family of your Royal Highness, and to our excellent Constitution.

Whilst we deeply lament in common with your Royal Highness and the nation at large the continued indisposition of your Royal Father, our august and venerable Sovereign, we beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere congratulations that Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, your beloved daughter, has attained the age assigned for her entrance into public life, and to lay at the feet of your Royal Highness our earnest prayers for her future welfare and happiness.

The brilliant successes of His Majesty's arms employed in rescuing the kingdoms of Spain and Portugal from foreign tyranny and usurpation, and the present glorious prospect of happiness that dawns over Europe, resulting from the sound and enlightened policy of your Royal Highness's Government, impress us with the deepest sense of gratitude, and feelings of the highest national exultation.

Should imperious circumstances necessarily protract the period when an honourable peace will, we trust, by the blessings of Divine Providence, crown the noble efforts of your Royal Highness to establish the independence of Europe, we humbly solicit your royal sanction to raise from among our body, in your Royal Highness's Stannaries of Devon, a regiment whose services shall extend beyond the regulations of the present local Militia establishment, by the performance of garrison or other duty throughout the western district, and by a longer period of service in each year, in order to facilitate, to the extent of our humble means, the measures lately adopted by your Royal Highness's Government respecting the regular militia.

Finally, should your Royal Highness graciously condescend to accept the offer which we thus presume to submit to your Royal Highness, we beg to express our readiness to lay before your Royal Highness, through the medium of the distinguished Nobleman appointed by your Royal Highness as Lord Warden of the Stannaries, the particulars and extent of our proffered services, and to assure your Royal Highness that our utmost exertions may always be confidently relied on to support the honour and dignity of your illustrious house and the best interests of our beloved country.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness, our sincerest congratulations on the many splendid victories that have been obtained by His Majesty's forces, and those of His illustrious Allies.

We behold with heartfelt satisfaction, in common with every friend to humanity and social order, the liberation of millions of our fellow men, from the galling yoke under which they had so long groaned, in almost hopeless misery, and we confidently anticipate the many great and inestimable blessings which the civilized world may now expect to receive from the triumphant progress of the allied armies, which will, we trust, under Divine Providence, soon deliver Europe from the tyranny of French domination, and establish a strong and permanent barrier against the future encroachments of inordinate ambition.