SATURDAY, MAY 7, 1814.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 6th of
May 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Warren Hastings was, by command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly,

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of April 1814,

PRESENT,

Council.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the restrictions heretofore imposed on the ports of Italy shall immediately cease, and be suspended, and that it shall be lawful for His Majesty's subjects to trade in the same manner as they had before traded in times of peace, between His Majesty's dominions, and the ports of Italy from which the British flag is not excluded:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 3, 1814.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Wednesday the 11th instant, at two o'clock.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

Most Gracious Prince,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness, with joyful congratulations on the glorious result of that enlightened policy, and of those splendid achievements, which have led to the re-establishment of legitimate government, and restored the independence of the European nations.

While we review the occurrences of the late arduous wars in which His Majesty has been engaged, we feel, along with your Royal Highness and our fellow-subjects, a generous pride in reflecting, that throughout this eventful period, and amidst the wreck of antient institutions, the British people has been enabled, under Divine Providence, to afford succour to the oppressed; to oppose successfully tyrannical aggression; to stand forth on all occasions, even when alone and unassisted, the bulwark of the liberties of Europe; and, by exhibiting a noble example of steady perseverance, to contribute, in a pre-eminent degree, to keep alive the spirit of independence, and to rouse the Continental nations to those magnanimous efforts, which have at last accomplished their deliverance.

When the late tyrant of France perfidiously seized upon the territories of his unsuspecting Ally, the King of Spain, and forced the Sovereigns of Portugal to take refuge in their Trans-Atlantic dominions, that gallant army sailed from the British shores to their assistance, which, under the guid-
