Admiralty-Office, May 8, 1814.

A DISPATCH was this day received from Vice Admiral Sir E. Pellew, Bart. addressed to John Wilson Croker, Esq. of which the following is a copy.

His Majesty's Ship Caledonia, Genoa
SIR,
Mote, April 14, 1815.

I HAVE great pleasure in announcing to their Lordships, the surrender of this fortress last night by capitulation. I have the honour to enclose the terms.

At the request of Lord William Bentinck, I came hither with the ships named in the margin*, leaving the remainder of the fleet to watch Toulon, under the orders of Rear-Admiral Sir Richard King, and on my arrival on the morning of the 17th, the batteries had just opened their fire, and were warmly engaged with those which had been opened by the assailants. I have desired Sir Josias Rowley to make a report of that part of the service which devolved upon the naval force employed on this service, and beg to recommend those whom he has pointed out to their Lordships favourably, but it remains for me to state, that the manner in which the whole service has been conducted by Sir Josias Rowley, claims my sincere acknowledgements, and their Lordships will I am sensible receive it with a just consideration of his uniform zeal and merits.

I have the honour to be, &c.

EDWARD PELLEW.

John Wilson Croker, Esq. Secretary to the Admiralty.
