By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring the Cessation of Arms as well by Sea as Land, agreed upon between His Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty, and enjoining the Observance thereof.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS a Convention for the suspension of hostilities between His Majesty and the kingdom of France, was signed at Paris on the twenty-third day of April last, by the Plenipotentiary of His Majesty and the Plenipotentiary of His Royal Highness Monsieur, brother of the Most Christian King, Lieutenant-General of the Kingdom of France: And whereas, for the putting an end to the calamities of war, as soon, and as far as may be possible, it hath been agreed between His Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty as follows; that is to say, that as soon as the Convention shall be signed and ratified, friendship should be established between His Majesty and the kingdom of France by sea and land, in all parts of the world: and in order to prevent all causes of complaint and dispute which might arise with respect to prizes that might be made at sea after the signature of the said Convention, it has also been reciprocally agreed, that the vessels and effects which might be taken in the English Channel and in the North Seas, after the space of twelve days, to be reckoned from the exchange of the ratifications of the said Convention, should be restored on both sides; that the term should be one month within the British Channel and North Seas to the Canary Islands, and to the Equator; and five months in every other part of the world, without any exception, or other particular distinction of time or of place. And whereas the ratifications of the said Convention were exchanged by the respective Plenipotentiaries abovementioned, on the third day of this instant May, from which day the several terms abovementioned, of twelve days, of one month, and five months, are to be computed: Now, in order that the several epochs fixed as aforesaid between His Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty should be generally known and observed; We have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to notify the same to His Majesty's loving subjects; and We do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, strictly charge and command all His Majesty's Officers both at sea and land, and all other His Majesty's subjects whatsoever, that they forbear all acts of hostility, either by sea or land, against the kingdom of France, her Allies, her vassals or subjects, under the penalty of incurring His Majesty's highest displeasure.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the sixth day of May, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the United Fraternity of Ancient Freemasons of England, in Grand Lodge assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Grand Master, Past Grand Masters, Officers, and Brethren of the United Grand Lodge of Ancient Freemasons of England, as the first act of the re-union of the two Fraternities, feel it our duty, and therefore beg leave to approach your Royal Person, in order to place at the foot of the throne the communication of this auspicious event, accompanied with those assurances of unfeigned loyalty and submission to the laws of our country, upon which alone we presume to lay a claim to your royal patronage, as, without the certainty of their existence, we are equally confident that your Royal Highness would never have extended your gracious and royal protection so far as to have presided over a part of our society for so many years, to the advantage, lustre, and glory of the Craft in general.

To you, Royal Sir, who are so well acquainted with the unchangeable principles of our institution, and who will consequently perceive the happy and beneficial effects, which cannot fail to result to the State from our conjoint efforts being constantly exerted to inculcate amongst our brethren, loyalty and affection to our Sovereign, to impress on their hearts obedience to the laws and Magistrates of our country, as well as to encourage them to the exercise of every moral and civil duty, we flatter ourselves that this intelligence will prove most gratifying.

At the same time, we humbly crave of your Royal Highness the continuance of your royal favour, grace, and protection, begging leave to express to your Royal Highness our most lively and heartfelt gratitude for the many blessings, which we, in common with our fellow-subjects, derive from your benign sway.

With these sentiments, we fervently implore the Divine protection of the All-wise, All-merciful, and All-powerful Disposer of Events, no less extensive in their influence than inscrutable in their operation, to secure these blessings to our country in general, and to the Craft in particular, by the preservation of the life of your Royal Highness.

Augustus Frederick.

[Presented by His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex, Grand Master; His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent, and His Grace the Duke of Atholl, Past Grand Masters.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Cork.

WE, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Cork, in Council assembled, with hearts proudly exulting, yet at the same time deeply impressed with humble gratitude to the great and wise Dispenser of all Human Affairs, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness and lay at your feet our tribute of congratulation at the glorious and happy termination of a contest which, for upwards of twenty-two years, had by turns desolated the fairest portion of the Continent of Europe, and for a time threatened the subversion of all regular and legitimate Governments.

When we bring to our recollection the humbled and degraded state of vassalage in which the greater part of Europe had been held by the person who then exercised the powers of Government in France, and that it was the valour and perseverance of our empire that first set the example to the other nations of Europe effectually to resist, and at length finally to triumph over a despotism unparalleled in history, we cannot repress our feelings of honest pride at being subjects of an empire, powerful enough to make such exertions, and wise enough to convert them to the only legitimate purposes of all warfare, an honourable peace.

The grand and exalted station which the United Kingdom now takes amongst the nations of Europe, we attribute, under Divine Providence, to the wisdom of His Majesty's and your Royal Highness's Councils, directing the energies of this great empire; taught by the example of other nations, and made wise by the experience of what has occurred within our own day, we have learned truly to appreciate the value of our glorious and happy Constitution, and the many great and solid blessings and advantages it is capable of affording, when guided by the constitutional principles of the House of Brunswick.

Impressed with these sentiments and opinions, we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that we shall be at all times ready to maintain unaltered that Constitution under which Great Britain has attained her present state of enviable pre-eminence, and to express our devotion and attachment to our revered and gracious Sovereign, your Royal Highness and His illustrious family, who have been at all times distinguished for a generous love of liberty, and for being the firm and steady supporters of our civil and religious rights.

Done at the Council Chamber of the City of Cork, the 29th day of April, in the year 1814, and signed for the Common Council, David Perrier, Mayor of Cork.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Salmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the Lower Ward or Division of the County of Lanark, in Quarter Sessions assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness to offer our humble heartfelt congratulations on the late auspicious events, wherein our country has borne so distinguished a part.

With every class of His Majesty's loyal subjects, we lament the continued indisposition of your Royal Father, our revered Sovereign.

To the wisdom and unshaken firmness of His Majesty's counsels, we rejoice in tracing back the causes from which, under Divine Providence, the late unparalleled events have arisen; and we confidently look forward for a happy accomplishment to the same wise and vigorous measures which have been steadily pursued during the administration of your Royal Highness.

At no former period has the character of the British nation stood higher in arms; but to your Royal Highness has been reserved to exhibit the noblest example of friendship towards His Majesty the King of France, the influence of which must extend not only to the subjects of these nations, but to the whole civilized world, and cannot fail to produce reciprocal offices of good will and lasting peace.

Signed, by appointment, and in presence of the Quarter Sessions, at Glasgow, the 10th day of May, in the year 1814, John Lang, Preses.

[Transmitted by Mr. Lang, the Preses, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Bailies and Trustees of the Towns of Port Glasgow and Newark, do humbly beg leave to approach the throne with our hearty congratulations on the successful termination of calamities unequalled among civilized mankind.

To the wise and vigorous measures adopted by His Majesty, and perseveringly followed up by your Royal Highness, is to be ascribed, under the Divine favour, the deliverance of the world from the destructive torrent which had prostrated mighty nations, and threatened the overthrow of all social order, and a return of barbarism and ignorance to all the States of Europe.

We flatter ourselves that the miseries inflicted upon so great a portion of the human race by the revolutionary hydra of France, will serve as a lesson to all, and guard, at least, His Majesty's subjects from the dangerous delusions of anarchy and democracy, while the whole world will view the British Constitution of Government as the best security of rational freedom which any age or nation has exhibited, worthy of being adopted as the most complete model which human wisdom has devised, and the firmest support of the liberties of mankind.

It will therefore be no small consolation to your Royal Highness, under your filial sorrow for the protracted indisposition of His Majesty, to see the happy conclusion of a struggle altogether unparalleled, in which this country has born so conspicuous a part.

That your Royal Highness, with all of His Majesty's subjects, may long enjoy the fruits of that peace which the energy and fortitude of His Majesty and your Royal Highness have been the means of restoring, is our sincere and ardent prayer.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, in Council assembled, by me, the eldest Bailie and Chief Magistrate, and the common seal of said Towns hereunto affixed, at Port Glasgow, the 7th day of May 1814, and of His Majesty's reign the fifty-fourth year.

Peter M'Farlane.

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Noblemen, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth, assembled at our annual General Meeting, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the tender of our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the late glorious and unparalleled events, which promise a happy termination to the arduous contest in which we have so long been engaged.

That tyranny has been annihilated, and that Europe, relieved from the destructive power of insatiable ambition, beholds in every quarter the re-establishment of social order, of liberty, and independence, were alone matter of high exultation: but when we reflect, that these glorious results may, under Divine Providence, be in a high degree ascribed to the undaunted exertions of this mighty empire, directed by our beloved Sovereign and your Royal Highness, we want words to express our triumphant feelings, or the obligations we owe to your Royal Highness, for your unshaken firmness and perseverance in that line of policy which, having saved Britain from the anarchy which desolated Europe, has now raised the British name to the proud eminence on which it is placed by the gratitude of rescued nations. The wisdom of British counsels, and the splendid achievements of British gallantry, have been acknowledged by the voice of united Europe.

While we claim for our own intrepid country, the glory of having shown the example of unvaried resistance to lawless ambition, we beg leave to express our admiration of the vigour and unanimity with which that example has been followed by His Majesty's august Allies, who from the confines of Europe having pursued their oppressor to the capital of his dominions, have crowned their victorious career by bestowing on emancipated France the blessing of a free Constitution, under its legitimate Monarch; repressing every feeling of resentment—despising every emotion of revenge.

That lasting peace, rational freedom, and established government, may continue to be the reward of success merited by bravery, by unswerving constancy, and by moderation in the hour of victory; and that your Royal Highness may long enjoy the love and confidence of a free and loyal people, is our earnest and fervent prayer.

Signed by our Preses, in our names, and by our appointment, at Perth, this 30th day of April 1814, Gray.

Unto His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax for the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, now assembled in our General Annual Meeting, embrace with heartfelt joy this early opportunity of approaching your Royal Highness with the strongest assurances of loyalty and attachment, and with our warmest congratulations on the glorious termination of the struggles of Europe, during which the British empire has stood so pre-eminent.

Trusting in the continued goodness of Almighty God, we anticipate an ample compensation for the calamities of a destructive war, in the blessings of a long and prosperous peace; and we indulge the pleasing hope, that such arrangements will be made by the Allied Powers, as, under the blessing of Divine Providence, will most effectually secure the independence of nations, and the general happiness of the world.

Edward Boyd, Præses.

Unto His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, met in Synod, while we offer our thanksgivings to God, beg leave, at this interesting crisis, to tender at the foot of the throne our joyful congratulations on the prosperous state of public affairs.

While the internal peace of our country has been preserved, our commerce extended, and the honour of our national character signally displayed, we have beheld with exultation kingdoms rescued from the grasp of a lawless usurper, and the British standard raised in France for the emancipation of its oppressed inhabitants. We bless the providence of God, which has finally led all the legitimate Sovereigns of Europe to unite their councils and arms in the glorious cause of national independence. Adoring the justice of the Supreme Ruler in the judgements brought upon the insolent oppressor, we hail the day on which the allied armies, crowned with victory by the Lord of Hosts, entered Paris, as affording a prospect of the speedy restoration of lawful government to France, and of permanent peace, freedom, and independence to all the surrounding nations.

The world has seen, and history will record, the steadiness of your Royal Father's Councils amidst the threatening consequences of a revolution, which, in the awful judgements of the Most High, convulsed the kingdoms of the earth; and Britain, with grateful admiration, has beheld the vigour and success with which the same wise measures have been pursued under the auspicious administration of your Royal Highness, acting in the name and on the behalf of our venerable and beloved Monarch.

While, as the servants of the Prince of Peace, we labour to propagate the pure doctrines of the Gospel, for the temporal and eternal welfare of men, it will be our delight, as it is our duty, to inculcate the principles of loyalty, patriotism, and rational liberty, on the portion of His Majesty's people committed to our pastoral care.

That Almighty God, the Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ, may soothe the personal affliction of our revered Sovereign, continue to prosper the Government of your Royal Highness, bless the Queen, the Princess of Wales, and all the branches of the Royal Family, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace, and community at large of the County of Nairn, beg leave most cordially to congratulate your Royal Highness on the great and glorious success which has crowned the arms of His Majesty and His Allies, overturning the most cruel military despotism which, for upwards of twenty years disturbed the repose of the world. In approaching your Royal Highness, we beg, with grateful satisfaction, to acknowledge how much we, in common with the rest of mankind, owe to the wise measures and enlightened views displayed since your Royal Highness swayed the sceptre of your august Father; we view with great delight, the heartfelt satisfaction it must afford to your Royal Highness, to behold so worthy a result to the invincible perseverance and constancy of every class of His Majesty's subjects, in the struggle for the independence of Europe, and in it, of the civilized world, giving at length a fair prospect of a happy peace.

It is our particular wish, to testify our high sense of the inviolable attachment evinced by your Royal Highness to the British Constitution, and to the interests of His Majesty's subjects.

Whilst offering our congratulations upon events which have emancipated Europe from a degrading tyranny, we cannot forget the important trophies of that illustrious Commander, whose name shall ever rank high in his country's regard, and whose consummate Generalship has so uniformly crowned the British arms with glory, and first led to events which are now the admiration of the world.

That your Royal Highness may long experience the affectionate attachment and regard of a faithful and loyal people, is our earnest prayer.

David Davidson, Præses.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Berwick, assembled at a General Meeting, approach your Royal Highness with our sincere congratulations on the glorious events which have terminated the arduous war in which this nation has been, during nearly twenty years, unceasingly engaged; a war equally memorable by the magnitude of the interests which it involved; by the extent of the resources called into action; by the military prowess with which it has been distinguished; by the perseverance with which it has been pursued; and by the extraordinary rapidity and brilliancy of the successes which have thrown so much lustre on its termination.

As Britons we look with pride and gratitude to the eminent station which our favoured country now holds in the scale of nations. To Britain it has been reserved, under Providence, to be instrumental in arresting the progress of the most deadly evil the world has ever seen, that torrent of revolutionary principles which spread havoc and devastation through the fairest portions of the earth, overturning the ancient laws, levelling the established thrones of Europe; which breaking down every acknowledged barrier, every revered institution; confounding all rights of property, all principles of conduct, threatened in its ungoverned course, to dissolve the bonds of society, and to replunge the world in the darkness of the chaos from which it had emerged. To Britain did the glory belong of being in the most calamitous times, the rallying point of the oppressed nations of the earth, the asylum of the unfortunate of all countries. Though encompassed by alarming dangers; though the storms and waves of adversity raged around, our distinguished country maintained its post, returning again and again to the combat, with renewed energy and renewed resources; reviving the fainting hopes of Europe; rousing again to action the nations which the iron rod of despotism and the yoke of an usurper had sunk to the earth; and pursuing with them the path, which, under the favour of Heaven, has led once more to glory and freedom.

While we lay before your Royal Highness the expressions of our warmest congratulations on the happy effects which have followed the wisdom, firmness, and vigour of your Royal Highness's councils, we at the same time congratulate your Royal Highness on the cordial co-operation of our noble Allies, whose memorable exertions have been so eminently conducive to the advancement of the common cause, and whose heroic exploits have filled Europe with their fame. To the unexampled combination of valour, of wisdom, of confidence and generosity, which raises the character of the present continental alliance, high above all that the history of the world records, is to be essentially ascribed the downfall of the destructive tyranny that was the scourge of every nation; the auspicious restoration which with joy we have seen, of the ancient, the venerable throne of the Bourbons; and the renewal of those ties which now bid fair to unite again the world in the relations of a secure and lasting peace.

We deeply lament the heavy gloom which still clouds the setting days of our beloved Sovereign; and that He who, during a long and an eventful reign, ruled in the hearts, as over the persons of a grateful people, now shares not in the joy which the late great events diffuse through His kingdom. It is however in the feeling of consolation and confidence, that we look to the splendour which shines around the British throne, under your Royal Highness's Government: and in the same feeling, we indulge the earnest hope that your Royal Highness will long continue successfully to sway the British sceptre, giving new increase to the prosperity of this realm; new stability to the foundations of our glorious Constitution; and improved strength to those institutions, civil and religious, which have long been the admiration of the world, and which will, we trust, descend unimpaired to the latest posterity.

County, Preses of the Meeting.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The loyal Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heretors, and the Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness, in a General Meeting assembled, held at Inverness the 30th day of April 1814.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heretors, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness, approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our warmest congratulations on the great and glorious events which have crowned the arms of His Majesty and of his illustrious Allies.

We have lived to see the ultimate triumph of those principles which have guided the energies of this country, to an undaunted and persevering resistance, a bold and uncompromising defiance of the insidious artifice and barbarian violence of an implacable foe; which have roused oppressed Europe, have arrested in his course this scourge of the human race, have checked his career to universal empire, and finally hurled him from the highest pinnacle to which successful wickedness ever attained, to a degradation more humiliating than an ignominious death.

From this awful example of the retribution that waits on guilt, we turn to the bright spectacle of the reward of tried virtue and suffering worth, the Exiles whom we have cherished and supported, to whom this generous country has been a resting place and sanctuary, now restored to their native land; the return of the legitimate Monarch of France to the throne of his ancestors, hailed by a British public with as enthusiastic transport as ever greeted the proudest event of the history of our own country. With what honest pride does every British heart exult in the contemplation of these scenes; we have seen the consummation of that glorious contest, in which this country has borne so conspicuous a share; the struggle of oppressed humanity, victorious over the most detested tyranny that ever enslaved and debased the civilized world.

We hail the return of universal peace, as the result of those able combinations and decided measures which have characterised the administration of your Royal Highness, and of that magnanimous sacrifice of all individual interests to the common cause, which, under the guidance of Divine Providence, have wrought out the salvation of Europe.

Wm. Fraser Tytler, Præses.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, animated by that loyalty which pervades all classes and descriptions of His Majesty's faithful subjects, humbly present to your Royal Highness our dutiful congratulations on the brilliant events which render the Government of your Royal Highness a glorious æra in the annals of Europe.

When we consider, that after more than twenty years of laborious effort against an enemy, whose ambition knew no limit, and whose power had appalled the greatest part of Europe, this country, unassailable in itself, with a strong arm, rescued the western kingdoms from his cruel subjugation, and by the force of great example, at length roused the other nations to confederate in virtuous alliance, and to break his galling yoke, we cannot but acknowledge the wisdom of those councils which the Divine Providence has eminently favoured.

By that wisdom, under the direction of your Royal Highness, Europe has recovered its ancient institutions, and with them the paternal government of rightful Sovereigns. While all the other nations justly attribute to that wisdom, the blessings of order and tranquillity, and the hope of future happiness, which they will seek in alliance with His Majesty, the people of this United Kingdom exult in the vast renown of their brave warriors, and will, at peace with all mankind, transmit to distant ages, an inheritance of unexampled power and prosperity, the reward of their attachment to the King, their fidelity to the laws, and their unwearied zeal in the sacred cause of order and religion.

Given under the common seal of our Corporation,
this 4th day of May 1814,

Wm. Andrews, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Province of Moray, in Synod assembled.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, at this important and singularly interesting period, to offer our sincere and heartfelt congratulations, on the recent great and glorious events which have taken place in Europe; events which afford us the prospect of a speedy termination to a long protracted war, undertaken at first, for maintaining our dearest and most invaluable privileges, against the licentiousness of anarchy; and carried on afterwards, to resist the most formidable military despotism that ever threatened the safety of empires, and the order and happiness of civilized life.

It is a proud distinction to the great people over whom your Royal Highness presides, that their exertions and perseverance, during an arduous struggle of more than twenty years, have contributed so materially to revive and confirm the courage of suffering and desponding nations; and that their example, by exciting an emulation in virtue, hath led to a combination of power, by which this most grievous tyranny has been overthrown, and from which we anticipate with confidence, a better order of things; in the re-establishment, in the affections of the people, of thrones that had been subverted; in respect for genuine liberty, and in reverence for religious institutions.

Whilst we look up with gratitude to Almighty God, who "maketh even the wrath of man to praise him, and restraineth the remainder of wrath," and whilst we acknowledge the hand which hath wrought this great deliverance, we are desirous also to avow our conviction, that, under Divine Providence, much of the success of the measures by which this happy change hath been effected, is to be ascribed to the dignified and temperate firmness of your Royal Highness, and to the moderation and enlightened views of those Ministers, to whom the direction of public affairs was entrusted.

That the same wisdom and conciliating disposition may continue to prevail in your Royal Highness's councils; and that the same liberal, yet determined spirit, may direct the energies of the British empire against all its enemies, till peace be re-established on an honourable and secure foundation, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Province of Moray, in Synod assembled.

Signed by appointment, in our name, by John Cruickshank, Moderator.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants of the Borough of Leeds, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to present to your Royal Highness our hearty congratulations on the continued success and increased glories of your Royal Highness's government.

The anxious cares of His Majesty, our august Sovereign, and of your Royal Highness, our Regent, find at length their full reward in the downfall of tyranny and the termination of bloodshed; in the prosperity and security of His Majesty's dominions, and in the faithful attachment of the people, in the re-establishment in France of her legitimate line of Monarchs, and the prospect afforded to Europe of lasting repose.

Whilst we ascribe to the magnanimous Sovereigns, His Majesty's Allies, the full meed of praise for their painful and gallant exertions for the rescue of the suffering nations of Europe, our hearts swell with true British pride that our own nation is hailed by all as the prime instrument in the hand of Providence for effecting this great deliverance.

We have witnessed with grateful admiration in our Governors, the wisdom to discern, and the firmness to pursue, the line of policy most conducive to the interests of Great Britain, which called to the administration men of sound principles and unmoveable constancy, whom success could not mislead, nor disaster awe into a compromise of the rights or honour of the nation, who, in spite of revolutionary intrigue and factious clamour, have preserved our Constitution entire for the glory and protection of Britain, and a model for the regenerate nations of Europe.

Suffer then our tribute of thanks to mingle with those of our fellow-subjects, with the blessings of people delivered from oppression, with the grateful acknowledgements of Monarchs restored to their thrones, with the general acclamations of admiring Europe; and we fondly hope that the example of Great Britain and the exertion of your Royal Highness's influence on the Sovereigns of Europe will, to the general destruction of tyranny, add the complete extinction of that most horrid tyranny the slave trade, and that Africa also will join in the song of gratitude to her great deliverer.

Accept, Sir, our renewed assurance of unalterable attachment to your Royal Highness's person and illustrious House: our prayers shall not cease to ascend to the Most High, that he will be pleased to bless our beloved Sovereign's long and arduous reign with a serene evening; and may the same good Providence which has smiled so graciously on the dawn of your Royal Highness's government, long preserve your Royal Highness for the glory and welfare of this kingdom, and establish the crown on the heads of your children's children to the latest posterity.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Angus and Mearns, in Synod assembled, with every sentiment of loyalty to our beloved Sovereign, and with the deepest regret that He cannot participate in the general joy of his people, approach your Royal Highness to express our heartfelt congratulations upon the late glorious events, which have filled with wonder, and with gratitude to Heaven, all ranks of His Majesty's subjects. In these events Britons must feel a peculiar and a most delightful interest; because, under Divine Providence, they may be in a great measure ascribed to the wise measures adopted by the Government of your Royal Highness, and to the splendid achievements of our gallant countrymen; whilst they seem calculated to extend the influence of those admirable principles of civil and religious liberty, which, supported by the illustrious House of Hanover, have so long secured the prosperity and the happiness of His Majesty's dominions.

That peace may soon be restored to gladden the nations of Europe, and that your Royal Highness may for many years be preserved to enjoy the brighter era about, we trust, to arise on the world, are, may it please your Royal Highness, our humble and most fervent prayers.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The most humble Address of the Protestant, Dutch, and French Churches, in the City of London, established by King Edward the Sixth.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Ministers, Elders, and Deacons, of the Dutch and French Churches in the City of London, established by King Edward the Sixth, in the year One thousand five hundred and fifty, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness with our heartfelt congratulations on the series of signal and glorious victories, and the consequent deliverance of Europe, which the Almighty Ruler of the Universe has lately granted to the arms of His Majesty, and to those of His Allies: and with the assurances of our sincere attachment to the Person and Government of His Majesty, whose indisposition, we sincerely regret, still continues; to your Royal Highness as His representative, and to His illustrious family.

History will record, and posterity admire, the events of the struggles in which this great empire has been so long engaged, to uphold the liberties of Europe against the gigantic efforts of an ambitious foe, influenced with the spirit of universal domination; and amidst the direful ravages of revolution and war, and the convulsive sufferings of so many nations, which have marked the history of the last twenty-five years, England still continued to be peaceful, prosperous, and free; the refuge, the only hope of the oppressed and persecuted of all countries. She alone kept alive that spirit of self-defence which in most other parts of Europe had been broken down by a long succession of disasters; and by her valour, her wisdom, her perseverance, and her most astonishing resources, directed and employed by an energetic government, she not only raised her naval and military glory to an eminence of which the history even of this country affords few examples, but she also prepared the restoration of civil order and happiness, and the general deliverance and independence of Europe.

Of this great work we sincerely rejoice to see the full accomplishment; and Great Britain with her magnanimous Allies, whom she roused by her wise and generous influence, will be hailed by grateful nations, to the latest posterity, as, under God's Providence, the great cause of the restoration of so many millions of our fellow creatures to freedom, peace, and happiness.

These are the events for which we praise the Most High, and on which we beg to lay before your Royal Highness our most heartfelt congratulations, and the expression of our admiration and gratitude; fully expecting that an universal and lasting peace shall soon crown the great efforts that have been made for that desirable end.

We pray the God of all Mercies to pour down His choicest blessings on your Royal Highness's person, family, and Government.

We humbly beg leave to solicit your Royal Highness's most gracious protection for ourselves, and for our churches, the most ancient foreign Protestant in the United Kingdom.

Done this twenty-fourth day of April, One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

[Presented by the Rev. Mr. Anspach, and the Rev. Dr. Werninck; Messrs. Meilun, Agassiz, and Siordet, Elders; Messrs. Muller, Turgaund, Wil-link, and Plokker, Deacons.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the undersigned Dutch Officers, who emigrated in the year 1795, and were favoured with a yearly allowance by His Britannic Majesty, humbly beg leave to lay at the feet of your Royal Highness our respectful homage, and the expressions of our heartfelt gratitude for this gracious and generous support.

When the overwhelming power of the French revolution had overthrown the legal government of the United Provinces, we followed the dictates of honour and duty; and, at the call of the ever to be lamented Prince Frederick of Orange, appeared in a few weeks, with thousands of our countrymen, on the banks of the Weser, to join the protecting banners of Great Britain. The policy of those times rendered our proffered services unavailing. Our native land was lost to us. Hundreds of officers looked up for assistance to the mighty King of the British people, and He afforded them protection and support. They have ever since enjoyed His royal munificence; and now that it has pleased the Almighty to bring the United Netherlands once more under the paternal care of an illustrious Prince of the House of Orange, your Royal Highness, impressed with the same feelings which moved the mind of your Royal Father, closes this long course of generous beneficence by granting to all the officers, still on the Dutch pension-list, a full year's allowance in advance.

We most gratefully acknowledge this distinguished mark of your Royal Highness's bounty, and fervently pray that it may please the Almighty to grant your Royal Highness a long and glorious life, and to the British people the blessings of a lasting and prosperous peace.

The Hague, the 22d March 1814.
