and Dort most of the Stre ts were fiveral Fost under Water, by which the Merchants fultained great damage in their Cellars and Warchoufes, and in the neighborhood of those Towns, the Countreyp ople have fuffered very much. From Katwyck op Zee, Ter Heyde, Willemstadt, and many other places. we have most difinal relations of the fad effects of these great and violent Floods, which breaking through the Dykes, fwept away withsthem, Men, Ca.tle, Houfes, and even whole Villages : It is impoil ble at prejent to tell you the particulars of lo general a Calamity; hereafter we may be informed of them. In the nr an time, they that remember the great Floods that happened ab ut 16 years agone affure us, that thefe were much more violent than those, and that the Waters were now much higher then at that time. His Highnel, the Prince of Orange parted from hence this Mording for Soeftdyke.

Hague, Feb. 3. The late Storm and the Damage fustained by it, affords at prefant sufficient Mat r to write of it having been to violent, that above forty Polders (a Poller b ing a large extent of Land, lecured by feveral Dykes,) are loft by it, at leaft for many years. The whole Province of Zealand except the Ifland of Walcheren lies under water, there being in most places n thing but the tops of the Steeples to befeen; the Sca having not only broke the Dykes, but paft over them. The tame calamity has befallen all the adjacent Countrey, as Sluyce in Flanders, Sas Vas Ghint, Hulft, Sillo, the Isle of Cadfant, Princeland, Williamstads, Uc. And befides the lofs of many thousand People and Cattle that have been Drowned; the Fortifications of those Places are thereby rulned. The Prince of Orange has fulfained a very confiderable Lo.s in his own Effate; and many Families that have been effected rich will be reduced to a low condition; and it is the opinion here, that this Countrey in general fuffers more by this Inundation, then it did by all that happened during the late War; the Damages now fulfained being incredible.

Orders are come from Court for the fitting out 16 Galues; and at Thoulon great preparations are making against the Tritolines.

Paris, Fan: 31. The Kings Declaration in the matter of the Regality, was verified in Parliament laft Saturday; and the Deputies of the Clergy are now preparing a Letter, which they are to write to the Pope on this Subject. The Dauphine's's being with Child is now spoken of, as a thing that's certain. On the 28th Instant the Heer Van Starenberg, Amballador from the States-General of the United Provinces had an Audience of the King, as Mr. Savile, Envoye Extraordinary from His Majefty of Great Brissain had the day following. They prefented Memorials to His Majely, upon the prefent flate of Affairs, From Thou on we have the confirmation of the Sicur du Luefne's having made a Peace with the Tripolins. And from Marfeilles they write, that a Hamburger arrived there, reported, That he had met not far from Alicant, two English Erigats, with two Algerine Prizes, which they had taken some days before.
