TUESDAY, MAY 24, 1814.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 20, 1814.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-House, on Thursday the 2d of June, at two o'clock: and another on Thursday the 16th of June, at the same hour.

If any alteration should take place, timely notice will be given.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring the Cessation of Arms as well by Sea as Land, agreed upon between His Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty, and enjoining the Observance thereof.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHIEREAS a Convention for the suspension of hostilities between His Majesty and the kingdom of France, was signed at Paris on the twenty-third day of April last, by the Plenipotentiary of His Majesty and the Plenipotentiary of His Royal Highness Monsieur, brother of the Most Christian King, Lieutenant-General of the Kingdom of France: And whereas, for the putting an end to the calamities of war, as soon, and as far as may be possible, it hath been agreed between His Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty as follows; that is to say, that as soon as the Convention shall be signed and ratified, friendship should be established between His Majesty and the kingdom of France by sea and land, in all parts of the world: and in order to prevent all causes of complaint and dispute which might arise with respect to prizes that might be made at sea after the signature of the said Convention, it has also been reciprocally agreed, that the vessels and effects which might be taken in the English Channel and in the North Seas, after the space of twelve days, to be reckoned from the exchange of the ratifications of the said Convention, should be restored on both sides; that the term should be one month within the British Channel and North Seas to the Canary Islands, and to the Equator; and five months in every other part of the world, without any exception, or other particular distinction of time or of place. And whereas the ratifications of the said Convention were exchanged by the respective Plenipotentiaries above-mentioned, on the third day of this instant May, from which day the several terms above-mentioned, of twelve days, of one month, and five months, are to be computed: Now, in order that the several epochs fixed as aforesaid between His Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty should be generally known and observed; We have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to notify the same to His Majesty's loving subjects; and We do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, strictly charge and command all His Majesty's Officers both at sea and land, and all other His Majesty's subjects whatsoever, that they forbear all acts of hostility, either by sea or land, against the kingdom of France, her Allies, her vassals or subjects, under the penalty of incurring His Majesty's highest displeasure.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the sixth day of May, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of April 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby declared, that the restrictions heretofore imposed on the ports of Italy shall immediately cease, and be suspended, and that it shall be lawful for His Majesty's subjects to trade in the same manner as they had before traded in times of peace, between His Majesty's dominions, and the ports of Italy from which the British flag is not excluded:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Whitehall, May 23, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Thomas Francis Fremantle, Esq. Rear-Admiral of the White Squadron of His Majesty's Fleet, His Majesty's royal licence and permission; that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Commander of the Imperial Military Order of Maria Theresa, which His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Austria hath been pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of the high sense which that Sovereign entertains of the distinguished gallantry and conduct displayed by the said Rear-Admiral (in co-operation with the Imperial troops) on the coast of the Adriatic; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 23, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto the undermentioned Officers, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that they may respectively accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Imperial Military Order of Maria Theresa, with which His Majesty the Emperor of Austria hath honoured them, in testimony of the high sense which that Sovereign entertains of their distinguished gallantry and services (in co-operation with the Imperial troops) on the coast of the Adriatic; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the respective royal concessions and declarations be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms :

Charles Rowley, Esq. late Captain of His Majesty's ship Eagle.

William Hoste, Esq. late Captain of His Majesty's ship Bacchante.

Fairfax Moresby, Esq. Commander of His Majesty's sloop Weazle.

Whitehall, May 21, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, by warrant under His Majesty's royal signet and the sign manual of His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto John Clarke, of Emanuel House, in the University of Cambridge, Doctor in Music, only son and heir of John Clarke, late of Malmesbury, in the county of Wilts, Gentleman, by Amphillis his wife, who was at length the only surviving child of Henry Whitfeld, of Rickmersworth Park, in the county of Herts, Esq. and sister and heir to Henry Fotherley Whitfeld, also of Rickmersworth Park, Esq. all deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, out of regard to the memory of his said maternal family, take and use the surname of Whitfeld only, instead of his present surname of Clarke, and also bear the arms of Whitfeld; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission, to be void of none effect :

And also, to order, that this royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Crown-Office, May 24, 1814.

MEMBERS returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

County of Rutland.

Sir Gerard Noel Noel, Bart. in the room of Charles Noel Noel, Esq. who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Borough of Newark-upon-Trent.

George Hay Dawkins Pennant, Esq. in the room of Sir Stapleton Cotton, Bart. now Baron Combermere.

Whitehall, May 13, 1814.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about one o'clock on the morning of Tuesday the 19th ultimo, some evil-disposed person or persons fired two guns, loaded with two balls each, through the shutters of the bed-room windows of Mr. John Walker, of Easingwold, in the county of York, one of the surveyors of taxes ; His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired the said guns), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices in the said felony, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and convict the said offenders, or any of them, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted thereof ; such reward to be paid upon conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes.

Office of Ordnance, Pall-Mall.

WE whose names are hereunder written, being five of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by His Majesty's Commission under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date at Westminster the 19th day of April 1814, do, by virtue of the said Commission, and in pursuance of an Act passed in this present session of Parliament, intituled " An Act to vest in Trustees certain messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, for extending the present lines and works, and for erecting other works and buildings at and near Portsmouth and Hilsea, in the county of Southampton," hereby give notice to all and every the owners and proprietors of and persons interested in the messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments herein-af er mentioned or referred to, that we are ready and willing to treat and agree with them for the absolute purchase of their respective estates, rights, and interests of and in all and singular the messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments specified in the two schedules to the said Act of Parliament annexed, marked A and B. And if all or any of the proprietors and persons interested shall, for the space of thirty days next after this notice in writing, neglect or refuse to treat or agree with us, or with any five or more of the said Commissioners, or to accept what we or any five or more of the said Commissioners shall think a reasonable recompence or satisfaction for their respective estates, rights, and interests of and in the said premises, then we or any five or more of the said Commissioners shall and will, with all convenient speed, proceed to enquire into, ascertain, and assess the true and real value of such estates, rights, and interests respectively, by the inquest of twelve good and lawful men, or by such other ways and means, and in such manner and form as are particularly mentioned and directed in and by the said Act.— Dated the 20th day of May 1814.

CONTRACTS FOR COALS AND CANDLES.

Commissary in Chief's Office, London,
May 21, 1814.

WANTED for the barracks in the under-mentioned counties in South Britain, for the barracks in North Britain, and in the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney, such quantities of Coals and Candles, as may from time to time be required by the respective Barrack-Masters for the time being.

The deliveries to commence as soon after the 25th of June next as the respective Barrack-Masters shall require, and to continue until the 24th of June following.

Proposals for supplying coals, made separately for each county in South Britain, the whole of the barracks in North Britain, and likewise for those in the three islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney, sealed up and marked "Tender for Coals," will be received at this Office until twelve o'clock on Wednesday the 8th of June; the parties tendering observing, that in those counties where both sea and inland coals are used, the proposal must particularly express the price of each description.

Proposals for supplying candles, sealed up and marked "Tender for Candles," will be received until twelve o'clock on Friday the 10th of June; but no proposal, either for coals or candles, will be noticed, unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal from two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

If tenders are sent by post, the postage must be paid.

Particulars of the contracts may be had on application at this Office, between the hours of eleven and five; to Deputy Commissary-General Young, Edinburgh; Deputy Commissary-General Coop, Guernsey; and Deputy Commissary-General Bent, Jersey.
