TUESDAY, JUNE 7, 1814.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, June 4, 1814.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on Thursday the 16th instant, at two o'clock.

The doors will be opened for the reception of the company at one o'clock.

DEFINITIVE TREATY of Peace and Amity between His Britannic Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty. Signed at Paris, the 30th day of May 1814.

In the name of the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity.

HIS Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Allies on the one part, and His Majesty the King of France and of Navarre on the other part, animated by an equal desire to terminate the long agitations of Europe, and the sufferings of mankind, by a permanent peace, founded upon a just repartition of force between its States, and containing in its stipulations the pledge of its durability; and His Britannic Majesty, together with his Allies, being unwilling to require of France, now that, replaced under the paternal Government of her Kings, she offers the assurance of security and stability to Europe, the conditions and guarantees which they had with regret demanded from her former Government, their said Majesties have named Plenipotentiaries to discuss, settle, and sign a Treaty of Peace and Amity; namely,

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Robert Stewart, Viscount Castlereagh, one of His said Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Member of Parliament, Colonel of the Londonderry Regiment of Militia, and His Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, &c. &c. &c.; the Right Honourable George Gordon, Earl of Aberdeen, Viscount Formartine, Lord Haddo, Methlie, Tarvis, and Kellie, &c. one of the Sixteen Peers representing the Peerage of Scotland in the House of Lords, Knight of His Majesty's Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle, His Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty; the Right Honourable William Shaw Cathcart, Viscount Cathcart, Baron Cathcart and Greenock, one of his Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight of His Order of the Thistle, and of the Orders of Russia, General in His Majesty's Army, and His Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the Emperor of All the Russias; and the Honourable Sir Charles William Stewart, Knight of His Majesty's Honourable Order of the Bath, Member of Parliament, Lieutenant-General in His Majesty's Army, Knight of the Prussian Orders of the Black and Red Eagle, and of several others, and His Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the King of Prussia; and His Majesty the King of France and Navarre, Charles Maurice de Talleyrand Perigord, Prince of Benevent, Great Eagle of the Legion of Honour, Knight of the Black and Red Eagle of Prussia, Grand Cross of the Order of Leopold of Austria, Knight of the Russian Order of St. Andrew, and His said Majesty's Minister and Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; who, having exchanged their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

There shall be from this day forward perpetual peace and friendship between His Britannic Majesty and His Allies on the one part, and His Majesty the King of France and Navarre on the other, their heirs and successors, their dominions and subjects, respectively.

The High Contracting Parties shall devote their best attention to maintain, not only between themselves, but, inasmuch as depends upon them, between all the States of Europe, that harmony and good understanding which are so necessary for their tranquillity.

ARTICLE II.

The kingdom of France retains its limits entire, as they existed on the 1st of January 1792. It shall further receive the increase of Territory comprised within the line established by the following Article:—

ARTICLE III.

On the side of Belgium, Germany, and Italy, the ancient frontiers shall be re-established as they existed the 1st of January 1792, extending from the North Sea, between Dunkirk and Nieuport, to the Mediterranean, between Cagnes and Nice, with the following modifications:

1. In the department of Jemappes, the Cantons of Dour, Merbes-le-Château, Beaumont, and Chimay shall belong to France, where the line of demarcation comes in contact with the Canton of Dour, it shall pass between that Canton and those of Boussu and Paturage, and likewise further on it shall pass between the Canton of Merbes-le-Château and those of Binck and Thuin.

2. In the department of Sambre and Meuse, the Cantons of Walcourt, Florennes, Beauraing, and Gedinne, shall belong to France; where the demarcation reaches that department, it shall follow the line which separates the said Cantons from the department of Jemappes, and from the remaining Cantons of the department of Sambre and Meuse.

3. In the department of the Moselle, the new demarcation, at the point where it diverges from the old line of frontier, shall be formed by a line to be drawn from Perle to Fremersdorff, and by the limit which separates the Canton of Tholey from the remaining Cantons of the said department of the Moselle.

4. In the department of La Sarre, the Cantons of Saarbruck and Arneval shall continue to belong to France, as likewise the portion of the Canton of Lebach which is situated to the South of a line drawn along the confines of the villages of Herchenbach, Ueberhofen, Hilsbach and Hall (leaving these different places out of the French frontier), to the point where, in the neighbourhood of Querselle (which place belongs to France), the line which separates the Cantons of Arneval and Ottweiler reaches that which separates the Cantons of Arneval and Lebach. The frontier on this side shall be formed by the line above described, and afterwards by that which separates the Canton of Arneval from that of Bliescastel.

5. The fortress of Landau having before the year 1792, formed an insulated point in Germany, France retains beyond her frontiers a portion of the departments of Mount Tonnerre and of the Lower Rhine, for the purpose of uniting the said fortress and its radius to the rest of the kingdom.

The new demarcation from the point in the neighbourhood of Obersteinbach (which place is left out of the limits of France) where the boundary between the department of the Moselle, and that of Mount Tonnerre reaches the department of the Lower Rhine, shall follow the line which separates the Cantons of Weissenbourg and Bergzabern (on the side of France) from the Cantons of Permasens Dahn, and Annweiler (on the side of Germany) as far as the point near the village of Voilmersheim where that line touches the ancient radius of the fortress of Landau. From this radius which remains as it was in 1792 the new frontier shall follow the arm of the river de la Queich, which on leaving the said radius at Queichheim (that place remaining to France) flows near the villages of Merlenheim, Knittelsheim and Belheim (these places also belonging to France) to the Rhine which from thence shall continue to form the boundary of France and Germany.

The main stream (Thalweg) of the Rhine shall constitute the frontier; provided, however, that the changes which may hereafter take place in the course of that river shall not affect the property of the Islands. The right of possession in these Islands shall be re-established as it existed at the signature of the Treaty of Lunerville.

6. In the department of the Doubs the frontier shall be so regulated as to commence above the Rantonnière near Loël, and follow the Crest of Jura between the Cerneux, Pequignot and the village of Fontenelles, as far as the peak of that Mountain situated about seven or eight thousand feet to the North-west of the village of La Brevine, where it shall again fall in with the ancient boundary of France.

7. In the department of the Lemán, the frontiers between the French territory, the Pays de Vaud and the different portions of the territory of the Republic of Geneva (which is to form part of Switzerland) remain as they were before the incorporation of Geneva with France. But the Cantons of Frangy and of St. Julien (with the exception of the districts situated to the north of a line drawn from the point where the river of La Laire enters the territory of Geneva near Chancy following the confines of Sesequin, Lacoux and Seseneute, which shall remain out of the limits of France) the Canton of Reignier, with the exception of the portion to the east of a line which follows the confines of the Muraz, Bussy, Pers, and Cornier, which shall be out of the French limits) and the Canton of La Roche (with the exception of the places called La Roche, and Armanoy with their districts) shall remain to France. The frontier shall follow the limits of these different Cantons, and the line which separates the districts continuing to belong to France, from those which she does not retain.

8. In the Department of Montblanc, France acquires the sub-Prefecture of Chambéry, with the exception of the Cantons of L'Hopital, St. Pierre d'Albigny, la Rocette, and Montmelian; and the sub-Prefecture of Annecy, with the exception of the portion of the Canton of Faverges, situated to the east of a line passing between Ourechaise and Marleys on the side of France, and Marthod and Ugine on the opposite side, and which afterwards follows the crest of the mountains as far as the frontier of the Canton of Thones; this line, together with the limit of the cantons before mentioned, shall on this side form the new frontier.

On the side of the Pyrenees, the frontiers between the two kingdoms of France and Spain, remain such as they were the 1st of January, 1792, and a joint Commission shall be named on the part of the two Crowns for the purpose of finally determining the line.

France on her part renounces all rights of Sovereignty, Suzeraineté, and of possession over all the countries, districts, towns and places situated beyond the frontier above described, the Principa-

City of Monzón being replaced on the same footing on which it stood before the 1st of January, 1792.

The Allied Powers assure to France the possession of the Principality of Avignon, of the Comtat Venaissin, of the Comte of Montbeillard, together with the several insulated territories which formerly belonged to Germany, comprehended within the frontier above described, whether they have been incorporated with France before or after the 1st of January 1792. The Powers reserve to themselves, reciprocally, the complete right to fortify any point in their respective states which they may judge necessary for their security.

To prevent all injury to private property, and protect, according to the most liberal principles, the property of individuals domiciliated on the frontiers, there shall be named, by each of the states bordering on France, Commissioners, who shall proceed, conjointly with French Commissioners, to the delineation of the respective boundaries.

As soon as the Commissioners shall have performed their task, maps shall be drawn, signed by the respective Commissioners, and posts shall be placed to point out the reciprocal boundaries.

ARTICLE IV.

To secure the communications of the town of Geneva with other parts of the Swiss territory situated on the lake, France consents that the road by Versoy shall be common to the two countries. The respective Governments shall amicably arrange the means for preventing smuggling, regulating the posts, and maintaining the said road.

ARTICLE V.

The navigation of the Rhine, from the point where it becomes navigable unto the sea, and vice versa, shall be free, so that it can be interdicted to no one:—and at the future Congress, attention shall be paid to the establishment of the principles according to which the duties to be raised by the States bordering on the Rhine may be regulated, in the mode, the most impartial, and the most favourable to the commerce of all nations.

The future Congress, with a view to facilitate the communication between nations, and continually to render them less strangers to each other, shall likewise examine and determine in what manner the above provision can be extended to other Rivers which, in their navigable course, separate or traverse different States.

ARTICLE VI.

Holland, placed under the Sovereignty of the House of Orange, shall receive an increase of territory. The title and exercise of that Sovereignty shall not in any case belong to a Prince wearing or destined to wear a foreign Crown.

The States of Germany shall be independent and united by a federative bond.

Switzerland, independent, shall continue to govern herself.

Italy, beyond the limits of the countries which are to revert to Austria, shall be composed of Sovereign States.

ARTICLE VII.

The Island of Malta and its Dependencies shall belong in full right and Sovereignty to His Britannic Majesty.

ARTICLE VIII.

His Britannic Majesty, stipulating for Himself and His Allies, engages to restore to His Most Christian Majesty, within the term which shall be hereafter fixed, the colonies, fisheries, factories and establishments of every kind which were possessed by France on the 1st of January 1792, in the Seas and on the Continents of America, Africa, and Asia, with the exception, however, of the Islands of Tobago and St. Lucia, and of the Isle of France and its Dependencies, especially Rodrigues and Les Séchelles, which several Colonies and Possessions His Most Christian Majesty cedes in full right and Sovereignty to His Britannic Majesty, and also the portion of St. Domingo ceded to France by the Treaty of Basle, and which His Most Christian Majesty restores in full right and Sovereignty to His Catholic Majesty.

ARTICLE IX.

His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, in virtue of the Arrangements stipulated with the Allies, and in execution of the preceding Article, consents that the Island of Guadeloupe be restored to His Most Christian Majesty, and gives up all the rights He may have acquired over that Island.

ARTICLE X.

Her Most Faithful Majesty in virtue of the Arrangements stipulated with Her Allies and in execution of the 8th Article, engages to restore French Guyana as it existed on the 1st of January 1792, to His Most Christian Majesty, within the term hereafter fixed.

The renewal of the dispute which existed at that period on the subject of the frontier, being the effect of this stipulation, it is agreed that that dispute shall be terminated by a friendly Arrangement between the two Courts, under the mediation of His Britannic Majesty.

ARTICLE XI.

The places and forts in those Colonies and Settlements, which, by virtue of the 8th, 9th, and 10th Articles, are to be restored to His Most Christian Majesty, shall be given up in the state in which they may be at the moment of the signature of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XII.

His Britannic Majesty guarantees to the Subjects of His Most Christian Majesty the same facilities, privileges, and protection, with respect to commerce, and the security of their persons and property within the limits of the British Sovereignty on the Continent of India, as are now or shall be granted to the most favoured Nations.

His Most Christian Majesty, on His part, having nothing more at heart than the perpetual duration of Peace between the Two Crowns of England and of France, and wishing to do His utmost to avoid any thing which might affect Their mutual good understanding, engages not to erect any fortifications in the establishments which are to be restored to Him within the limits of the British Sovereignty upon the Continent of India, and only to place in those establishments the number of troops necessary for the maintenance of the Police.

ARTICLE XIII.

The French right of fishery upon the Great Bank of Newfoundland, upon the coasts of the Island of that name, and of the adjacent Islands in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, shall be replaced upon the footing in which it stood in 1792.

ARTICLE XIV.

Those colonies, factories, and establishments, which are to be restored to His Most Christian Majesty by His Britannic Majesty or His Allies in the Northern Seas, or in the seas on the Continents of America and Africa, shall be given up within the three months; and those which are beyond the Cape of Good Hope within the six months which follow the ratification of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XV.

The High Contracting Parties having, by the 4th Article of the Convention of the 23d of April last, reserved to themselves the right of disposing, in the present Definitive Treaty of Peace, of the arsenals and ships of war, armed and unarmed, which may be found in the maritime places restored by the 2d Article of the said Convention; it is agreed, that the said vessels and ships of war, armed and unarmed, together with the naval ordinance and naval stores, and all materials for building and equipment shall be divided between France and the countries where the said places are situated, in the proportion of two-thirds for France, and one-third for the Power to whom the said places shall belong. The ships and vessels on the stocks, which shall not be launched within six weeks after the signature of the present Treaty, shall be considered as materials, and after being broken up, shall be, as such, divided in the same proportions.

Commissioners shall be named on both sides to settle the division and draw up a statement of the same, and passports or safe conducts shall be granted by the Allied Powers for the purpose of securing the return into France of the workmen, seamen and others, in the employment of France.

The vessels and arsenals existing in the maritime places which were already in the power of the Allies before the 23d of April, and the vessels and arsenals which belonged to Holland, and especially the fleet in the Texel, are not comprized in the above stipulations.

The French Government engages to withdraw, or to cause to be sold every thing which shall belong to it by the above stipulations within the space of three months after the division shall have been carried into effect.

Antwerp shall for the future be solely a commercial port.

ARTICLE XVI.

The High Contracting Parties, desirous to bury in entire oblivion the dissensions which have agitated Europe, declare and promise that no individual, of whatever rank or condition he may be, in the countries restored or ceded by the present Treaty, shall be prosecuted, disturbed or molested, in his person or property, under any pretext whatsoever, either on account of his conduct or political opinions, his attachment either to any of the Contracting Parties, or to any Government which has ceased to exist, or for any other reason, except for debts contracted towards individuals, or acts posterior to the date of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVII.

The native inhabitants and aliens, of whatever nation or condition they may be, in those countries which are to change Sovereigns, as well in virtue of the present Treaty as of the subsequent arrangements to which it may give rise, shall be allowed a period of six years, reckoning from the exchange of the ratifications, for the purpose of disposing of their property, if they think fit, whether it be acquired before or during the present war; and retiring to whatever country they may choose.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The Allied Powers, desirous to offer His Most Christian Majesty a new proof of their anxiety to arrest, as far as in them lies, the bad consequences of the disastrous epoch fortunately terminated by the present Peace, renounce all the sums which their Governments claim from France, whether on account of contracts, supplies, or any other advances whatsoever, to the French Government, during the different wars which have taken place since 1792.

His Most Christian Majesty, on His part, renounces every claim which He might bring forward against the Allied Powers on the same grounds. In the execution of this article the High Contracting Parties engage reciprocally to deliver up all titles, obligations and documents, which relate to the debts they may have mutually cancelled.

ARTICLE XIX.

The French Government engages to liquidate and pay all debts it may be found to owe in countries beyond its own territory, on account of contracts, or other formal engagements between individuals, or private establishments, and the French Authorities, as well for supplies, as in satisfaction of legal engagements.

ARTICLE XX.

The High Contracting Parties, immediately after the exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty, shall name Commissioners to direct and superintend the execution of the whole of the stipulations contained in the 18th and 19th Articles. These Commissioners shall undertake the examination of the claims referred to in the preceding Articles, the liquidation of the sums claimed, and the consideration of the manner in which the French Government may propose to pay them. They shall also be charged with the delivery of the titles, bonds, and the documents relating to the debts which the High Contracting Parties mutually cancel, so that the approval of the result of their labours shall complete that reciprocal renunciation.

ARTICLE XXI.

The debts which in their origin were specially mortgaged upon the countries no longer belonging to France, or were contracted for the support of their internal administration, shall remain at the charge of the said countries. Such of those debts as have been converted into inscriptions in the great book of the public debt of France, shall accordingly be accounted for with the French Government after the 22d of December 1813.

The deeds of all those debts which have been prepared for inscription, and have not yet been entered, shall be delivered to the Governments of the respective countries. The statement of all these debts shall be drawn up and settled by a joint commission.

ARTICLE XXII.

The French Government shall remain charged with the reimbursement of all sums paid by the subjects of the said countries into the French coffers, whether under the denomination of surety, deposit, or consignment.

In like manner all French subjects employed in the service of the said countries, who have paid sums under the denomination of surety, deposit, or consignment, into their respective territories, shall be faithfully reimbursed.

ARTICLE XXIII.

The Functionaries holding situations requiring securities, who are not charged with the expenditure of public money, shall be reimbursed at Paris, with the interest, by fifths and by the year, dating from the signature of the present Treaty. With respect to those who are accountable, this reimbursement shall commence, at the latest, six months after the presentation of their accounts, except only in cases of malversation. A copy of the last account shall be transmitted to the Government of their countries, to serve for their information and guidance.

ARTICLE XXIV.

The judicial deposits and consignments upon the "caisse d'amortissement" in the execution of the law of 28 Nivose, year IX (18 January 1803), and which belong to the inhabitants of the countries France ceases to possess, shall, within the space of one year from the exchange of the Ratifications of the present Treaty, be placed in the hands of the Authorities of the said countries, with the exception of those deposits and consignments interesting French subjects, which last will remain in the "caisse d'amortissement," and will only be given up on the production of the vouchers resulting from the decisions of competent authorities.

ARTICLE XXV.

The funds deposited by the corporations and public establishments in the "caisse de service," and in the "caisse d'amortissement," or other "caisse," of the French Government, shall be reimbursed by fifths, payable from year to year, to commence from the date of the present Treaty; deducting the advances which have taken place, and subject to such regular charges as may have been brought forward against these funds by the creditors of the said corporations, and the said public establishments.

ARTICLE XXVI.

From the first day of January 1814, the French Government shall cease to be charged with the payment of pensions, civil, military and ecclesiastical; pensions for retirement, and allowances for reduction, to any individual who shall cease to be a French subject.

ARTICLE XXVII.

National domains acquired for valuable considerations by French subjects in the late departments of Belgium, and of the left bank of the Rhine, and the Alps beyond the ancient limits of France, and which now cease to belong to Her, shall be guaranteed to the purchasers.

ARTICLE XXVIII.

The abolition of the "droits d'Aubaine," de "Detraction," and other duties of the same nature, in the countries which have reciprocally made that stipulation with France, or which have been formerly incorporated, shall be expressly maintained.

ARTICLE XXIX.

The French Government engages to restore all bonds, and other deeds which may have been seized, in the provinces occupied by the French, and its administrations; and in cases where such restoration cannot be effected, these bonds and deeds become and continue void.

ARTICLE XXX.

The sums which shall be due for all works of public utility not yet finished, or finished after the 31st December 1812, whether on the Rhine or in the departments detached from France by the present Treaty, shall be placed to the account of their future possessors of the territory, and shall be paid by the commission charged with the liquidation of the debts of that country.

ARTICLE XXXI.

All archives, maps, plans and documents whatever, belonging to the ceded countries, or respecting their administration, shall be faithfully given up at the same time with the said countries: or if that should be impossible, within a period not exceeding six months after the cession of the countries themselves.

This stipulation applies to the archives, maps and plates, which may have been carried away from the countries during their temporary occupation by the different armies.

ARTICLE XXXII.

All the powers engaged on either side in the present war, shall, within the space of two months, send Plenipotentiaries to Vienna, for the purpose of regulating in general Congress, the arrangements which are to complete the provisions of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XXXIII.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged within the period of fifteen days, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed and affixed to it the seals of their arms.

Done at Paris the thirtieth of May, in the year of our Lord one Thousand eight Hundred and fourteen.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLES.

ARTICLE I.

His Most Christian Majesty, concurring without reserve in the sentiments of His Britannic Majesty, with respect to a description of traffic repugnant to the principles of natural justice and of the enlightened age in which we live, engages to unite all His efforts to those of His Britannic Majesty, at the approaching Congress, to induce all the Powers of Christendom to decree the abolition of the Slave Trade, so that the said Trade shall cease universally, as it shall cease definitively, under any circumstances, on the part of the French Government, in the course of five years; and that, during the said period, no slave merchant shall import or sell slaves, except in the Colonies of the State of which he is a subject.

ARTICLE II.

The British and French Governments shall name, without delay, Commissioners to liquidate the accounts of their respective expenses for the maintenance of prisoners of war, in order to determine the manner of paying the balance which shall appear in favour of one or the other of the two Powers.

ARTICLE III.

The respective prisoners of war, before their departure from the place of their detention, shall be obliged to discharge the private debts they may have contracted, or shall at least give sufficient security for the amount.

ARTICLE IV.

Immediately after the Ratification of the present Treaty of Peace, the sequesters which since the year 1792 (one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two) may have been laid on the funds, revenues, debts, or any other effects of the High Contracting Parties or their subjects, shall be taken off.

The Commissioners mentioned in the 2d Article shall undertake the examination of the claims of His Britannic Majesty's subjects upon the French Government, for the value of the property, moveable or immovable, illegally confiscated by the French Authorities, as also for the total or partial loss of their debts or other property, illegally detained under sequester since the year 1792, (one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.)

France engages to act towards British subjects in this respect, in the same spirit of justice which the French subjects have experienced in Great Britain; and His Britannic Majesty, desiring to concur in the new pledge which the Allied Powers have given to His Most Christian Majesty, of their desire to obliterate every trace of that disastrous epocha so happily terminated by the present peace, engages on His part, when complete justice shall be rendered to His subjects, to renounce the whole amount of the balance which shall appear in His favour for support of the prisoners of war, so that the ratification of the report of the above Commissioners, and the discharge of the sums due to British subjects, as well as the restitution of the effects which shall be proved to belong to them, shall complete the renunciation.

ARTICLE V.

The two High Contracting Parties, desiring to establish the most friendly relations between their respective subjects, reserve to themselves, and promise to come to a mutual understanding and arrangement, as soon as possible, upon their commercial interests, with the view of encouraging and increasing the prosperity of their respective States.

The present Additional Articles shall have the same force and validity as if they were inserted word for word in the Treaty Patent of this day. They shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at the same time.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have assigned and affixed to them the seals of their arms.

Done at Paris, the thirtieth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Freeholders and Justices of the Peace for the County of Orkney.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most faithful subjects, the Freeholders and Justices of the Peace of the County of Orkney, beg leave at this momentous era to lay our humble congratulations at the feet of your Royal Highness.

The war in which this nation has so long been involved, was undertaken by His Majesty, in defence of the just rights of his crown, and the happiness and liberty of his people; and it has at last terminated in a result, fortunate for the repose of Europe, and most glorious to His Majesty's councils and arms. That perfidious and degrading usurpation, which concentrated in itself all the vices of that series of short-lived tyrannies that preceded and produced it, which by the extinction of literature, and the perversion of manners, morals, and religion, attempted to rebarbarise the world, is now overthrown; and the ancient and venerable monarchy of France has been restored in the person of her lawful King. Those false principles of government, by which some of the fairest portions of Europe have been desolated, and others endangered, are now eradicated; and that cause has now triumphed, which connects the rights and duties of Sovereigns with the true interest and happiness of their people.

The magnanimity with which those great events have been achieved, is unparalleled in the history of the world. And it is with exultation we reflect, that their success is chiefly and ultimately to be ascribed to those wise and vigorous councils which constitute the glory of His Majesty's reign, and which, sanctioned and adopted by your Royal Highness, have made Great Britain the first of nations. Our unfeigned gratitude for blessings so pre-eminent is the surest pledge of our devoted submission to His Majesty's government, and of our inviolable attachment to your Royal Highness.

Signed, in our name and presence, and by our appointment, at Kirkwall, this 13th day of May 1814, by Wm. Balfour, Preses

[Transmitted by Lord Melville, and presented by
Viscount Sidmouth.]

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders, met in our Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale, beg leave to approach the throne of our Sovereign with sentiments of the warmest affection, and most profound respect, to congratulate your Royal Highness on the glorious result of those signal victories, with which it has pleased Almighty God to crown the exertions of His Majesty's fleets and armies, and those of His Allies.

The revolutionary spirit in France, having overthrown the altar and the throne, and having trampled under foot all the venerable institutions, on which had been built, for ages, the renown of that illustrious kingdom in arts, in science, and in arms, at last waded, through every species of crime, to a ferocious military despotism; hostile to every established government, and breathing peculiar malignity against our country, and that invaluable Constitution which is the admiration and the envy of the world. While kingdoms and empires became, in succession, the victims of a tyrannical usurper, who aggravated conquest by insult and oppression, Great Britain, under the vigorous administration of a Sovereign whom we revere, had the high honour of standing alone, in the dignified attitude of unyielding resistance to unprincipled ambition, while she tasted the sublime satisfaction of devoting her treasure and her blood, not to the destruction, but to the vindication of the liberty and the independence of ancient States. The display of British heroism in the cause of Portugal and Spain roused to indignation the latent spirit of patriotism in those insulted nations, and contributed, by the triumphs which it won, to form that illustrious coalition of Emperors and Kings; which, in co-operation with Britain, has so gloriously repelled invasion, and overwhelmed the invader with disasters, singular in the annals of war, and with disgrace and degradation not less sudden and complete, than justly due to the enormity of his crimes. The restoration of their lawful Sovereigns to Portugal, to Spain, and to France; the liberties of Germany, and of the Northern Powers, vindicated and re-established, through the noble exertions and magnanimous sacrifices both of rulers and people, are unperishing monuments reared to the glory of Britain's councils and of Britain's arms.

It is with exulting hearts that we offer to your Royal Highness our congratulations on that wisdom in the Cabinet which fearlessly adopted, and, which for so many years, continued steadily to pursue, those measures, by the execution of which, our heroes on the ocean, and in the field, have, as the instruments of an over-ruling Providence, so gallantly accomplished an end, of the last importance to the best interests of social order among men; peace, returning to heal the wounds of afflicted humanity, and to bless our happy land with increasing commerce, with growing prosperity, and with the gratitude of nations rescued from oppression, will preserve to your Royal Highness, that affectionate homage of a loyal people which you now enjoy, and will, under the direction of such enlightened patriotism as that by which our national exertions have hitherto been conducted, animate them to uphold the high rank which Britain has attained, by mingling with her naval and military achievements, her sympathy with ~~her~~ ^{her} ~~millions of~~ ^{millions of} sufferers, and her liberality in relieving their distress. That Almighty God may bless your Royal Highness, may prosper your administration, may render you his honoured agent in promoting the prosperity, asserting the liberty, and maintaining the privileges by which we are so highly distinguished, and that after a long, happy, and glorious life on earth, you may obtain, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, a crown of unfading glory in Heaven; are the fervent prayers of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of this Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale.

Signed, in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by Henry Garnock, Moderator.

[Transmitted by Lord Melville, and presented by
Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please Your Royal Highness.

WE, His Majesty's most faithful subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Danfries, embrace this opportunity of approaching the Throne, with sentiments of loyal and dutiful subjects.

The late wonderful change, by which legitimate Sovereigns have recovered their thrones, renowned states and kingdoms their independence, and all Europe repose, from the calamities of a war, unprecedented in point of bloodshed and devastation, has filled us with inexpressible joy and gladness. The goodness of God in casting the shield of His Providence over all our invaluable rights and privileges, and in stretching out His arm so visibly to check the late usurper of France, in his might, and conduct him to his downfall, has awakened within us every due feeling of devout gratitude. We reflect with national pride how, under the Almighty, the first check was given to his career, by the skill and intrepidity of the fleets and armies of the British empire: and we congratulate your Royal Highness, that by the magnanimity and wisdom of your councils, and the firm and seasonable application of the resources and energies of the United Kingdom, you enjoy the glory of having roused and conducted surrounding nations to the recovery of their independence, and made your native country the saviour of Europe.

That Almighty God may ever have your Royal Highness under His sacred keeping, that he may continue to direct His Majesty's Government, which has prospered so signally under your auspices; and that he may bless you with a long reign, over a free, a virtuous, and a loyal people, are the prayers of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most faithful and most obedient subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of Dumfries.

Signed, in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by, Joseph Gass, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Queensberry, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

War-Office, June 7, 1814.
