

statutes this day promulgated, in the presence of the Knights Companions in Chapter assembled.

Garter then, by the command of the Prince Regent, called over the Knights Companions, and a procession was made back to the private apartment of His Royal Highness, in the order as before.

The Princes of the Royal House of Prussia, the Hereditary Princes of Orange and Mecklenburgh, Prince de Metternich, Marshal Blücher, Marshal Barclay de Tolli, General de Yorck, General Bülow, the Foreign Ambassadors and Ministers at this Court, and many other personages, foreigners and others, of distinction, were present at the ceremony.

Whitehall, June 7, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto John Fane, Esq. commonly called Lord Burghersh (son and heir apparent of John Earl of Westmorland, K. G. &c.) a Colonel in the Army, Aide-de-Camp to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, and Lieutenant-Colonel of the 63d (or West Suffolk) regiment of foot, lately employed on a particular service at the head-quarters of the Imperial Austrian armies, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Imperial Military Order of Maria Theresa, which His Majesty the Emperor of Austria has been pleased to confer upon his Lordship as a signal testimony of the high sense that Sovereign entertains of the services rendered by that Officer to the cause of Europe, while employed with his armies:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 11, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Gilbert Ford, Clerk, and John Clarke, Esq. acting Trustees and Executors named and appointed by a codicil to the last will and testament of Samuel Hawarden Fazakerley, of Fazakerley, and afterwards of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster, Esq. deceased, for and in behalf of Henry Hawarden Gillibrand, an infant, second son of Thomas Gillibrand, of Gillibrand Hall, also in the said county palatine, Esq. His Royal Licence and Authority, that he, the said Henry Hawarden Gillibrand may assume and take, and from henceforth use the said surname of Fazakerley only, instead of his own family name of Gillibrand, and also bear the arms of Fazakerley in the first quarter, in compliance with the injunction contained in the said will; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect

No. 16907.

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 30th of May 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the prohibition, under the Order in Council of the twenty-first of January last, against the exportation of sheet copper, be, and the said prohibition is, hereby taken off. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.
