

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JULY 19, 1814.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 19, 1814.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday the 28th instant, at two o'clock.

Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, July 19, 1814.

By His Royal Highness the Prince Regent's Command.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all carriages going to Carlton-House, on Thursday evening the 21st instant, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-Street, proceed along Pall-Mall, and go in at the west gates of Carlton-House, and out at the east gates, up St. Alban's-Street, and wait in St. James's-Square.

The gate in St. James's-Park will be open only for the Ministers, and the Great Officers of State, whose carriages are to wait in the Park; and no carriages except those belonging to the Royal Family, are to wait in the Court-Yard of the Palace.

All chairs are to come in at the chair door opposite St. Alban's-Street, to go out at the door in Warwick-Court, and wait in Warwick-Court, and Cockspur-Street; none are to remain in the Court-Yard of the Palace. CHOLMONDELEY.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 30th of May 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the prohibition, under the Order in Council of the twenty-first of January last, against the exportation of sheet copper, be, and the said prohibition is, hereby taken off. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the undersigned Inhabitants of the City of Wells and its neighbourhood, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our most unfeigned thanks for the gracious answers which your Royal Highness has been pleased to return to the addresses of the two Houses of Parliament, upon the subject of the immediate and total abolition of the slave trade.

We had seen with the deepest regret and considerable disappointment, that in the recent treaty with France no provision was made for the immediate abolition of a traffic, avowedly repugnant to every moral and religious principle, but that, on the contrary, the probable consequence of that treaty appeared to be the revival of the traffic by France on a large scale, and to an indefinite extent.

This probable revival of the French slave trade, and the restoration to France of her African forts and factories, under such circumstances, excited our peculiar regret, by disappointing the hopes we had been led to indulge of the moral and religious improvement of those numerous tribes, amongst whom these possessions are situated, and in countries where the slave trade having been nearly suppressed, the consequent introduction of civilization and a legitimate commerce had begun to make some compensation for the miseries formerly inflicted.

We also could not but lament that the recognition