

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, JULY 23, 1814.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 23, 1814.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday next the 28th instant, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 30th of May 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the prohibition, under the Order in Council of the twenty-first of January last, against the exportation of sheet copper, be, and the said prohibition is, hereby taken off. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Salop, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere congratulations upon the termination of the arduous struggle in which this nation has been so long engaged. We beg leave to express our high sense of the skill and valour with which victory was sought, and of the wise and moderate counsels by which it has been established. However little it may become us to do more than acknowledge the blessings of that peace which your Royal Highness in your wisdom has concluded, we cannot refrain from expressing our satisfaction at that article in the treaty, by which your Royal Highness has caused the injustice of the slave-trade to be recorded, nor our concern to find that France is unwilling to admit for the present, the legitimate inference from that principle. We have seen also with satisfaction the impression which this question of common feeling has made upon the people and Parliament of these kingdoms, and we humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our grateful acknowledgments for the assurances you have condescended to give of your Royal Highness's unremitting care to prosecute this admitted principle to its just conclusion. We cannot but admire the fresh attestation to the soundness of that Constitution which has, by God's blessing, so long flourished under the auspicious sway of the House of Brunswick, in those high energies with which your Royal Highness has defended foreign nations, whilst you conferred the surest protection upon your own, nor amidst those heroes by whom your Royal Highness's commands have been executed, can we excuse ourselves from exulting in the well earned honours your Royal Highness has been graciously pleased to confer upon a native of this county, in the person of Lord Hill.

That your Royal Highness may long witness the blessings of peace and the prosperity of the realms committed to your care, is the fervent wish of your Royal Highness's ever dutiful subjects.

Signed on behalf of the County Meeting,

Wm. Cludde, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by W. Cludde, Esq. High Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]