TUESDAY, JULY 26, 1814.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of July 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Cropley Earl of Shaftesbury; the Right Honourable George Earl of Aberdeen, K. T.; and the Right Honourable Charles William Lord Stewart, K. B. were, by command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective places at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 30th of May 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the prohibition, under the Order in Council of the twenty-first of January last, against the exportation of sheet copper, be, and the said prohibition is, hereby taken off. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 23, 1814.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday next the 28th instant, at two o'clock.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our congratulations on the conclusion of a definitive treaty of peace and friendship between our revered Sovereign and His Most Christian Majesty, a peace which, among other great benefits it confers, gives us the happiness of rejoicing in the restoration of legitimate government to many nations who have long been the victims of usurpation and atrocious tyranny.

In reviewing the awful succession of events, during a period of upwards of twenty years, we admire alike the temperate counsels and the dignified firmness of His Majesty's government, ever ready to terminate the calamities of war upon the basis of reciprocal justice, but disdaining to acquire even that blessing by concessions which were inconsistent with the honour of the British crown, or subversive of the general independence of the Continent. To this liberal and enlightened policy must be mainly ascribed the late happy change in the affairs of Europe, whose most powerful Monarchs,
