By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For recalling and prohibiting His Majesty's natural-born Subjects from serving in the Sea or Land Forces of the United States of America.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by the ancient law of this realm, founded upon the principles of general law, the natural-born subjects of His Majesty cannot, either by swearing allegiance to other Princes or States, or by any other their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone or concurring with their own, discharge themselves, or be discharged, from the natural allegiance which, from their birth, they owe to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, which natural allegiance being antecedent and paramount to any other claim of allegiance whatsoever, cannot, by these or any other such acts, be withdrawn or cancelled: And whereas it hath been represented to Us, that divers of the natural-born subjects of His Majesty have accepted letters of naturalization, or certificates of citizenship, from the United States of America, and have sworn allegiance to the said States, and professed to renounce the natural allegiance which they owe, and must continue to owe, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, and have, in violation of such natural allegiance, engaged by sea and land, in hostile and traitorous acts against His Majesty: And whereas some of the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty may have been induced so to act, from an erroneous persuasion and belief, which they may have been led to entertain, that their duty of natural allegiance was capable of being dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs and successors; We have, therefore, thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby warning all the natural-born subjects of His Majesty, that the natural allegiance which they owe, and of right ought to bear and pay, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, cannot, either by their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone, or concurrent with their own, be dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs or successors: And We have further thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, in consideration that some of the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty, may, through delusion or error, have so acted as aforesaid, by this Proclamation to publish and declare, that all such the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty who, having so acted, shall, within four months from the date hereof, withdraw themselves from the service of the said United States, shall receive His Majesty's free and gracious pardon: And We do, moreover, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also publish and declare, that all natural-born subjects of His Majesty who shall hereafter voluntarily enter, or, having entered, shall voluntarily continue to serve in the land forces, or on board any of the ships or vessels of war, of the said United States of America, or in the private ships or vessels of war belonging to the citizens of the said States at enmity with His Majesty, being thereby guilty of high treason, shall be punished with the utmost severity of the law.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of July 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-first day of January last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months, to commence from the eighth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition." But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall prevent the exportation of any of the articles, specified in the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of July 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-first day of January last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, or other naval stores, will expire upon the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, except as to the article of sheet copper; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever do, at any time for the space of six months from the said eighth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet copper excepted); or do ship or lade any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet copper excepted); on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council;" But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships of war, or any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of naval stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, yellow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments, within the same season: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 30th of May 1814.

PRESENT.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the prohibition, under the Order in Council of the twenty-first of January last, against the exportation of sheet copper, be, and the said prohibition is, hereby taken off. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Linlithgow.

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Linlithgow, beg leave humbly to offer to your Royal Highness our hearty congratulations on the glorious result of that great and arduous contest, in which the British empire has been so long engaged.

In reviewing the unparalleled events that have during that period occurred, we, in common with our fellow subjects, feel a generous pride in reflecting, that throughout this long and obstinate struggle, amidst the wreck of the ancient governments of surrounding nations, the British people have been enabled, under Divine Providence, to oppose with success tyrannical oppression, to stand forth on all occasions the bulwark of the liberties of Europe, and, by exhibiting a noble example of steady perseverance, contribute, in a pre-eminent degree, to keep alive the almost extinguished flame of national independence, and at length succeed in rousing the Continental nations to those magnanimous efforts, which have at last accomplished their deliverance.

During this tremendous conflict which has con-vulsed the world, great as have been the exertions, and many the sacrifices to which His Majesty's subjects have cheerfully submitted, it is with proud exultation they see them recompensed by additional national character in the immortal honour and fame acquired by their fleets and armies (stimulated by the remembrance of a Nelson, and the example of a Wellington), and finally crowned with the prospect of a peace, founded on principles of honour, justice, and moderation.

It is with deep satisfaction that we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness of the lasting gratitude, not only of ourselves, and our fellow citizens, but also, we may with confidence venture to add, that of Europe, of the world, and of posterity, for your steady adherence to those enlightened and vigorous councils, which, originally adopted by our venerable and ever-to-be-respected Sovereign, and since persevered in by your Royal Highness, have enabled this great and happy nation to bear so great a part in restoring to mankind the blessings of order, of liberty, and legitimate government.

It is at the same time with feelings of deep regret, that from the unjust and unprovoked aggression of the American Government in declaring war upon this country after all the causes of its original complaint had been removed, that we are deprived of immediately enjoying the undisturbed possession of the blessings of peace, but as the question now at issue in this war is the maintainance of those maritime rights which are the foundation of our naval glory and commercial prosperity, we look forward with confidence to a successful and honourable termination of the contest, by a perseverance in the same prompt and vigorous measures by which your Royal Highness's councils have been uniformly characterised.

That your Royal Highness may long live to witness and to share the blessings you have so largely contributed to diffuse, and that His Majesty's subjects may continue to persevere in that course of steady loyalty to their King, and unshaken attachment to their Constitution, which have carried them through such unprecedented difficulties, shall ever be the ardent prayer of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the county of Linlithgow.

Signed, in name, and by desire of the Meeting, by Sir Thomas Livingstone, Baronet, of that ilk, Keeper of the Royal Palace of Linlithgow, their Preses, at Linlithgow, the 20th day of May 1814, Thos. Livingstone, Preses.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants, of the County of Hertford, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with our heartfelt congratulations upon the late auspicious termination of the long and inveterate hostilities in which the country has been engaged. Upon this occasion we are called upon in a more especial manner, to express our approbation of the wise and liberal principles upon which the late great combination of the powers of Europe has been formed, and of the skill, perseverance and unanimity, with which their operations have been conducted. We cannot but feel peculiar exultation in the many splendid victories by sea and land, which have attended His Majesty's arms, during this arduous contest; and it appears to us but justice to bestow our cordial praise, upon the firm and cautious councils which have produced the desired result of military exertion, in a pacification honourable and advantageous, and concluded upon such terms as afford the most reasonable prospect of permanence and security. Under such circumstances it would naturally be our anxious wish to avoid all topics, except those of satisfaction and congratulation, but we could not observe without the deepest sorrow, the introduction into the treaty with France, of a privation for the revival and continuance by that power, for a certain period, of the African slave trade. After the repeated discussions, through investigations and legislative enactments, which have taken place upon this subject, it is entirely unnecessary for us, again to enumerate the melancholy catalogue of dangers, miseries and horrors, which have been proved to accompany and follow this remorseless and inhuman traffic. It is equally superfluous to point out that, which is but too obvious, the deeper distress and more aggravated misfortune, both to the European settlements in the West Indies, and to the continent of Africa, which must attend a renewal of this nefarious practice under the stipulation of the present treaty. For many reasons, however, we abstain from delivering any opinion upon the political necessity, which has been stated to have induced His Majesty's negotiators to consent to the admission of such an article, but more particularly because we have heard with great satisfaction, the gracious answer of your Royal Highness to both Houses of Parliament, that they may rely upon the unremitting exertions of your Royal Highness, for the abolition of the slave trade, and in consequence of this solemn pledge on the part of the highest authorities in the realm, we rest assured that the most effectual measures will be taken at the approaching congress, and upon every future occasion, to procure as speedily and as universally as possible, the extinction of a system repugnant to every sentiment of humanity, and incompatible with the most sacred duties of the Christian religion.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Burgesses of the Corporation of Hartlepool, in the County of Durham, beg leave to express to your Royal Highness our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the glorious termination of a protracted and sanguinary war.

In common with our fellow subjects, we have lamented the fatal necessity of war; but we have never indulged an apprehension of its result; from the unbounded confidence we have always placed in the firmness and energy of your Royal Highness, in the wisdom and vigour of your councils, and in the consummate valour of our fleets and armies, which, under the blessing of Divine Providence, have raised the national character to a degree of grandeur and magnanimity unparalleled in the annals of the empire.

We anticipate a long enjoyment of the blessings of peace; and we fervently pray that your Royal Highness may long continue to reign over the hearts and affections of a free, loyal, and united people.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of this United Kingdom.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Birmingham, beg leave to present to your Royal Highness our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on those great events, which, through the interposition of Divine Providence, have been passing in such rapid succession before our eyes, and which have finally rescued the Continent of Europe from the miseries inseparably attendant upon a state of warfare.

We beg to assure your Royal Highness that we are impressed with sentiments of admiration, at the wisdom, magnanimity, and moderation which have, under circumstances unprecedented in modern times, marked the conduct of your Royal Highness, and of His Majesty's illustrious Allies, who, disregarding all considerations of exclusive aggrandisement, and in mutual confidence, uniting your efforts for the attainment of one common object, have at length succeeded in overthrowing a tyranny most formidable and most oppressive to the civilized world.

We must be permitted, however, with feelings of peculiar exultation, to contemplate the example which has been held forth to all nations by our own country, during the late eventful struggle, in enduring so many privations, and in maintaining, at the most gloomy and disastrous periods, the sacred principle of national independence, until the wisdom of her counsels, the prowess of her armies, and the consummate ability of her unrivalled Commander, laid, in the emancipation of Spain and Portugal, a foundation for the deliverance and repose of Europe.

But, whilst we thus exult in the present proud situation of this country, we are not thereby precluded from viewing with admiration, the new features which have distinguished the close of a sanguinary war, at which Sovereigns and subjects, though exasperated by so many years of unparalleled suffering, and by so many acts of hostile aggression, have, in the moment of victory, by one common impulse, divested themselves of the ordinary passions and objects of belligerents, and have endeavoured to make peace, in that spirit of peace, which, by affording a prospect of general prosperity, is most likely to ensure the permanent tranquillity and repose of nations.

With humble gratitude we turn towards the Almighty Disposer of all Events, who has permitted your Royal Highness, in conjunction with His Majesty's illustrious Allies, to be, in these our days, the instruments in his hands of restoring to this country and to Europe the blessing of peace, and we fervently pray, that your Royal Highness may long live to witness, in the uninterrupted continuance of that blessing, the increasing prosperity of this United Kingdom.

On behalf of the Inhabitants of Birmingham,

S. Tertius Galton, High Bailiff.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, of the County of Warwick, this day assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness, and to offer our warmest congratulations on the restoration of peace, the overthrow of tyranny, and the re-establishment of regular government and tranquillity on the Continent of Europe.

We beg to express our gratitude to your Royal Highness for those wise counsels and measures which have so essentially contributed to the accomplishment of such happy events, and our admiration of the valour of His Majesty's fleets and armies, and the skill and abilities of their illustrious commanders, which have been rewarded by your Royal Highness in a manner so honourable to the individuals themselves, and so gratifying to the nation at large.

We also contemplate, with grateful admiration, the well directed efforts and brilliant victories of His Majesty's Allies, and the spirit of moderation which they have displayed in their success; and we express our earnest hope, that the patience and perseverance with which this country has maintained a long and arduous struggle may be rewarded by the blessings of a solid and lasting peace.

We assure your Royal Highness, that although this meeting regrets that an immediate abolition of the slave trade throughout the world has not been effected, yet that we have full reliance on your Royal Highness's expressed intentions and unremitting endeavours to accelerate the final accomplishment of a measure so much at heart among all classes of His Majesty's subjects.

Signed, in the name and at the request of the meeting, Andrew Hacket, High Sheriff.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor and Corporation of Appleby, in their Town-Hall assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Common Council-men, and Freemen of the ancient Borough and Corporation of Appleby, animated by unfeigned sentiments of duty and attachment to your Royal Highness's person and government, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with our warmest tribute of congratulation on the happy termination of a long, arduous and eventful war.

Contemplating, most gracious Prince, the late splendid successes of His Majesty's arms, and those of his illustrious Allies, our joy is heightened to exultation at the universal acknowledgment, that results, so glorious and full of promise to the sacred cause of social order and national independence, are chiefly attributable to the wise and liberal policy, which your Royal Highness, during His Majesty's lamented illness, has steadily and vigorously pursued. Our hearts are lifted up in gratitude to the Supreme Disposer of all Things, that He has thus been pleased to temper his judgments with mercy, and we cannot help considering it as a peculiar presage of His favour, that, under the auspices of your Royal Highness, the rights and honours of the British dominions, have been vigilantly protected and secured, and our country made the happy instrument of deliverance to surrounding nations.

Expulsion of the common enemy from the Spanish Peninsula—relief of Holland from the iron despotism of the oppressor—and recovery of His Majesty's electoral dominions, were, doubtless, consolatory rewards to the cares of your Royal Highness, and to the sacrifices of the nation:—against the tyrannous arm of usurpation, the presence of British forces in France, under the immortalized Wellington, and the accumulation of all the German troops to the Allied armies on the Rhine, led us to expect new and decisive victories.

Our expectations have been more than realized.
To a series of triumphs, unparalleled in the page of history, England attains the pinnacle of glory:—
for your Royal Highness—for England's Prince Regent, has been reserved the grateful privilege of restoring to the throne of their ancestors, the House of Bourbon—to Europe,—Peace!

Long may your Royal Highness participate, with a loyal people, the blessings of a peace, shedding transcendant lustre round your distinguished Regency—and may the House of Brunswick sway the sceptre of the British Empire, and reign in the hearts of British subjects to the remotest posterity.

Given under the common seal of this Corporation, the 13th day of July, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.

Robert Whitehead, Mayor

[Presented by Colonel Lowther.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

WE, the Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our most sincere congratulations on the restoration of the peace of Europe, and of the downfall of that tyranny which presumed to menace our national existence, and the subjugation of the civilized world.

Permit us to express our gratitude for the wise and magnanimous determination of your Royal Highness, not to compromise the security, the interest, or the glory of our country, by any recognition of superiority, or submissive concession, to the oppressor of mankind, and for your firm resolve to maintain entire our naval and commercial greatness, by resisting the boundless ambition of the enemy with all the energies of the great empire intrusted to your care, and thus putting a speedier termination to the horrors of a sanguinary war.

When we contemplate the happy and glorious results of the enlightened and elevated policy adopted by your Royal Highness, and which hath been so highly extolled by those great Potentates and eminent Commanders, best qualified to appreciate its merits; when we reflect on the cordial co-operation and amicable disposition of those excellent Monarchs, cemented by the magnificent hospitality and princely attentions of your Royal Highness, and the enthusiastic applause of the British people, surely, under Providence, we may cherish the hope of a period of peace commensurate to the moderation and equity of its terms.

And we ardently pray, that your Royal Highness may long live to enjoy the well-earned fame of having, under the most arduous circumstances, achieved that peace, and of having exalted the glory of the British name.

liams Wynn, Esq. M. P. for the County.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the High Bailiff, Justice, Aldermen, Common Council and other Inhabitants, of the Borough of Kidderminster, in the County of Worcester, humbly beg leave to present to your Royal Highness, our sincere and cordial congratulations on the happy restoration of peace to Europe. During the late protracted warfare, we have had frequent occasions to admire and applaud the skill and bravery of our officers, the courage and discipline of our loyal countrymen, and to acknowledge the Divine goodness, in crowning with success and glory, His Majesty's fleets and armies. We have now the satisfaction of seeing the war, which subjected us to so many burthens, and to which we cheerfully and patiently submitted, brought to a conclusion on terms so equitable and conciliating, that we hope with confidence, by the blessing of God, on the counsels of your Royal Highness, long, very long, to enjoy the happiness of foreign tranquillity, and the comforts of domestic concord. We are enabled upon this occasion to offer to your Royal Highness our unqualified congratulations, from the gracious assurance which your Royal Highness has lately given of your readiness to employ all the weight of government, to render effective the unanimous votes of both Houses of Parliament, relative to the natural rights and liberties of afflicted Africa; with hearts, therefore, replete with loyal and dutiful affection for the person and family of your Royal Highness, we further desire to assure you, that it shall be our unremitting anxiety and care, to make your administration easy and peaceful, over a free and a happy people.

Signed on behalf of the Inhabitants of Kidderminster.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Dudley, beg leave to express our loyal and grateful congratulations to your Royal Highness, on the recent termination upon the Continent of the horrors of war. An event, attended by circumstances, no less honourable to this country and His Majesty's Allies, than it will prove happy, we trust, to us, to them, and to every other people. An event, which, under a gracious superintending Providence, we attribute in a great measure, to the persevering firmness of this country, and to the wisdom of His Majesty's councils, steadily pursued to so glorious a consummation, by the filial piety and political prudence of your Royal Highness.

May we soon have to express our congratulations in a more enlarged sense, when the miseries of war shall have ceased in all the world; and when the last link in the chain of slavery shall be broken.

To accomplish so desirable a state of things, is, we are assured, equally the benevolent wish, as it will be the earnest endeavour of your Royal Highness, whose glory and whose aim, we doubt not, it will ever be, in the spirit of true greatness and humanity, to imitate the conduct of our beloved Sovereign, your Royal Highness's august and venerable Father. May the evening of his long life be tranquil and happy. May His Royal Consort and Family, participate with your Royal Highness, in the joy of witnessing the stability of His throne—the prosperity of His people,—the peace and happiness of the universe! and when the crown of the Sire shall devolve to the Son, may he receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, and Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, in Common Hall assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness, most Gracious Prince,

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, and Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, in Common Hall assembled, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our ardent congratulations at the return of peace, under circumstances of such transcendent and peculiar glory.

Frequent has been the occasion and varied the theme of our addresses to the throne, during a long eventful war: we have humbly offered to His Majesty the tribute of our gratitude for his dignified firmness, at periods the most critical, and for his inflexible adherence to the counsels of that enlightened Statesman, to the energy of whose administration we ascribe, under Providence, the salvation of our country, during the anarchy of the moral and political world; and often have we congratulated His Majesty and your Royal Highness upon the recurrence of victory, which, with rare exceptions, has been the inseparable concomitant of British valour.

It has been reserved however for the historian of your Royal Highness's government, to record a series of triumphs, under your illustrious Captain, which stand unparalleled in the page of England's fame; triumphs which, having led to the magnanimous self-devotion of Russia, to the heroic efforts of Prussia, under her immortal veteran, and to the less brilliant, though not less effectual, co-operation of Austria, have accomplished the glorious work of pacification, which France, by her return to loyalty, has cemented, as an atonement to the world.

Proud indeed will ever be the reflection of Britons, that it is to the unshaken constancy of their country, in its resistance to the principles and tyranny of Jacobinism, to the generous succour which has ever been afforded to the cause of true liberty, and especially to the powerful aid, which, in spite of all the gloomy forebodings of a timid and inglorious policy, your Royal Highness has boldly continued to the nations of the Peninsula; and to the wisdom and vigour and moderation of your councils, to which they may exultingly refer as the foundation of this great deliverance.

We presume not to repine at the dispensations of Divine Providence, which sees fit to withhold from our beloved Sovereign the exquisite gratification of partaking in his people's joy; nor permits him to witness the rich harvest of reward, which your Royal Highness is now reaping for your wise perseverance in his system of government, in the silent satisfaction of your own conscience, at the renewed repose and happiness of mankind.

Proportioned to our gratitude for all these signal mercies, which are the subject of our congratulations to your Royal Highness, is the earnestness of our prayer, that the exercise of individual piety and benevolence, may become so universal, that the future historian in recording the awful lessons of the past, and the blessings of the present hour, may be enabled to record also, that the world was awakened by its sense of them to the sincere and active practice of the duties of religion.

May your Royal Highness long live to ensure to us the enjoyment of that peace, which sheds upon your regency so bright a lustre.

Given under our common seal, this 6th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1814.

[Presented by General Manners, accompanied by Lieutenant-Colonel Mortlock, Mayor of Cambridge.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The Address of the Worshipful the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark-upon-Trent, in the County of Nottingham.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark-upon-Trent, in the County of Nottingham, desire to offer to your Royal Highness our congratulations upon the recent happy change in the political state of Europe; a change for which the world is not less indebted (under Divine Providence) to the wisdom and firmness of His Majesty's councils, and the brilliant and unexampled exertions of this country in the common cause, than to those illustrious Allies whose magnanimity and moderation in the hour of victory were only equalled by the perseverance and valour which achieved it.

While we rejoice with your Royal Highness in the downfall of the common desolator of Europe, the consequent restoration of so many Sovereigns to the rightful thrones of their ancestors, and in the prospect of the blessings of a permanent and honourable peace, we sincerely deplore the indisposition which prevents our beloved Sovereign from participating in the general joy which these auspicious events have diffused throughout his dominions.

It must however be a source of the greatest consolation to your Royal Highness, that, in the steady pursuit of the councils and enlightened policy adopted by your royal father, the objects of the protracted warfare in which we have been engaged have at length been attained, the honour of His Majesty's arms and the glory of our country carried to the highest pitch of renown, and that, in discharging one of the most pleasing duties of your high station, your Royal Highness has gratified the wishes of all classes of His Majesty's subjects, by conferring the most distinguished, but well merited, honours and rewards on those gallant officers to whom the principal conduct of this arduous struggle was so judiciously committed.

We gladly avail ourselves of the present occasion to tender to your Royal Highness the assurances of our attachment and regard to your Royal Highness's person and government, and to the principles of the excellent Constitution under which we have the happiness to live.

Jas. Dyson, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, most humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our most sincere congratulations upon the glorious termination of a contest, in which this country has borne so signal and honourable a part.

We cannot but attribute this auspicious change in the relations of Europe, under the favour of Divine Providence, chiefly to the firm and noble stand made by your Royal Highness, and those who have enjoyed your Royal Highness's confidence, to the splendid achievements of the British arms, and to the unwearied directions and resources of this country in aiding and supporting the allied armies, contending in the sacred cause of national independence.

The grand and final results of these exertions we gladly recognise in the extinction of a remorseless military despotism aiming at universal empire, in the restoration of Sovereigns and Princes to their legitimate thrones, in the re-establishment in France (now happily returned to the relations of peace and amity with us) of its ancient dynasty, seeking to govern by the principles of a wise and provident Constitution, and in the prospect of returning tranquillity throughout Europe.

We beg leave further to express to your Royal Highness our most grateful sense of the blessings with which this country has been pre-eminently favoured by Divine Providence, throughout this long and arduous contest, and our most anxious hope that the firmness and perseverance which have been evinced by Great Britain during this eventful period, will serve as a most useful and salutary example to our latest posterity.

Given under our common seal, this 27th day of July 1814.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with heartfelt sentiments of joy and exultation at this new and auspicious era. We most fervently congratulate your Royal Highness upon the termination of a war which has so long desolated the world with a violence hitherto unknown and unexampled. In contemplating an event so consoling to the best feelings of humanity, while we are furnished with additional motives for admiration of that invaluable Constitution, under which it is our boast and privilege to live, we offer our first and most unfeigned acknowledgments to that good and gracious Providence which has disposed the hearts of mankind to the love of peace.

In the great and glorious struggle for the liberty and independence of nations, which this country has so long sustained, we have thought no sacrifice too dear, and no enterprise too hazardous, in the hope of securing these first of blessings: and to the wisdom and energy of His Majesty's councils, and the unrivalled valour of our brave defenders, under the Divine Providence, we attribute no small share of that result which has gladdened the hearts of all Europe. The ever memorable deeds both of our fleets and armies during this long and arduous contest, will not only live in our grateful recollection, but we are confident will continue to the remotest period to signalise the history of these eventful times.

We deem it a matter of still higher congratulation to your Royal Highness, that while this country has risen, in the midst of dangers, to a pitch of greatness unequalled in the annals of its history, this exaltation has been purchased by no sacrifice of public principle, or of national honour; we feel it on the contrary, to be our highest boast and commendation that our pre-eminence is founded solely on the love and practice of justice; our efforts have been directed against the encroachments of a boundless and unfeeling ambition; and while our measures have been guided by firmness and wisdom, they have been no less distinguished by disinterested integrity and public faith.

The example of Great Britain has at length infused into the breasts of other nations an ardour like its own: the glorious flame of liberty has spread with irresistible force; and Europe, rescued from oppression, is now rejoicing in the attainment of repose, so essential to her best interests and happiness.

The sound wisdom and magnanimity that have marked the conduct of our Allies, as much exceed all praise as their effects have been beyond all calculation. Their noble forbearance and unexampled moderation in the hour of victory, are at once the proof and earnest of the benevolence and sincerity of their intentions; while in His Most Christian Majesty the King of France, we have the bond and pledge of friendship, confirmed and endeared by every tie of gratitude and affection most sacred to the human heart.

From a review of these circumstances, we trust that the dawn of a happier day has risen; that the hand of time will heal those deep and painful wounds which the severity of war has inflicted; and that by increased attention to our moral and Christian duties, and a grateful use and estimate of our blessings, we may long be enabled, in the full possession of civil and religious liberty, to enjoy those invaluable advantages, which we confidently anticipate from the relations of peace and amity with the whole world.

Signed, by order of the Meeting,

Wm. Brown, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, in Council assembled, humbly beg permission to approach your Royal Highness, and to present to your Royal Highness our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the glorious termination of a war, instituted for the purpose of securing the independence and happiness of Europe.

We cannot but consider, that this glorious event has been brought about, under Divine Providence, by the wisdom and energy of your Royal Highness, the firmness of your Royal Highness's Council, the unparalleled skill and bravery of your gallant Commanders, and the general co-operation of your Royal Highness's fleets and armies.

It affords us the highest gratification in reflecting on the probable consequences of this glorious peace, promising most fully a long repose to Europe, being concluded by your Royal Highness and the illustrious and magnanimous Sovereigns your Allies, in the true spirit of conciliation and reciprocity of interests.

We beg to be allowed once more to assure your Royal Highness of our unalterable and unfeigned allegiance to our gracious Sovereign, and duty and attachment to the person of your Royal Highness and the august House of Brunswick. In testimony whereof we, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, have hereunto affixed our common seal this 5th day of July 1814.

S. Vale, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Craven, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Royal Burghs of Scotland, in Convention assembled, most joyfully embrace this opportunity of approaching your Royal Highness, to offer their humble and dutiful congratulations upon the general peace, which, by the blessing of Almighty God, has resulted from a series of splendid successes, and is, in the present instance, enhanced by all that can render it honourable and advantageous. We indulge the hope, that Europe will long remember what she has so dearly won; that the true happiness of individuals is founded on the preservation of social order; and that the evils of tyranny cannot be averted or subdued by tame and cowardly submission; that tyrannic ambition, if it prevail for a time, must at length sink under the pressure of its own enterprises; and that great and patriotic exertions for national independence ultimately prove the legitimate medium of regaining and securing that inestimable blessing.

Above all we admire, amidst the splendour of victory and universal peace, the exertions at the late negotiation in favour of suffering humanity, and your Royal Highness's determination, so graciously expressed, to make use of your powerful influence at the approaching Congress, to obtain an entire abolition of a trade so repugnant to the feelings of our nature.

To your Royal Highness, who, following the wise and vigorous Councils of your Royal Father, yielded neither to timidity when the contest was single-handed, nor to the temptation of securing separate and valuable advantages, by dividing with the great oppressor the spoils of the oppressed nations of Europe; to those gallant Commanders and victorious fleets and armies, whose renewed success and paramount pre-eminence have so highly exalted the glory of the British name; and to the unabated and cheerful perseverance with which your people have sustained the weight of unusual and unavoidable burthens, we ascribe, under God, the glorious termination of this arduous struggle.

It is our devout prayer, that your Royal Highness may long enjoy the just reward of your firmness and wisdom, in the affection and gratitude of a free and happy people.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Edinburgh, this 12th day of July, in the year 1814, Wm. Trotter, Preses.

[Presented by W. Dundas, Esq.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and others, Freeholders of the County of Stafford.

CONGRATULATING your Royal Highness and the British nation at large on the termination, through the mercy of Divine Providence, of the miseries of war, and the restoration of the blessings of peace, we are impressed with sentiments of the highest admiration and respect for the wisdom, magnanimity, and moderation of your Royal Highness, and His Majesty's illustrious Allies, who, disregarding all consideration of exclusive aggrandisement, have in mutual confidence, and with an union of effort to attain one common object, at length succeeded in overthrowing a system of tyranny most oppressive to the civilized world.

We regard with real exultation the example held forth by Great Britain in maintaining, through the whole of this eventful struggle, the sacred principle of national independence, until the wisdom of her councils, the success of her arms both by sea, and land, and the abilities of her great Commander, had laid in Spain and Portugal the foundation for the deliverance of Europe.

And we contemplate with peculiar respect, the moderation and good sense of all the allied States in proposing a peace founded on a just balance of European Powers, at the same time that it conduces to the general prosperity, and affords the fairest prospect of a lasting continuance.

Signed at the request and on behalf of a Meeting assembled at Stafford, on the 26th day of July 1814, Oswald Mosley, Sheriff.

CONTRACT FOR TRAIN OIL.

Navy-Office, August 2, 1814

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 10th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-Yards, or any one or more of them, with Train Oil.

A distribution of the oil, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of 500l. for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, July 15, 1814.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that, by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, cap. 60, the same penalties are attached to the making, selling, delivering, receiving, having in possession, and concealing any cordage wrought with one or more worsted threads, as for the making, &c. of any cordage wrought either with a white thread laid the contrary way, or with a twine laid to the contrary way.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, August 2, 1814.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 17th instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner the Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart. will put up to sale, at the Pay-Office, in His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of Junk in Paper-Stuff and Shakings, Yarns, Old Rope, Blockstraps, Boltrope, Lashing, Rounding, Spun-Yarn, &c. &c. &c. all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, July 25, 1814.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 11th of August next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, they will put up to sale, at their Office in Somerset-Place, His Majesty's ships and vessels hereunder mentioned, and which are lying at the Yards against the same expressed, viz.

Lying at Deptford.

Bold gun-brig, of 180 tons; Locust gun-brig, of 180 tons; Viper cutter, of 104 tons.

Lying at Woolwich.

Diligent store-ship, of 324 tons.

Lying at Chatham.

Ariadne, of 24 guns and 432 tons.

Lying at Portsmouth.

Maida, of 74 guns and 1898 tons; Justitia, of 74 guns and 1758 tons; Syeren, of 64 guns and 1490 tons; Europa, of 50 guns and 1047 tons; Topaze, of 38 guns and 917 tons; Carrere, of 38 guns and 1013 tons; Fisgard, of 38 guns and 1182 tons; Clyde, of 38 guns and 991 tons; Chiffonne, of 36 guns and 945 tons; Circe, of 32 guns and 670 tons; Jamaica, of 26 guns and 522 tons.

The purchaser of each of the ships lying at Portsmouth is to give a bond, with two sureties for 3000*l.* not to sell or otherwise dispose of the said ships, but to break them up within twelve months from the day of sale.

Persons wishing to view the ships and vessels, must apply to the Commissioners of the Yards for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the yards.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, August 2, 1814

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Monday the 22d instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Sir Robert Barlow will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Chatham, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Rope, Oakum, Spun-Yarn, Shakings, Canvas, Buntin, Fearnought, Iron, Yarns, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Queen Anne's Bounty-Office, Dean's-Yard, Westminster, August 2, 1814.

THE Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, having one hundred thousand pounds granted in the last session of Parliament to dispose of for increasing that maintenance, do give this public notice, that they will apply it for the augmentation of livings which, by the rules of this Corporation, are fitly qualified to receive it; and that to encourage benefactions, they will give three hundred pounds to any particular cure where any person, in order to obtain the bounty, will give two hundred pounds, or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof in lands or tithes, or a clear rent charge or annuity of fifteen pounds; that the Governors will receive proposals for benefactions till Christmas next, and then proceed, in the first place, to augment such livings as shall have benefactions offered and accepted, and afterwards proceed to augment in due course, by lot, such livings as are fitly qualified, until the whole sum shall be exhausted; that if any living, augmented under this regulation, appears to have no incumbent resident or doing the duty in person, the interest of the augmentation money is to accumulate for the benefit of the living, until there is an incumbent resident or doing the duty in person.

By order of the Governors,

Richard Burn, Secretary.

Bank of England, August 4, 1814.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice,

That they have made an agreement with the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to circulate Exchequer Bills made, or to be made forth, pursuant to several Acts of Parliament for that purpose now in force, for one year, to end the 5th August 1815.

Robert Best, Secretary.
