Sir John Nicholl.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the
Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For recalling and prohibiting His Majesty's natural-born Subjects from serving in the Sea or Land Forces of the United States of America.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by the ancient law of this realm, founded upon the principles of general law,
the natural-born subjects of His Majesty cannot,
either by swearing allegiance to other Princes or States, or by any other their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone or concurring with their own, discharge themselves, or be discharged, from the natural allegiance which,
from their birth, they owe to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, which natural allegiance being antecedent and paramount to any other claim of allegiance whatsoever, cannot, by these or any other such acts, be withdrawn or cancelled: And whereas it hath been represented to Us, that divers of the natural-born subjects of His Majesty have accepted letters of naturalization, or certificates of citizenship, from the United States of America, and have sworn allegiance to the said States, and professed to renounce the natural allegiance which they owe, and must continue to owe, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, and have, in violation of such natural allegiance, engaged by sea and land,
in hostile and traitorous acts against His Majesty:
And whereas some of the said natural-born subjects
of His Majesty may have been induced so to act, from an erroneous persuasion and belief, which they may have been led to entertain, that their duty of natural allegiance was capable of being dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs and successors; We have, therefore, thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby warning all the natural-born subjects of His Majesty, that the natural allegiance which they owe, and of right ought to bear and pay, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, cannot, either by their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone, or concurrent with their own, be dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs or successors: And We have further thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, in consideration that some of the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty, may, through delusion or error, have so acted as aforesaid, by this Proclamation to publish and declare, that all such the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty who, having so acted, shall, within four months from the date hereof, withdraw themselves from the service of the said United States, shall receive His Majesty's free and gracious pardon: And We do, moreover, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also publish and declare, that all natural-born subjects of His Majesty who shall hereafter voluntarily enter, or, having entered, shall voluntarily continue to serve in the land forces, or on board any of the ships or vessels of war, of the said United States of America, or in the private ships or vessels of war belonging to the citizens of the said States at enmity with His Majesty, being thereby guilty of high treason, shall be punished with the utmost severity of the law.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent: which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our hearty and sincere congratulations on the termination of a war, which, during a period of more than twenty years, has desolated or afflicted, under various forms, every part of Europe.

We wholly abstain from calling to the recollection of your Royal Highness the details of that dreadful series of misery which existed during the late period of wars and revolutions, they will remain for ever recorded in the annals of mankind, and will afford a practical and most instructive lesson for the advantage of posterity. We most cordially congratulate your Royal Highness that a peace, so desirable to us all, whenever it could be honourably attained, has at last been accomplished by a series of events, which have rendered the illustrious Actors in them not less distinguished for their skill, courage, and union in the field, than for their magnanimous forbearance, their dignified moderation, and their generous and truly Christian oblivion of injuries in the hour of victory.

A treaty concluded in the true spirit of peace with His Most Christian Majesty, affords us the best hope of permanent tranquillity, and has been received by all ranks of people in this country with those felings of gratitude to which it is so justly entitled.

We must, however, express our regret, that your Royal Highness's exertions to abolish for ever the iniquitous traffic for slaves on the coast of Africa have not been wholly successful; but we venture to hope, that every exertion will be made by your Royal Highness to extinguish a trade so disgraceful to humanity.

Whilst we express our gratitude to your Royal Highness, and to your confidential advisers, for the restoration of peace; whilst we congratulate your Royal Highness on the great and splendid victories obtained by the British fleets and armies under Commanders who would have done honour to any age or country, we feel that we ought not to be unmindful of the Supreme Disposer of all events, who has so wonderfully protected this highly favoured nation, and who, in His own good time, has given tranquillity to Europe.

We venture to assure your Royal Highness, that as we have been thus blessed with a deliverance from the calamities of war, we shall endeavour to cultivate the arts of peace; and that we will avoid all dissensions amongst ourselves, as far as it may be compatible with the freedom of thought and action, which we enjoy under our present happy Constitution; and that we will do our utmost to prove, that the inhabitants of faithful Cornwall are not degenerate descendants of those ancestors whose loyalty and unanimity have been so much distinguished in all periods of our history.

Whitehall, August 12, 1814

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the morning of Monday the 11th day of July last, between the hours of one and two o'clock, Elizabeth Noyce, late of the parish of Fawley, in the county of Southampton, widow, deceased, was found in a field of Mr. Covey's, in the said parish, but a very short distance from her own house, lying upon her side in a state of total insensibility, with her face covered with dirt, and her nostrils filled, apparently for the purpose of producing suffocation: and whereas about ten minutes after nine o'clock in the evening of Sunday the previous day, she was seen to go from her own house up the roadway which bounds Mr. Covey's field, having stated that she was going to a house at the other end of the village: and whereas the said Elizabeth Noyce lingered until Friday the 15th day of the same month of July, and then died, having during that period some short intervals of understanding, in the course of which she three times declared to a Magistrate, that she was knocked down by a violent blow in the back part of the head, which stunned her instantly; that she did not see the person who struck her, but that she heard him distinctly come out of Mr. Covey's field, over the gate, and walk behind her: and whereas there is no doubt but the said Elizabeth Noyce was barbarously and cruelly murdered, by being knocked down in the road, and afterwards dragged through the gateway and thrown down in the corner of the field where she was found; a stake of uncommon size being found near the gate the next morning.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the actual perpetrator of this wicked murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person or persons concerned therein (except the person who actually committed the said murder), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Fawley to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and convict the said offenders, or any of them, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof; such reward to be paid on application to the said Churchwardens and Overseers, or either of them.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a turnpike road from the Sessions-House in the town of Buckingham, in the county of Buckingham, to join the turnpike road leading through the hamlet of Old Stratford, in the parish of Passenham, in the county of Northampton, and to continue the same from and out of the said last-mentioned turnpike road, at the North East side of the town of Stoney Stratford, in the said county of Buckingham, to and through the high street in the town of Newport Pagnell, in the said county of Buckingham; which said road is intended to pass through part of the parish of Buckingham, and through or into the several parishes and places of Maidsmorton and Foscott, in the said county of Buckingham; Wicken, Deanshanger, Passenham, and Old Stratford, in the said county of Northampton; and Stoney Stratford, Saint Mary Magdalene, Stoney Stratford Saint Giles, Calverton, Woolverton, Bradwell, Stantonbury, Great Linford, and Newport Pagnell, in the said county of Buckingham.—Dated the 18th day of August 1814.

Parish of Langham, in the County of Norfolk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for an Act to divide and inclose the whole year lands, commons, commonable lands and waste grounds, within the manor and parish of Langham, in the county of Norfolk.—Dated the 6th day of August 1814.

REGULATIONS IN RESPECT TO THE HALF-PAY AND APPOINTMENT OF MASTERS OF THE ROYAL NAVY.

Admiralty-Office, July 26, 1814.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been graciously pleased to approve of certain regulations proposed by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, for the encouragement and reward of Masters of the Royal Navy, and for regulating the appointment of this highly meritorious and useful class of Officers, notice is hereby given, that the following regulations have been established, by Order in Council, dated the 23d instant:—

I.—That Masters, on their first appointments, shall be allowed their travelling expences, at the same rate, and in the same manner, as the Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet.

II.—That, in lieu of the half-pay established for Masters in the Royal Navy, by the 7th article of the Order in Council of 15th August 1805, and the regulations appertaining thereto, the following rate of half-pay shall be established and allowed, from the 1st July instant, viz. :—

- To the first 100 Masters, being qualified for 1st and 2d rates, 7s. per diem.
- To the next 200 being qualified for 3d and 4th rates, 6s. per diem.
- The remainder, 5s. per diem.

The said rates of half-pay for Masters to be subject to the same regulations and restrictions as the half-pay of the Commissioned Officers of the Fleet, and also to the following regulations, viz. :—

• That such Master as shall have served five years in His Majesty's Navy, two of which as Acting Master, Second Master, Master's-Mate, or Midshipman, previously to receiving an appointment as Master, shall be entitled to half-pay immediately on his being put out of commission.

• That such Master as shall have served as aforesaid, in His Majesty's Navy, but not for the full space of five years, shall be entitled to half-pay only when the time of his service as Master, added to that before passed in the King's Service, shall complete the said period of five years.

• And that such as shall have been appointed Master without having previously served in the Royal Navy, shall be entitled to half-pay, after having served as Master five years. But that no Master shall be permitted in time of war, on any account whatever, to receive half-pay during such time as he shall be employed in the merchant service, or in any other occupation, unless sufficient proof be adduced to the Commissioners of the Navy, that such person is, from infirmity of body, absolutely incapable of performing the duty of a Master in His Majesty's Navy.

III.—And His Royal Highness has been further graciously pleased to direct, that Masters of the Royal Navy, instead of being required, as at present, to pass an examination before the Master and Wardens of the Corporation of Trinity House, for each rate of ships separately, shall be required only to pass an examination touching their qualifications to serve as Masters of the following rates jointly:

- First and second rates jointly.
- Third and fourth rates jointly.
- Fifth and sixth rates jointly.
- Sloops and smaller vessels jointly.

IV.—And in order to prevent any unnecessary or improvident increase of the number of Masters, and, at the same time to ensure, that all persons warranted as Masters in His Majesty's Navy, be men of experience and judgment.

• That no person shall be warranted as Master, until the number of Masters on the list be reduced below the number of ships on the list of the navy (exclusive of such as are building, and have not been launched), and that no more Masters shall be ever appointed, than the number of such ships at the time that any appointment of Master is to be made.

• That no person shall be allowed to pass an examination touching his qualifications to serve as Master in the Royal Navy before he shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, or after the age of thirty-five years, and have been at least seven years at sea, two of which must have been served in His Majesty's Navy in the quality of Acting Master by order, Second Master, Master's-Mate, or Midshipman, or being within the aforesaid ages, and having served seven years at sea, shall have actually been one year or more Chief Mate, and two years Master, or two years Chief Mate, and one year Master of a merchant ship; and shall produce certificates of diligence, sobriety, and good conduct, from the owners, for the time he served as Master, and from the Owners and Master for the time he served as Mate.

• That no Master shall be permitted to pass his examination for a higher rate, until he shall have served one complete year in a ship in commission, under his last qualification.' J. W. CROKER

REGULATIONS IN RESPECT TO THE HALF-PAY, APPOINTMENT, AND RANK, OF PURSERS OF THE ROYAL NAVY.

Admiralty-Office, July 26, 1814.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been graciously pleased to approve of certain regulations proposed by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, for the encouragement and reward of Pursers of the Royal Navy, and for regulating the appointment, and fixing the rank of this useful and deserving class of Officers: Notice is hereby given, that the following regulations have been established by Order in Council, dated the 23d instant; and that orders have been in consequence given for the immediate discharge of all Pursers from ships in ordinary and the cheque of the several yards.

I. That Pursers of the Royal Navy, instead of being considered as standing Warrant Officers of His Majesty's ships, and borne in ships in ordinary, or on the cheque of the several dock-yards for personal pay and allowances of provisions, as at present, shall, when the ships to which they are warranted may be paid off, be immediately discharged, and allowed in lieu of their present wages and provisions, half-pay according to the following scale, viz.

- To the first 160 Pursers on the Seniority List, 5s. per diem.
- The next 200, 4s. per diem.
- The remainder, 3s. per diem.

The said half-pay of Pursers shall commence from the 1st of July instant, and be subject to the same regulations and restrictions as the half-pay of the Commissioned Officers of His Majesty's fleet, and be allowed to all Pursers, who shall have been five years in His Majesty's service, either as Clerk or Purser, from the day on which their respective ships may be put out of commission.

That all pursers coming on half-pay shall report themselves to this Office, without loss of time, in order to be placed on the Quarterly half-pay Lists, on pain of forfeiting the half-pay for the time not reported.

II.—In order to prevent any improvident or unnecessary increase of the number of Pursers, and at the same time to ensure the appointment of such persons only as may be duly qualified for the duties of the situation, no person shall be warranted as purser, until the number of Pursers be reduced below the number of ships on the list of the Royal Navy, (exclusive of such as are building, and have not been launched), and that hereafter the number of Pursers shall never exceed the number of such ships.

That no person shall be appointed a Purser who shall be less than twenty-one, or more than thirty-five years of age.

That no person shall be appointed a Purser of any of His Majesty's ships, unless he have been rated as, and actually discharged the duty of, Captain's clerk in one or more of His Majesty's ships for two complete years; or has discharged the said duty of Captain's Clerk for one complete year, and the duty of Clerk to the Secretary of a Flag-Officer for one other year; and shall, in every case, produce a certificate of his good conduct, pass the usual examinations, and give such security for an honest and faithful discharge of his duty, as may from time to time be required.

That no person shall be capable of being appointed to a fourth or fifth rate, who shall not have been two years a Warranted Purser on the list, nor to a first, second, or third rate, till he shall have been five years on the list of Warranted Pursers.

III.—In order to give a greater respectability to the situation of this class of Officers, His Royal Highness has been graciously pleased to confer on Pursers of the Royal Navy the same rank as granted by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 25th of January 1805, to the Surgeons of the Fleet.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Aylesbury, July 23, 1814.

Pursuant to the terms of a deed of trust, under which a fund is provided for satisfying certain debts due from Messrs. James Neale, Thomas Grace, and John Saunders Woodcock, late of the Vale of Aylesbury Bank, prior to the dissolution of their Partnership, which took place on or about the 10th day of October 1810, all persons who are holders of promissory notes, or otherwise Creditors of the said James Neale, Thomas Grace, and John Saunders Woodcock, are required forthwith to deliver or send an account of their respective demands, with full particulars of the notes or other securities, if any, which they hold, to me, otherwise they will be excluded the benefit of the said trust.

JOSEPH ROSE, Solicitor to the Trustees.

To be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued, and now in prosecution against John Shoel and James Heald, of Gateaton-Street, London, Merchants, Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, at the Guildhall of the City of London, on Tuesday the 30th day of August 1814, at Ten o'Clock;

The valuable and desirable lease, whereof 28 years were unexpired at Lady-Day last, at a low rent of 42l. per annum, of that capital dwelling house and shop, well situated for business, being No. 52 on the West side of Houndsditch, in the City of London.—Immediate possession may be had.—The tenant is bound to insure the premises in the sum of 500l. and the fixtures to be taken at a fair valuation.

To be viewed six days prior to the sale: particulars had on the premises; at Garraway's; of Messrs. Mayhew and Price, Solicitors, Symond's-Inn; Mr. Barrow, Solicitor, Thread-needle-Street; and of Mr. Farebrother, Beaufort-House, Beaufort-Buildings, Strand.

IRON-WORKS AND COLLIERY FOR SALE.

To be sold, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against John Thomas, at the Angel Inn, in the town of Cardiff, in the County of Glamorgan, between the hours of Five and Seven o'Clock in the Afternoon, on Monday, the 5th day of September 1814;

Lot 1.—All those iron-works, situate in the Parish of Machen, in the County of Monmouth, called Pontymister Iron-Works, consisting of a rolling-mill, capable of turning out 40 tons of bar-iron per week, and an wooden helve hammer for drawing out uses, with carpenters' shops, smith forges, turning machines, store-houses, 18 workmens' houses, and other conveniences.

Also a substantial newly erected agent's house, with stabling, out-offices, gardens, and premises thereto belonging.

Also a piece of ground, adjoining the river Ebbw, containing by estimation 17 acres, or thereabouts; on part of which the above iron-works, and other buildings and premises, have been erected and made: and the whole of which is held under a lease granted by William Phillips, Esq. together with all his right to the said river, for a term whereof 27 years are unexpired from the 6th day of March last, subject to an yearly rent of 181l. 5s. and which lease contains a covenant for granting a further term of 40 years of the same premises, to commence from the expiration of the said lease, on payment of 520l. down, and the said yearly rent of 181l. 5s.

Also a piece of freehold land, situate in the Parish of Risca, in the Monmouth, only divided from the said 17 acres by the said river Ebbw.

The above iron-works are worked by water, of which they have a constant supply from the said river Ebbw, and are distant from the shipping port of Newport about 6 miles, and most eligibly situated, about three quarters of a mile from the Monmouthshire canal, and a tram-road leading from Sirhowy and Tridegar iron-works to Newport, with which tram-road they communicate by another tram-road about three quarters of a mile in length.

Lot 2.—A valuable colliery, near Newbridge, in the Parish of Monythusjoin, in the said County of Monmouth, about 11 miles and three quarters from Newport aforesaid; containing coals of the best quality, adjoining Ponnes Colliery, and is the same vein.

The whole of this colliery is leasehold, and different parts of it granted for different periods, the longest term of which is 17 years from the 2d of June 1811, subject to the payment of certain gallages and rents; there is also three halfpence per ton to be paid for all coals brought out through the main level thereof.

The above colliery is now let to Mr. Moses Moses, under an agreement for a lease thereof for 7 years, from the 12th day of July 1813, at a clear rent of 200l. per annum, payable monthly by a bill at two months, over and above the said gallages, rents, and payments.

N.B. There are a variety of articles lying at the said iron-works too numerous to mention here, which will be extremely useful to a purchaser of those works, and may be taken by him at a valuation; a list of the whole of which may be seen on application to Mr. John Thomas, at the works.

For a view of the iron-works apply to Mr. John Thomas, of the works, and of the colliery, to Mr. Moses Moses, Argood Colliery, Bedwellty, Monmouthshire; and for further particulars to Mr. David Williams, Solicitor, Newport, Monmouthshire.—Newport, August 9, 1814.

Summons by Edict.

By virtue of an appointment from the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this colony, given upon a petition of William Innes, as appointed Curator to the estate of John Donaldson, deceased, dated 26th January 1814;

I the undersigned, at the request of aforesaid curator, do hereby summon by edict, all known and unknown creditors on the estate of the late John Donaldson, deceased, to appear before the bar of the Court of Civil Justice of this colony, at their session, which will be held in the month of October of this present year 1814, there to verify their claims and witness the Court's decision as to the preferent or concurrent right of claimants, and further to proceed according to law, on pain of being for ever debarred their right of claim.

This summons by edict made known to the public by beat of drum from the Court-House of this Colony, and further dealt with according to custom.—Berbice, the 15th February 1814. K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

From the Marshal's Office.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

By virtue of two appointments from His Excellency R. Gordon, Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the colony Berbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. granted upon two petitions both presented by Johannes Bakker, as one of the representatives of plantation La Fraternite versus plantation Lewis Manor, the one appointment bearing date the 10th February 1812, and the other the 2d of March 1812, both appointments being renewed on the 24th April 1813.

Notice is hereby given, that I the undersigned First Marshal of the Courts within this colony, will sell at public execution sale, in the month of June 1815, the precise day hereafter to be notified through the Gazette of this colony, the cotton estate Lewis Manor, situate on the East sea coast of this colony, with all its cultivation, slaves, buildings, &c.

Whoever should think to have any right, action, or interest on aforesaid plantation Lewis Manor, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this colony, declaring their reasons for so doing, in due time and form, as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every one thereunto qualified, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act thereon as the law directs.

This first proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, the 29th May 1814. K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

From the Marshal's Office.

Summons by Edict.

By virtue of an appointment from the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this colony, given upon a petition presented by William Lawson and William Kewley, curators to the estate of the late Gwyn Jones, said appointment bearing date the 21st day of May 1814;

I the undersigned, First Marshal of the Courts within this colony, and at the request of aforesaid curators, summon by edict de novo all creditors or claimants on the estate of the late Gwyn and Aletta Jones, to give in their claims in person, or by proxy, before the bar of the Court of Civil Justice, at their sessions, which will be held in the month of October 1814, to hear objections made thereunto, and further to proceed according to law, on pain, to all such who remain in default, of being for ever debarred their right of claim.

This summons by edict de novo made known to the public by beat of drum, from the Court-House of this colony, to be sent to Holland and England, and further dealt with according to custom.—Berbice, the 4th June 1814.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.
