By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For recalling and prohibiting His Majesty's natural-born Subjects from serving in the Sea or Land Forces of the United States of America.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by the ancient law of this realm, founded upon the principles of general law, the natural-born subjects of His Majesty cannot, either by swearing allegiance to other Princes or States, or by any other their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone or concurring with their own, discharge themselves, or be discharged, from the natural allegiance which, from their birth, they owe to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, which natural allegiance being antecedent and paramount to any other claim of allegiance whatsoever, cannot, by these or any other such acts, be withdrawn or cancelled: And whereas it hath been represented to Us, that divers of the natural-born subjects of His Majesty have accepted letters of naturalization, or certificates of citizenship, from the United States of America, and have sworn allegiance to the said States, and professed to renounce the natural allegiance which they owe, and must continue to owe, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, and have, in violation of such natural allegiance, engaged by sea and land, in hostile and traitorous acts against His Majesty: And whereas some of the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty may have been induced so to act, from an erroneous persuasion and belief, which they may have been led to entertain, that their duty of natural allegiance was capable of being dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs and successors; We have, therefore, thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby warning all the natural-born subjects of His Majesty, that the natural allegiance which they owe, and of right ought to bear and pay, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, cannot, either by their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone, or concurrent with their own, be dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs or successors: And We have further thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, in consideration that some of the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty, may, through delusion or error, have so acted as aforesaid, by this Proclamation to publish and declare, that all such the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty who, having so acted, shall, within four months from the date hereof, withdraw themselves from the service of the said United States, shall receive His Majesty's free and gracious pardon: And We do, moreover, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also publish and declare, that all natural-born subjects of His Majesty who shall hereafter voluntarily enter, or, having entered, shall voluntarily continue to serve in the land forces, or on board any of the ships or vessels of war, of the said United States of America, or in the private ships or vessels of war belonging to the citizens of the said States at enmity with His Majesty, being thereby guilty of high treason, shall be punished with the utmost severity of the law.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland:

Illustrious Prince,

DEIGN to accept the sincere and affectionate congratulations of His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of his loyal City of Dublin, on the happy return of that day which has blessed those realms with the birth of your Royal Highness.

Steadily acting upon the principles of your great father, our revered and honoured King, you command the love, the admiration, and the respect of all who honour him and regard the prosperity of our country, and we trust that like him you will ever reign in the affections of a free and grateful people.

Permit us farther, Sir, to express the feelings which arise in our hearts from the happy coincidence of your birth-day with the hundredth anniversary of that period on which your illustrious family ascended our throne. From that hour to the present, religion and liberty have been secured, commerce has flourished, manufactures have increased; the realm has been governed by wise and salutary laws; and the high reputation of the country in honour, arms, and arts, has transcended all preceding times; a wise and generous people feel and enjoy those blessings, and are ever ready to offer their lives and fortunes in their support.

To complete the honour and welfare of His Majesty's people, the Almighty Giver of all Good has graciously bestowed upon us the most glorious peace ever recorded in the page of history; a peace, under his gracious Providence, acquired by the wisdom of His Majesty's councils, the consummate skill of his Commanders, and valour of his forces. May it long continue to bless his government and his people with unvarying prosperity, and may your Royal Highness, whose firmness in resisting foreign and domestic enemies has been so conspicuous and so successful, long govern those realms after our revered Monarch shall have received in an heavenly crown the promised reward of the Just.

In testimony whereof the common seal of said City is hereto affixed, the 22d day of July 1814.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

REGULATIONS IN RESPECT TO THE HALF-PAY AND APPOINTMENT OF MASTERS OF THE ROYAL NAVY.

Admiralty-Office, July 26, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been graciously pleased to approve of certain regulations, proposed by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, for the encouragement and reward of Masters of the Royal Navy, and for regulating the appointment of this highly meritorious and useful class of Officers, notice is hereby given, that the following regulations have been established, by Order in Council, dated the 23d instant:—

I.—That Masters, on their first appointments, shall be allowed their travelling expences, at the same rate, and in the same manner, as the Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet.

II.—That, in lieu of the half-pay established for Masters in the Royal Navy, by the 7th article of the Order in Council of 15th August 1805, and the regulations appertaining thereto, the following rate of half-pay shall be established and allowed, from the 1st July instant, viz:—

- To the first 100 Masters, being qualified for 1st and 2d rates, 7s. per diem.
- To the next 200 being qualified for 3d and 4th rates, 6s. per diem.
- The remainder, 5s. per diem.

The said rates of half-pay for Masters to be subject to the same regulations and restrictions as the half-pay of the Commissioned Officers of the Fleet, and also to the following regulations, viz:—

That such Master as shall have served five years in His Majesty's Navy, two of which as Acting Master, Second Master, Master's-Mate, or Midshipman, previously to receiving an appointment as Master, shall be entitled to half-pay immediately on his being put out of commission.

That such Master as shall have served as aforesaid, in His Majesty's Navy, but not for the full space of five years, shall be entitled to half-pay only when the time of his service as Master, added to that before passed in the King's Service, shall complete the said period of five years.

And that such as shall have been appointed Master without having previously served in the Royal Navy, shall be entitled to half-pay, after having served as Master five years. But that no Master shall be permitted in time of war, on any account whatever, to receive half-pay during such time as he shall be employed in the merchant service, or in any other occupation, unless sufficient proof be adduced to the Commissioners of the Navy, that such person is, from infirmity of body, absolutely incapable of performing the duty of a Master in His Majesty's Navy.

III.—And His Royal Highness has been further graciously pleased to direct, that Masters of the Royal Navy, instead of being required, as at present, to pass an examination before the Master and Wardens of the Corporation of Trinity House, for each rate of ships separately, shall be required only to pass an examination touching their qualifications to serve as Masters of the following rates jointly:

- First and second rates jointly.
- Third and fourth rates jointly.
- Fifth and sixth rates jointly.
- Sloops and smaller vessels jointly.

IV.—And in order to prevent any unnecessary or improvident increase of the number of Masters, and, at the same time to ensure, that all persons warranted as Masters in His Majesty's Navy, be men of experience and judgment,

That no person shall be warranted as Master, until the number of Masters on the list be reduced below the number of ships on the list of the navy (exclusive of such as are building, and have not been launched), and that no more Masters shall be ever appointed, than the number of such ships at the time that any appointment of Master is to be made.

That no person shall be allowed to pass an examination touching his qualifications to serve as Master in the Royal Navy before he shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, or after the age of thirty-five years, and have been at least seven years at sea, two of which must have been served in His Majesty's Navy in the quality of Acting Master by order, Second Master, Master's-Mate, or Midshipman, or being within the aforesaid ages, and having served seven years at sea, shall have actually been one year or more Chief Mate, and two years Master, or two years Chief Mate, and one year Master of a merchant ship; and shall produce certificates of diligence, sobriety, and good conduct, from the owners, for the time he served as Master, and from the Owners, and Master for the time he served as Mate.

That no Master shall be permitted to pass his examination for a higher rate, until he shall have served one complete year in a ship in commission, under his last qualification. J. W. CROKER.

REGULATIONS IN RESPECT TO THE HALF-PAY, APPOINTMENT, AND RANK, OF PURSERS OF THE ROYAL NAVY.

Admiralty-Office, July 26, 1814.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been graciously pleased to approve of certain regulations proposed by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, for the encouragement and reward of Pursers of the Royal Navy, and for regulating the appointment, and fixing the rank of this useful and deserving class of Officers: Notice is hereby given, that the following regulations have been established by Order in Council, dated the 23d instant; and that orders have been in consequence given for the immediate discharge of all Pursers from ships in ordinary and the cheque of the several yards.

I. That Pursers of the Royal Navy, instead of being considered as standing Warrant Officers of His Majesty's ships, and borne in ships in ordinary, or on the cheque of the several dock-yards for personal pay and allowances of provisions, as at present, shall, when the ships to which they are warranted may be paid off, be immediately discharged, and allowed in lieu of their present wages, and provisions, half-pay according to the following scale, viz:

- To the first 100 Pursers on the Seniority List, 5s. per diem.
- The next 200, 4s. per diem.
- The remainder, 3s. per diem.

The said half-pay of Pursers shall commence from the 1st of July instant, and be subject to the same regulations and restrictions as the half-pay of the Commissioned Officers of His Majesty's fleet, and be allowed to all Purser, who shall have been five years in His Majesty's service, either as Clerk or Purser, from the day on which their respective ships may be put out of commission.

That all pursers coming on half-pay shall report themselves to this Office, without loss of time, in order to be placed on the Quarterly half-pay Lists, on pain of forfeiting the half-pay for the time not reported.

II.—In order to prevent any improvident or unnecessary increase of the number of Purser, and at the same time to ensure the appointment of such persons only as may be duly qualified for the duties of the situation, no person shall be warranted as purser, until the number of Purser be reduced below the number of ships on the list of the Royal Navy, (exclusive of such as are building, and have not been launched), and that hereafter the number of Purser shall never exceed the number of such ships.

That no person shall be appointed a Purser who shall be less than twenty-one, or more than thirty-five years of age.

That no person shall be appointed a Purser of any of His Majesty's ships, unless he have been rated as, and actually discharged the duty of, Captain's clerk in one or more of His Majesty's ships for two complete years; or has discharged the said duty of Captain's Clerk for one complete year, and the duty of Clerk to the Secretary of a Flag-Officer for one other year; and shall, in every case, produce a certificate of his good conduct, pass the usual examinations, and give such security for an honest and faithful discharge of his duty, as may from time to time be required.

That no person shall be capable of being appointed to a fourth or fifth rate, who shall not have been two years a Warranted Purser on the list, nor to a first, second, or third rate, till he shall have been five years on the list of Warranted Purser.

III.—In order to give a greater respectability to the situation of this class of Officers, His Royal Highness has been graciously pleased to confer on Purser of the Royal Navy the same rank as granted by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 25th of January 1805, to the Surgeons of the Fleet.
