By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For recalling and prohibiting His Majesty's naturalborn Subjects from serving in the Sea or Land Forces of the United States of America.

GEORGE, P. R.

HEREAS by the ancient law of this realm, founded upon the principles of general law, the natural-born subjects of His Majesty cannot, either by swearing allegiance to other Princes or States, or by any other their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone or concurring with their own, discharge themselves, or be discharged, from the natural allegiance which, from their birth, they owe to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, which natural allegiance being antecedent and paramount to any other claim of allegiance whatsoever, cannot, by these or any other such acts, be withdrawn or cancelled: And whereas it hath been represented to Us, that divers of the natural-born subjects of His Majesty have accepted letters of naturalization, or certificates of citizenship, from the United States of America, and have sworn allegiance to the said States, and professed to renounce the natural allegiance which they owe, and must continue to owe, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, and have, in violation of such natural allegiance, engaged by sea and land, in hostile and traitorous acts against His Majesty: And whereas some of the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty may have been induced so to act, from an erroneous persuasion and belief, which they may have been led to entertain, that their duty of natural allegiance was capable of being dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs and successors; We have, therefore, thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby warning all the natural-born subjects of His Majesty, that the natural allegiance which they owe, and of right ought to bear and pay, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, cannot, either by their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone, or concurrent with their own, be dissolved or withdrawn from His-Majesty, His heirs or successors: And We have further thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, in consideration that some of the said natural-born subjects of His Ma-Jesty, may, through delusion or error, have so acted as aforesaid, by this Proclamation to publish and declare, that all such the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty who, having so acted, shall, within four months from the date hereof, withdraw themselves from the service of the said United States, shall receive His Majesty's free and gracious pardon: And We do, moreover, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also publish and declare, that all natural-born subjects of His Majesty who shall hereafter voluntarily enter, or, having entered, shall voluntarily continue to serve in the land forces, or on board any of the ships or vessels of war, of the said United States of America, or in the private ships or vessels of war belonging to the citizens of the said States at enmity with His Majesty, being thereby guilty of high treason, shall be punished with the utmost severity of the law.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twentythird day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with hearts full of the most lively gratitude to the Supreme Disposer of all human events, to offer our congratulations on the happy termination of the long and arduous contest in which this nation bath been engaged, and on the general peace so auspiciously concluded by your Royal Highness, in conjunction with the allied powers of Europe.

We feel with pride and exultation, in common with all His Majesty's subjects, the high pre-emiuence and splendid situation in which this country now stands, by the wisdom of its councils, and a steady adherence to the system of measures pointed out by that great and able statesman, whose memory must be ever dear to all true lovers of their country.

From principles so laid down, supported by the good sense and energy of the people under severe difficulties and privations, and by the valour and intrepidity of our fleets and armies, led by the most able and distinguished Commanders, assisted by the co-operation of our magnanimous Allies, the power of the restless disturber of the world has been over-thrown, and the great work of peace has been gloriously accomplished, under the auspices and councils of your Royal Highness, with honour to all the powers of Europe, and with all the appearance of permanent security.

In presenting to your Royal Highness this tribute of our joy on this important event, we cannot omit to express our sense of the wise and prudent measures displayed by your Royal Highness in the government of this country since His Majesty's lamented indisposition; and we hope and trust, when it shall be the will of Heaven that your Royal Highness should succeed to the throne of your ancestors, that your Royal Highness may long continue to reign in tranquillity and peace, over a free, brave, grateful, and united people.

Given under our common seal at the Guildhall of the said City, the 16th day of August 1814.

[Transmitted by Mr. William Courtenay, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and other Freeholders of the County of Worcester, beg leave to approach you with the offering of our warmest congratulations on the happy termination of the long, arduous, and eventful contest in which we have been engaged. The choicest blessings to which the pride of empire can look up, or the social state of man aspire, are the sober and solid conforts which after victory succeed on a glorious and lasting peace.

The wisdom which has matured your councils, and the bravery and conduct which have signalized your arms by sea and land, have planted thick the laurels round the throne of our beloved Sovereign, and fixed an everlasting seal on the honour of the crown and the happiness of the nation. But the measure of both is greatly augmented by the recollection of the cause for which we armed—justice, order, and humanity; and it has pleased the Almighty (without whom our efforts had been ineffectual) to let the light of his countenance shine on undertakings consecrated in Heaven for the interests of mankind.

Had we waged hostilities for universal empire, and let flow the blood of thousands to shine as the meteor of a terrified world, we might reasonably have expected the reverse of our fortune, and to have shared the fate of the tyrant who erected his empire in blasphemy and planted his banners midst blood and desolation.

We glory too in the reflection that the wealth and riches obtained by our trade and commerce (so long the envy of Europe) have been applied to the general benefit of the whole western hemisphere in the re-establishment of order and peace. Without compensation we have restored our conquests to the conquered, and have taught them that monopoly was not our aim, but the reciprocity of commerce, subject only to restrictions required by our maritime superiority, and the acknowledged supremacy of the British flag. At the close of the tragic scene we have proudly beheld the great Potentates of Europe and the great Commanders of their armies visiting our shores to admire our glory, our riches, our population, our policy, from whence has emanated the vast assistance we have so essentially been enabled to contribute to this great work.

With the warmest satisfaction we have admired the gracious declaration of your Royal Highness, that you will use your influence with the other powers of Europe finally to abolish the trade in slaves; and we presume to entertain an anxious hope that your exertions in the great cause of humanity may be attended with a success grateful to the feelings of the British nation.

May our unexampled unanimity in war bud forth with increased luxuriance in peace, and may plenty, supported by honest industry and liberal economy in every department of the State, smile upon our borders and diffuse content and happiness throughout every part of His Majesty's dominions. May a peace, founded on the love of order, iaw, and religion, be perpetual, and may the blessings of the peace-maker light on your head, and may the latest postcrity contemplate in you the zealous preserver of that peace which you have bestowed on a grateful and admiring world.

Jno. Knight, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Mr. Knight, the High Sheriff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and other Freeholders of the County of Hereford, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and to offer our sincere congratulations on the termination, through the mercy of Divine Providence, of the miseries of war, and the restoration of the blessings of peace.

We are deeply impressed with the sentiments of the highest admiration and respect for the wisdom, magnanimity, and moderation of your Royal Highness, and His Majesty's illustrious Allies, who, disregarding all considerations of exclusive aggrandisement, have, in mutual confidence, and with an union of effort to attain one common object, at length succeeded in overthrowing, a system of tyrance most oppressive to the civilized world.

We regard with real exultation, the example held forth by Great Britain in maintaining, through the whole of this eventful struggle, the sacred principle of national independence, until the wisdom of her councils, the success of her arms both by sea and land, and the abilities of her great Commander, had laid, in Spain and Portugal, the foundation for the deliverance of Europe.

And we contemplate with peculiar respect, the forbearance and moderation of the allied States in proposing a peace founded on a just balance of European Powers, at the same time that it conduces to the general prosperity, and affords the fairest prospect of a lasting continuance.

Permit us likewise, to avail ourselves of this opportunity to express our warmest satisfaction at the gracious declaration of your Royal Highness, that you will use your influence with the other powers of Europe, finally to abolish the trade in slaves; and we presume to entertain an anxious hope that your exertions in the great cause of humanity may be attended with a success grateful to the feelings of the British nation.

By order and in the name of the Meeting,

E. M. Barrett, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Mr. Barrett, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Sligo, beg leave to address your Royal Highness with the warmest feelings of respect and attachment, humbly to express our congratulations on the signal success of the energetic counsels by which His Majesty and your Royal Highness have succeeded, under the blessing of Providence, in putting an end to the most perilous warfare in which these kingdoms were ever engaged, thereby not merely rescuing ourselves from impending danger, but powerfully contributing, by our example and our arms, to the rescue of the Continent of Europe from a military despotism, which aimed at its total subjugation. We humbly beg permission further to add, that though we place the firmest reliance on your Royal Highness's Ministers that they will make use of all the weight and influence of this great empire to induce other nations to join in putting an end to the odious trade. in slaves, which has been abolished by ourselves, yet we are humbly of opinion, that all classes of His Majesty's subjects should come forward where there is any hope that they could add the smallest weight to your Royal Highness's exertions for the general abolition of this detestable traffic.

We cannot conceal from your Royal Highness our fears, that the peace which now gladdens the hearts of European nations, will to the wretched Africans be a source of increased disaster and misery; and that unless your Royal Highness is enabled to interfere with effect to procure a general abolition, the practical result of the restoration of peace will be to revive a traffic which we have prohibited as a crime, to open the sea to a number of unprincipled adventurers, who will renew and extend, on the shores of Africa, the scenes of rapine and desolation which were in a great measure suspended by maritime hostilities.

Under such circumstances, we cannot but look forward with auxious hope, that, under your Royal.

Highness's auspices, the general pacification may include that of Africa, and that the traffic in slaves will no longer continue to be the disgrace of Christendom. Harloe Phibbs, Sheriff.

N pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons "to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Mem-" bers to serve in Parliament in the manner "therein mentioned; and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:" I do hereby give notice, that the death of the Honourable William Frederick Mackenzie, late Member serving in this present Parliament for the shire of Ross, hath been certified to me in writing under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Commissioner to serve in this present Parliament for the said shire of Ross, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

SIR,

the undersigned, Anthony James Earl of Newburgh, Lord of the Manor of Eartham, in the county of Sussex, being interested in the execution of an Act of Parliament lately made and passed, intituled "An Act for inclosing lands in the manor and parish of Eartham, in the county of Sussex," do hereby give you notice of the passing of the said Act; and I do hereby require you, within one month after you shall have received this notice, to attend a meeting for the purpose mentioned in the said Act, as a Commissioner appointed by the same.—Dated this 1st day of September 1814.

Newburgh.

TROON HARBOUR.

Otice is hereby given, that, on the 1st of December next, the two lights at present shewn on the pier here will be discontinued, and a single light will be placed at the corner of the house nearest the parapet wall of the pier, about thirty-five feet above high water mark of ordinary tides. Its bearing from the south end of the Lady Isle, by the compass, will be east by north half north; and from the north end of the same isle, east half north.

The pier extends from this light three hundred yards, in the direction, by the compass, of north east half north. On account of the Lappoch Rock, no vessel should approach the light nearer than a quarter of a mile.—July, 1814.

Army Pay-Office, September 2, 1814. To Widows of Officers of the Land and Marine Forces.

Otice is hereby given, that the pensions from the 25th April 1814 to the 24th August 1814, will be paid to widows who may apply at this Office, between the hours of eleven and two of every day, except Saturdays and Sundays, from 6th September to the 5th October next, both inclusive; and that the agents of widows will be paid according to the mode adopted with regard to Half-Pay Officers; after the 5th October 1814, the payments will be made on Wednesdays only.

The documents transmitted by widows residing out of London, or receiving their pensions through Officers of the Revenue, will be acted upon with all practicable dispatch, without regard to the prescribed days of payment.

By order of the Paymaster-General, George Gillam Mills, Cashier of Half-Pay and Widows' Pensions. Navy-Office, August 30, 1814.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers from the 1st January to the 30th June 1814, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On Monday the 5th September, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On Tuesday the 6th and Wednesday the 7th September, to Lieutenants and their Attornies.

On Thursday the 8th and Friday the 9th September, to Masters and Surgeons and their Attornies.

After which the list will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay, but also to produce certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths of Allegiance required by Act of Parliament, to His present Majesty; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like certificates and affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner ner pointed out by the said Act;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of June 1814, will commence paying on the 5th September; and all persons desirous of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

G. Smith, Assistant Secretary.

Navy Pay-Office, London, August 30, 1814.

Otice is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, forty-minth George the Third, chap. 123, I do hereby revoke the licence granted by me, on the 31st December 1812, to Henry Isaacs, late of St. Mary-Street, Portsmouth, now of Love-Lane, Portsea, to act as an agent in the re-ceipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others serving in any of His Majesty's ships; which licence is revoked by me, on the ground of fraud, the said Henry Isaacs having taken on board His Majesty's ship Rinaldo blank powers, with the men's marks, for the sig-GEORGE ROSE. natures of the Officers.

Navy-Office, August 31, 1814. ▼HE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that the contract for advertised to be made on Wednesday the 7th of next month, is put off until further notice.

G. Smith, Assistant Secretary.
