A PROCLAMATION,

For recalling and prohibiting His Majesty's natural-born Subjects from serving in the Sea or Land Forces of the United States of America.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by the ancient law of this realm, founded upon the principles of general law, the natural-born subjects of His Majesty cannot, either by swearing allegiance to other Princes or States, or by any other their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone or concurring with their own, discharge themselves, or be discharged, from the natural allegiance which, from their birth, they owe to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, which natural allegiance being antecedent and paramount to any other claim of allegiance whatsoever, cannot, by these or any other such acts, be withdrawn or cancelled: And whereas it hath been represented to Us, that divers of the natural-born subjects of His Majesty have accepted letters of naturalization, or certificates of citizenship, from the United States of America, and have sworn allegiance to the said States, and professed to renounce the natural allegiance which they owe, and must continue to owe, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, and have, in violation of such natural allegiance, engaged by sea and land, in hostile and traitorous acts against His Majesty: And whereas some of the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty may have been induced so to act, from an erroneous persuasion and belief, which they may have been led to entertain, that their duty of natural allegiance was capable of being dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs and successors; We have, therefore, thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby warning all the natural-born subjects of His Majesty, that the natural allegiance which they owe, and of right ought to bear and pay, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, cannot, either by their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone, or concurrent with their own, be dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs and successors: And We have further thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, in consideration that some of the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty, may, through delusion or error, have so acted as aforesaid, by this Proclamation to publish and declare, that all such the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty who, having so acted, shall, within four months from the date hereof, withdraw themselves from the service of the said United States, shall receive His Majesty's free and gracious pardon: And We do, moreover, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also publish and declare, that all natural-born subjects of His Majesty who shall hereafter voluntarily enter, or, having entered, shall voluntarily continue to serve in the land forces, or on board any of the ships or vessels of war, of the said United States of America, or in the private ships or vessels of war belonging to the citizens of the said States at enmity with His Majesty, being thereby guilty of high treason, shall be punished with the utmost severity of the law.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales;
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects; the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in council assembled, humbly approach your Royal Highness with the warmest sentiments of duty and affection for our revered Sovereign, and of unceasing attachment to His august Family. In the counsels of your Royal Highness, to which we are so deeply indebted for the termination of a war, unparalleled in the range of its devastation and miseries, we recognize with most respectful gratitude, the union of wisdom, moderation, and disinterestedness; and we share in the honest pride of Britons, in reflecting on the envied situation of our country at so eventful a period. Convinced that the permanent felicity of a nation is inseparably connected with its virtues, we humbly beg permission to state the fervent wish of our hearts, that the lustre of England's glory, may never be tarnished by injustice; and that the ultimate decision of all the Allied Powers, being sanctified by a regard to the duties of humanity and of equity, may become the sure means, under the moral government of Divine Providence, of consolidating the safety, and of prolonging the tranquillity of Europe.

Given under our common seal at our Guildhall, the 29th of August, in the year of our Lord 1814.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Oxford and Sir Martin Brown Ffolkes, Bart. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]
