Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales;
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects; the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in council assembled, humbly approach your Royal Highness with the warmest sentiments of duty and affection for our revered Sovereign, and of unceasing attachment to His august Family. In the counsels of your Royal Highness, to which we are so deeply indebted for the termination of a war, unparalleled in the range of its devastation and miseries, we recognize with most respectful gratitude, the union of wisdom, moderation, and disinterestedness; and we share in the honest pride of Britons, in reflecting on the envied situation of our country at so eventful a period. Convinced that the permanent felicity of a nation is inseparably connected with its virtues, we humbly beg permission to state the fervent wish of our hearts, that the lustre of England's glory, may never be tarnished by injustice; and that the ultimate decision of all the Allied Powers, being sanctified by a regard to the duties of humanity and of equity, may become the sure means, under the moral government of Divine Providence, of consolidating the safety, and of prolonging the tranquillity of Europe.

Given under our common seal at our Guildhall, the 29th of August, in the year of our Lord 1814.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Oxford and Sir Martin Brown Ffolkes, Bart. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]
