The Three Plenipotentiaries, viz.

Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod of the Order, in his mantle, and bearing the rod of his office.

Lord Viscount Castlereagh, K. G. in the mantle and collar of the Order, and carrying his cap and feathers in his hand.

Sir Isaac Heard, Knt. Garter Principal King of Arms, in his mantle, bearing his sceptre, and carrying, in his hand, the Sovereign's letter of credence.

The apartments, through which the procession passed, were lined with a detachment of the Imperial body guard; and, on arrival at the Audience Chamber, the Plenipotentiaries were received at the entrance by the Great Chamberlain, the Count de Wurmbbrand, and by him introduced into the presence of His Majesty the Emperor, who was pleased to receive the mission surrounded by His Ministers and Great Officers of State.

Garter, after a short address to His Majesty the Emperor, declaratory of the object of the mission, delivered to Viscount Castlereagh, first, the Sovereign's letter of credence, and then, the commission; both which instruments were severally presented by his Lordship to His Imperial and Royal Majesty, who gave them into the hands of the Prince de Meternich, His Chancellor of State.

The commission having been read aloud by the Prince, the book of the statutes was, by Viscount Castlereagh, presented to the Emperor: and His Imperial and Royal Majesty, thereupon, delivered to his Lordship a certificate, under the Imperial sign manual and great seal, signifying his acceptance of the Order, under the usual reservations; and also an instrument containing His Imperial Majesty's nomination of His proxy, in the event of an installation in the Royal Chapel of St. George, at Windsor.

Garter then presenting the garter, the Plenipotentiaries buckled the same on the left leg of the Emperor; Garter pronouncing the admonition.

His Imperial and Royal Majesty was next invested with the ribband and George, with the usual admonition.

The Plenipotentiaries thereupon invested His Imperial and Royal Majesty with the surcoat and the sword; Garter receiving, as the ancient fee of his office, the sword previously worn by the Emperor.

His Imperial and Royal Majesty was then invested with the mantle and the collar, severally; Garter pronouncing the respective admonitions.

The Plenipotentiaries lastly presented the cap and feathers and the stars of the Order: and, His Imperial and Royal Majesty being thus invested, Garter proclaimed the styles of His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Sovereign, and of His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary and Bohemia, Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Garter having delivered a congratulatory address to His Imperial and Royal Majesty, the Plenipotentiaries withdrew.

Shortly afterwards, His Majesty the Emperor, wearing the ensigns of the Order, was graciously pleased to grant a private audience to the Plenipotentiaries, at which the Gentlemen attached to the Garter Mission, and the English Noblemen and Gentlemen who had attended the ceremony, had the honour of being severally presented to His Imperial and Royal Majesty by Viscount Castlereagh.

Her Imperial and Royal Majesty the Empress and Queen was also graciously pleased, at a private audience, to receive the Plenipotentiaries and the English Noblemen and Gentlemen abovementioned, who had the honour of being severally presented to Her Imperial and Royal Majesty.

IN pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament in the manner therein mentioned; and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:" I do hereby give notice, that the death of the Right Honourable Lord William Stuart, late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the borough of Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan, hath been certified to me in writing under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said borough of Cardiff, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For recalling and prohibiting His Majesty's natural-born Subjects from serving in the Sea or Land Forces of the United States of America.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by the ancient law of this realm, founded upon the principles of general law, the natural-born subjects of His Majesty cannot, either by swearing allegiance to other Princes or States, or by any other their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone or concurring with their own, discharge themselves, or be discharged, from the natural allegiance which, from their birth, they owe to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, which natural allegiance being antecedent and paramount to any other claim of allegiance whatsoever, cannot, by these or any other such acts, be withdrawn or cancelled: And whereas it hath been represented to Us, that divers of the natural-born subjects of His Majesty have accepted letters of naturalization, or certificates of citizenship, from the United States of America, and have sworn allegiance to the said States, and professed to renounce the natural allegiance which they owe, and must continue to owe, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, and have, in violation of such natural allegiance, engaged by sea and land, in hostile and traitorous acts against His Majesty: And whereas some of the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty may have been induced so to act, from an erroneous persuasion and belief, which they may have been led to entertain, that their duty of natural allegiance was capable of being dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs and successors; We have, therefore, thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby warning all the natural-born subjects of His Majesty, that the natural allegiance which they owe, and of right ought to bear and pay, to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, cannot, either by their own acts, or by the acts of any foreign Princes or States, either alone, or concurrent with their own, be dissolved or withdrawn from His Majesty, His heirs or successors: And We have further thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, in consideration that some of the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty, may, through delusion or error, have so acted as aforesaid, by this Proclamation to publish and declare, that all such the said natural-born subjects of His Majesty who, having so acted, shall, within four months from the date hereof, withdraw themselves from the service of the said United States, shall receive His Majesty's free and gracious pardon: And We do, moreover, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also publish and declare, that all natural-born subjects of His Majesty who shall hereafter voluntarily enter, or, having entered, shall voluntarily continue to serve in the land forces, or on board any of the ships or vessels of war, of the said United States of America, or in the private ships or vessels of war belonging to the citizens of the said States at enmity with His Majesty, being thereby guilty of high treason, shall be punished with the utmost severity of the law.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.
