By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P.R.

HEREAS divers mariues now serving in His Majesty's Royal Marine forces did, at the time of their respective enlistments, engage to serve His Majesty for the limited period of seven years, provided His Majesty should so long require their service, and also for such further term, not exceeding six months, as should be directed by the commanding officer on any foreign station, and not exceeding three years, as should be directed by any Proclamation of His Majesty, provided always, that in the latter case the additional period should determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any definitive treaty, should have elapsed subsequent to the expiration of the said seven years; and whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing date the fourth day of February one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, to direct that all marines then serving in His Majesty's Royal Marine forces, who had been enlisted as aforesaid, should continue to serve therein for the term of three years after the expiration of such limited period of seven years; provided always, that the said additional period should determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any definitive treaty should have elapsed subsequent to the expiration of such limited period of service : and whereas the war between His Majesty and the United States of America unhappily continues to exist, and marines enlisting as aforesaid, cannot therefore claim the benefit of this provision, notwithstanding a definitive treaty of peace between His Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty, was signed at Paris on the thirtieth of May last, and the ratification thereof was duly exchanged on the seventeenth of Jane following ; We, taking the same into Our most gracious consideration, have therefore thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to publish this Proclamation; and We do hereby direct that all marines now serving in His Majesty's Royal Marine-Forces, who have been enlisted for such limited period as aforesaid, and whose services were extended by His Majesty's said Proclamation of the fourth day of Febrnary, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, for the further term of three years after the expiration of such limited period as aforesaid, the original period of whose services is not yet expired, shall be entitled to their respective discharges from the expiration of such limited period for which they were so enlisted as aforesaid. And that all marines now serving in His Majesty's Royal Marine forces who have been enlisted for such limited period as aforesaid, and the period of whose services was extended by His Majesty's said Proclamation of the four h day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, for the further term of three years after the expiration of such limited period as aforesaid, and whose original period of service for which they were so enlisted is expired, shall be forthwith enti"ded to their discharges from and immediately after this Our Proclamation, notwithstanding the provisions of His Majesty's Proclamation of the fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, this seventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS divers soldiers, now serving in His Majesty's army, under the provisions of the Mutiny Act, passed in the forty-sixth year - of His Majesty's reign, cap. 66, schedule A. did, at the time of their respective enlistments, engage to serve His Majesty for the limited periods therein respectively expressed, provided His Majesty should so long require the same, and for such further term, not exceeding three years, as should be directed by any Proclamation of His Majesty, provided always that in case of such direction, the said additional period should determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any Definitive Treaty, should have elapsed subsequent to the expiration of such limited periods as aforesaid; and whereas His Ma-jesty was pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing date the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, to direct that all soldiers then serving in His Majesty's army (the Veteran Battalions excepted), who had been enlisted for such limited periods as aforesaid, should continue to serve therein, for the space of three years after the expiration of such limited periods respectively, provided always that the said addi-tional period should determine whenever six months of continued peace, to be reckoned from the ratification of any Definitive Treaty, should have elapsed subsequent to the expiration of such limited periods respectively; and whereas the war between His Majesty and the United States of America, unhappily continues to exist, soldiers enlisting as aforesaid, cannot claim the benefit of this provision, atoresati, cannot claim the benefit of this provision, notwithstanding a Definitive Treaty of Peace, between His Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty was signed at Paris on the thir-tieth of May last, and the ratifications thereof duly exchanged on the seventeenth of Jure following ; We, taking the same into Our most gracious consideration, have therefore thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's. Privy Council, to publish this Proclamation ; and We do hereby direct, that all soldiers now serving in His Majesty's ermy (the Veteran Battalions excepted), who have been enlisted for such limited periods as aforesaid, and whose services were extended by His Majesty's said Proclamation of the thirty-first of July one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for the further term of three years, after the ex-, piration of such limited periods respectively, the original period of whose services is not yet expired, shall be entitled to their respective discharges from the expiration of the several periods for which they were originally enlisted ; and that all soldiers now serving in His Majesty's army (the Veteran Battalions excepted), who have been enlisted for such limited periods as aforesaid, and the periods of whose services were extended by His Majesty's said Proclamation of thirty-first July one thousand eight. hundred and thirteen, for the further term of three years after the expiration of such limited periods respectively, and whose original periods of service. for which they were enlisted are expired, shall be forthwith entitled to their respective discharges. from and immediately after this Our Proclamation, notwithstanding the provisions of His Majesty's. Proclamation of thirty-first July one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, this twenty-fourth day of September one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

A T the Court at Carlton-House, the 24th of September 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, dated the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and eleven, for regulating the trade to and from the Cape of Good Hope, has ceased and determined, the Act under the authority of which the said Order was issued having expired : And whereas by an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, initialed "An Act to continue, until "the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand " eight hundred and sixteen, an Act for regulating " the trade to the Isle of Malta; and to revive " and continue, for the same period, several Acts " relating to the trade to the Cape of Good Hope ; " and to the bringing and landing certain prize "goods in Great Britain," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from the said settlement, and the territories and dependencies thereof, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second,

intituled "An Act for encouraging and increasing | Indies; and that it shall in like manner be lawfol "of shipping and navigation;" or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled " An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating " abuses in the plantation trade;" or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, until further order, for all ships and vessels belonging to the subjects of any Country or State in amity with His Majesty, to enter into the ports of the said settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and of the territories and dependencies thereof, for the purpose of repairs and refreshment only, in which case, a part of the cargoes of such ships and vessels may be permitted to be disposed of for the purpose of defraying the expences of such repairs or refreshment; and that it shall also be lawful for any vessels belonging to the subjects of any Country or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the ports of the Cape of Good Hope, and of the territories and dependencies thereof, any articles of provisions, with the permission of the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope first had and obtained, by licence in writing under his signature, which licence he is hereby empowered to grant: and His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalt of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, is further pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that goods, wares, or merchandise, the growth, produce, or manufacture of the countries to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, legally imported into the said settlement, or into the territories or dependencies thereof, may be exported from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, to the ports of the United Kingdom, subject to the rules and regulations contained in an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, in-tituled "An Act for continuing in the East " India Company, for a further term, the posses-" sion of the British territorics in India, together " with certain exclusive privileges; for establish-" ing further regulations for the government of " the said territories, and the better administration " of justice within the same; and for regulating " the trade to and from the places within the limits " of the said Company's charter," or to any ports or places to which a trade in such articles is permitted to be carried on from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, under the provisions of an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for the further " regulation of the trade to and from the places " within the limits of the charter of the East India " Company," and subject to the rules and regnlations in the said Act contained, in British ships or vessels, or in such ships or vessels that shall have been built within the territories belonging to the East India Company, or in the ports under the immediate protection of the British flag in the East to export from the said settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or its territories or dependencies, in British ships or vessels, or in such ships or vessels that shall have been built within the territories belonging to the East India Company, or in the ports under the immediate protection of the British flag in the East Indies, to any ports or places to which trade may be lawfully carried on from the said settlement or its territories or dependencies, any articles of British or of European produce or manufacture, which shall have been legally im-ported into the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof; provided, however, that nothing in this Order contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to permit a trade in tea between the Cape of Good Hope, or its territories or dependencies, and the countries to the eastward thereof, or from the said settlement, and its territories or dependencies, to the ports of the United Kingdom, nor to permit any vessel under the burthen of three hundred and fifty tons, to export from the said settlement, or the territories or dependencies thereof, to the ports of the United Kingdom, any articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of any countries situated within the limits of the East India Company's charter : and it is His Royal Highness's further pleasure, that the trade and commerce to and from the said settlement, and the territories and dependencies thereof, shall he subject to such of the laws of trade and navigation, and the rules and regulations thereof, as would have affected the same, if this Order had not been made, except so far as such laws are contrary to this present Order.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respec-Jas. Buller. tively appertain.
