

of Stoke-Ferry, in the county of Norfolk, Gentleman, on behalf of James Bradfield Sanders, his eldest son (a minor), His Majesty's royal licence and permission that his said son may, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of James Bradfield, late of Stoke-Ferry aforesaid, Esquire, deceased (father in law of the said Charles Sanders), take and use the surname of Bradfield, in addition to and after that of Sanders, and that he may also bear the arms of Bradfield; provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 15, 1814.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed James Marsh, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, October 22, 1814

WHereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the evening of Friday the 14th day of this instant October, the house of Thomas Garton, situated at New Basford, in the county of Nottingham, was broken into by a number of armed men in disguise, for the purpose of murdering the said Thomas Garton; and whereas it hath been further represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the armed men in question, after forcing their way into the said Thomas Garton's house, fired upon the constable and other persons, therein assembled, by which firing John Kilby, of New Basford aforesaid, was killed, and Garton, brother to the said Thomas Garton, and one of his men were wounded;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the perpetrators of this atrocious outrage and murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired as aforesaid), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Such reward of two hundred pounds to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

Army Pay-Office, November 14, 1814.

Notice is hereby given, by direction of the Right Honourable the Paymaster-General of the Forces, that, on Thursday next the 17th instant, three months pay, from 25th June 1814 to 24th September following, will be issued from this Office, of those General Officers who were previously on the Half-pay Establishment; and that attendance will be given accordingly, every day except Saturday, between the hours of eleven and two, for four weeks, terminating on Wednesday the 14th of December 1814, after which time the days of payment will be Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday only in each week.

George Gillam Mills, Cashier of Half-Pay and Widows' Pensions.

IN obedience to an Order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 3d day of November 1814, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for completing a bridge across the River Thames, from Blackfriars, in the City of London, to the opposite side, in the County of Surrey, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-second year of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the Fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-Bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two of the clock in the afternoon, on the 3d day of May next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, I will pay to the several persons hereinafter named, the several principal sums, in discharge and annihilation of so much money due to them, by virtue of a former Act of Parliament, made in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled "An Act for the relief of the Orphans and other Creditors of the City of London," or such part thereof as by virtue of the said Order of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen they may be entitled to receive, together with all interest due in respect thereof, to the 3d day of May next; and I desire that the said several persons will attend at the time and place above-mentioned, to receive the said principal sums, with interest for the same, as aforesaid; for, from and after the said 3d day of May next, the interest or annual sums of money payable in respect thereof, will cease and determine. And, in obedience to the said Order, I do hereby further give notice, that if the said several persons, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 3d day of May, and will severally declare such their intention, and the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same, in writing, under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning
