The late JOHN PAGET, Esq.

November 18, 1814.

ALL persons who have any claim or demands upon the estate and effects of the late John Paget, Esq. of Penge, in the County of Surrey, deceased, are requested forthwith to send the particulars thereof to Mr. Latter, Solicitor, at Bromley, in Kent, in order that the same may be examined and settled; and all persons who stand indebted to the said estate are desired forthwith to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said Mr. Latter, who is authorised to receive and give discharges for the same.

CAPTAIN JOHN TEMPLE'S ESTATE.

London, November 21, 1814.

Notice is hereby given, that the Executors of the late Captain Temple will attend at the Freemason's Tavern, Great Queen-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, on Thursday the 1st of December next, at Twelve o'Clock precisely, to pay the claims of such persons as have attested their accounts.

Whereas Josiah Baddeley, of Nantwich, in the County of Chester, Gentleman, hath by indenture of lease and release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 2d and 3d. days of November 1814, conveyed, assigned, and transferred all his real and personal estate and effects unto Richard Elwood, of Nantwich aforesaid, Gentleman, and William Tomlinson the younger, of the same place, Gentleman, their heirs, executors, and administrators, in trust for the benefit of all his creditors; notice is therefore hereby given, that the said deed of conveyance and assignment now lies at the Office of Messrs. Eddlestone and Elwood, Solicitors, in Nantwich aforesaid, for the inspection and execution of the Creditors of the said Josiah Baddeley; and such of them as shall neglect or refuse to execute the same, or signify their assent thereto, in writing, to the said Trustees, or one of them, on or before the 1st day of April next, will be debarred and excluded from all benefit and advantage arising therefrom.

ALL persons having any claim or demands on the estate of the late Mr. Sampson Lucas, Merchant, of Haydon-Square, deceased, are desired to transmit the particulars of the same to the Executors, that they may be discharged; and all persons indebted to the estate are desired to pay their respective debts to the said Executors, at Messrs. Micholls and Lucas, No. 15, Haydon-Square, Minorities.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Lancaster, November 10, 1814.

ALL persons who have any demands against the estate of Edmund Rigby, late of Ellel Grange, in the County of Lancaster, Esq. are hereby required to deliver accounts thereof, and of the nature of their securities (if any) which they hold for the same, to Thomas Giles, of Lancaster, Esq. the surviving Trustee of the estate, before or on the 2d day of January next, or they will be excluded all benefit arising from the trust estate.

THOMAS BARTLETT, Esq. deceased.

ALL persons who have any just claims or demands on the estate of Thomas Bartlett, heretofore of Penny-Street, Portsmouth, and late of Shenley-Hill, in the County of Hertford, Esq. deceased, are desired forthwith to send in the particulars of the same to the Executrix, Mrs. Bartley, of Shenley-Hill aforesaid, or to the Executor, Mr. A. King, No. 8, Castle-Street, Holborn, London.

BY virtue of an Order, obtained from the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colonies of Demerary and Essequibo, bearing date the 26th instant 1814; I the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said Colony, will expose for sale unto the highest bidder, in presence of the Honourable Counsellor Commissaries of said Court of Justice, and thier Secretary, on the 15th day of November next, on the premises, the sugar plantation Windsor Forest, situated on the west sea coast of Demerary River, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances; an inventory whereof is now lying at the Marshal's Office, for the inspection of those whom it may concern.

Whoever shall conceive to have any right, title, or claim on the beforementioned plantation, cum annexis, and intends to oppose the sale thereof, let such person or persons address themselves to me, at the Marshal's Office of this Colony, stating their reasons for such opposition, in due time and form; and I do hereby give notice, that I will receive such opposition from any person thereunto qualified, appoint him or them a day to have such claim or claims heard before the Honourable Court of Justice, and further act therein as the law directs.—Demerary and Essequibo, September 30, 1814.

A. M. MEERTENS, Deputy First Marshal.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Cotton against Serancke, it was, amongst other things, ordered, that it should be referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court, who was or were the next of kin of Ann Rigby, late of Rodney-Street, Pentonville, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, the late wife of Thomas Rigby, of the same place, Gentleman (which happened on or about the 5th day of November 1811), and if any of them were since dead, who was or were his, her, or their personal representative or representatives.—The person or persons claiming to be such next of kin, or the representative or representatives of such of them as may have died since the said Ann Rigby, are peremptorily to come in and make out his, her, or their kindred and representation before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 17th day of December 1814.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hannam against King, the Creditors of Aaron Warren Hannam, (who was sometime called Aaron Hannam only,) late of Free-School-Street, in the Parish of St. John, Southwark, in the County of Surrey, Gentleman, deceased, (who died on or about the 3d day of July 1806),
