TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1814.

Westminster, November 26, 1814.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Deputy Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for declaring His Majesty's Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do hereby give the immediate attendance of the Honourable House, for the House of Lords to hear the Commission read, and the same being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for the encouragement and reward of petty officers, seamen, and royal marines, for long and faithful service, and for the consolidation of the chest at Greenwich with the Royal Hospital there.

An Act for directing the application of the residuary personal estate of Anna Maria Reynolds, spinster, bequeathed by her to the use of the Sinking Fund.

Whitehall, November 24, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto the undermentioned Officers, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that they may respectively accept and wear the insignia of an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal has honoured them, in testimony of the high sense which that Prince entertains of the distinguished courage and intrepidity displayed by those Officers in several actions with the enemy in the Peninsula; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the respectively royal concessions and declarations, together with the relative documents, be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms:

Thomas Bradford, Esq. Major-General in the Army.

Charles Ashworth, Esq. Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, and Brigadier-General in the Portuguese Service.

Whitehall, November 24, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Francis Banks, Esq. Captain in the Royal Navy, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of the Imperial Russian Order of St. Anne, of the second class, and of a Knight of the Royal Swedish Military Order of the Sword, which their Imperial and Royal Majesties the Emperor of Russia and the King of Sweden have been respectively pleased to confer upon the said Captain Banks, in testimony of the high sense entertained by those Sovereigns of his bravery, and of the services rendered by him in the blockade of the River Elbe during the operations before Hamburgh, and at the siege of the fortress of Gluckstadt; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms;

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Borough of Bletchingley.

John Bolland, of Mark-Lane, London, and of Clapham, in the county of Surrey, Merchant, in the room of William Kenrick, Esq. who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

By Command of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Notice is hereby given, that, by an Act of Parliament passed in the fifty-fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of the several ports, harbours, roadsteads, sounds, channels, bays, and navigable rivers, in the United Kingdom; and of His Majesty's docks, dock-yards, arsenals, wharfs, moorings, and stores therein; and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose," it is enacted, Sect. 11.—That, if the owner, master, or other person having the charge or command of any private ship of war, transport, or other private merchant ship, or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft whatsoever; or any person working any quarry, mine, or pit, near to the sea, or to any such harbour, haven, or navigable river, or any other person or persons whatsoever, shall cast, throw, empty, or unlade, or cause or procure to be cast, thrown, emptied, or unladen, either from or out of any such ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft; or from the shore any ballast, stone, slate, gravel, earth, rubbish, wreck, or filth, into any of such ports, roads, roadsteads, harbours, havens, or navigable rivers of this kingdom; (so as to tend to the injury or obstruction of the navigation thereof, or in any place, or situation on shore, where the same shall be liable to be washed into the sea, or into any such ports, roads, roadsteads, harbours, havens, or navigable rivers; every person so offending, shall forfeit and pay, a sum not exceeding ten pounds, besides all expences, to be incurred in removing to a proper place, what may have been so deposited contrary to the Act.

And this penalty and expences are, by the 21st section of the Act, declared to be recoverable before a Commissioner of His Majesty's Navy, or a Justice of the Peace, who are empowered, on nonpayment thereof, to commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction for three months; and, by the same section, one moiety of the penalty is directed to be paid to the person giving information of the offence.

J. W. CROKER.

Admiralty-Office, November 10, 1814.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Tuesday the 13th of December next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

London, November 21, 1814.

Notice is hereby given, that the Executors of the late Captain Temple will attend at the Freemason's Tavern, Great Queen-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, on Thursday the 1st of December next, at Twelve o'Clock precisely, to pay the claims of such persons as have attested their accounts.

ESTATE OF GEORGE CRAWFORD, Esq. deceased.

ALL persons who have any claims or demands upon the estate and effects of George Crawford, late of King's-Langley, in the County of Hertford, Esq. deceased, are requested forthwith to send the particulars thereof, to Mr. William Walton, at Girdlers-Hall, Basinghall-Street, London, in order that the same may be examined and settled.

BY virtue of an Order, obtained from the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colonies of Demerary and Essequibo, bearing date the 26th instant 1814; I the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said Colony, will expose for sale unto the highest bidder, in presence of the Honourable Counsellor, Commissioners of said Court of Justice, and their Secretary, on the 15th day of November next, on the premises, the sugar plantation Windsor Forest, situated on the west sea coast of Demerary River, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appur-tenancies; an inventory whereof is now lying at the Marshal's Office, for the inspection of those whom it may concern.

Whoever shall conceive to have any right, title, or claim on the beforementioned plantation, cum annexis, and intends to oppose the sale thereof, let such person or persons address themselves to me, at the Marshal's Office of this Colony, stating their reasons for such opposition, in due time and form; and I do hereby give notice, that I will receive such opposition from any person thereunto qualified; appoint him or them a day to have such claim or claims heard before the Honourable Court of Justice, and further act therein as the law directs.—Demerary and Essequebo, September 30, 1814.

A. M. MEERTENS, Deputy First Marshal.

BERBICE.

From the Marshal's Office.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

BY virtue of an appointment from His Excellency the Governor, under date of 21st September 1814, given upon a petition presented by J. H. L. Maurenhoecher, as the attorney of Rongcomont and Behrends, of London;

Notice is hereby given to the public, that I the undersigned, intend to sell, at public execution sale, and in the presence of two Councillors Commissaries and their Secretary, in the month of November 1815, the precise day hereafter to be notified through the Gazette of this colony, the coffee-estate called Vrienschap, situate in the middle river of this colony, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances thereto belonging, and of which an inventory is to be seen at this Office; said plantation being the property of George Panels.

Whoever should think to have any right, action, or interest in the aforesaid estate Vrienschap, and wishes to oppose the execution sale thereof, let such persons address themselves to the undersigned, in writing, and in due time and form; as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every intermediate person, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act thereon as the law directs.

This first proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, the 25th September 1814.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.
