Admiralty-Office, December 13, 1814.

REAR-ADMIRAL GRIFFITH has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. a letter from Captain Sir George Collier, of His Majesty's ship Leander, giving an account of his having, on the 8th of last month, captured, off Cape Sable, the American privateer schooner General Putnam, of eight guns and fifty-seven men. Her guns were thrown overboard during this and a former chase, the vessel having been pursued by eleven different cruisers previously to her being fallen in with by the Leander:

And also a letter from Captain Stanfell, of His Majesty's ship Bacchante, reporting his having, on the 1st November, taken the American brig privateer M'Donough, of five guns and seventy-one men, out twenty-four hours from Portsmouth.

War-Office, December 13, 1814.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to approve of the 28th Regiment being permitted to bear on its colours and appointments (in addition to any other badges or devices that may have been heretofore granted to that regiment), the word "Barrosa," in commemoration of the distinguished gallantry displayed by that regiment in the action of Barrosa, on the 5th March 1811.
