TUESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1814.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of December 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, bearing date the tenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for the payment of the bounties for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy, and the rewards for discovering seamen who may conceal themselves, so that such seamen should be taken for His Majesty's service, and also the rewards to persons who should procure the voluntary service of able and ordinary seamen and landmen, fit for His Majesty's Naval Service, and should convey such seamen and landmen on board any of His Majesty's ships and vessels, or to any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, will expire on the thirty-first day of this instant December; which bounties and rewards are as follows, that is to say; To every able seaman, not above the age of fifty, nor under the age of twenty years, who should enter himself to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, a bounty of five pounds; and to every ordinary seaman so entering himself, and not above the age of fifty, nor under the age of twenty years, a bounty of two pounds ten shillings; to every able-bodied landman, not above the age of thirty-five, nor under the age of eighteen years, so entering himself, a bounty of thirty shillings; to every person or persons who shall discover any able or ordinary seaman or seamen who may have concealed him or themselves, so that such seaman or seamen shall be taken for His Majesty's service by any of His Majesty's officers employed to raise men, a reward of three pounds for every such able seaman, and fifty shillings for every such ordinary seaman fit to serve on board His Majesty's ships; to any person or persons who shall procure the voluntary service of able or ordinary seamen or landmen fit for His Majesty's service, and shall convey them on board any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, or to any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, a reward of three guineas for every such able seaman, and two guineas for every such ordinary seaman, and one guinea for every such landman, together with an allowance at the rate of one penny per mile for each able seaman, ordinary seaman, and landman, for every mile such man may respectively travel to the nearest of His Majesty's ships of war, or nearest place of residence of any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, provided such man shall be found fit for His Majesty's service, and there shall not be reason to suppose he is an apprentice: And whereas it is expedient, that the said several bounties, rewards, and travelling allowance, should be continued to be paid for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the payment of the said bounties, rewards, and travelling allowance, be continued to the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, inclusive; and that the same be paid in the manner specified in His Majesty's several proclamations now in force for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy, and for the discovering seamen who may conceal themselves, and for giving rewards for procuring the voluntary service of seamen and landmen; whereof all persons concerned are to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of December 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: and whereas the port of Liverpool has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Liverpool is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Chetwynd.

The Honourable Thomas Hamilton, commonly called Lord Binning, in the room of Charles Trelawny Brereton, Esq. who has accepted the office of Steward of East Hendred.

Whitehall, December 10, 1814.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Saturday evening the 3d instant, about seven o'clock, the body of Mr. Thomas Putnam, who had been shot through the head, was discovered lifeless in Greenwich Park; and that from the circumstance of no pistol or gun having been found near the body, and of his death having been clearly occasioned by a ball fired from a gun or pistol, there is every reason to believe he has been murdered;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in such murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired such gun or pistol), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Such reward of one hundred guineas to be paid by the inhabitants of the parish of Greenwich.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE,

December 20, 1814.

Pursuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £65 and under £66 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, Matt. Winter, Secretary.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
June 18, 1814.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that at Salters'-Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 4th day of January next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undernamed farms will be let on leases, to commence upon the several days, and for the terms of years hereinafter respectively mentioned, that is to say, Goosewell Farm, for a term of twenty-one years, and Wan'hwate Mill and ground, for a term of thirteen years, from the 5th of April next; Eddy Field West and Eddy Field East Farms, Castlehead Field, Eddy Wood Field, Eskinbeck West, Eskinbeck East, Grassing Wood, Castlehead, Watson's Park, Fisher's Park North, Fisher's Park South, Willyhow Park North, Willyhow Park South, Horse Close, South Strands Hag, North Strands Hag, Little Cockshot, South Headsmire, Middle Headsmire, North Headsmire, North Crow Park, and South Crow Park Farms, all in the manor of Castle-rigg and Derwentwater, in the parish of Crosthwaite, and county of Cumberland, for the term of seven years, from the 5th of April next.

Such persons as may be desirous of taking any of the said farms, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof shall not be later than Tuesday the 3d day of January next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day, will be returned as inadmissible.

Mr. Thomas Dixon, of Keswick, will shew the farms and furnish the necessary particulars; and Messrs. Forster and Wailes, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will, upon being applied to, give such further information as it may be proper to require.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissary in Chief's-Office, Great George-Street, November 28, 1814.

Notice is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army, viz.

Rape Seed	8	2	2
Oatmeal	1	5	9	Average price per bell on the last six weeks.
Oats	1	5	6
				Average price per quarter on the last twelve weeks.

And do hereby order and direct, that the said general average prices be published in the London Gazette once in four several weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON, Clerk of the Peace.

ALL persons having any claims or demands on the estate and effects of William Tireman, late of Oakley-Street, Lambeth, in the County of Surrey, deceased, a Captain in His Majesty's service, and formerly of the City of York, are hereby required forthwith to deliver in the particulars thereof to Messrs. Pinkett and Son, No. 8, Essex-Court, Temple, Solicitors for the executors of the said William Tireman; and all persons in any way indebted to the estate of the said William Tireman are hereby forthwith directed to pay the same to Messrs. Pinkett and Son, for and on account of the said executors.

Monsieur JEROME VALENTINE LANTIRY DU RESTE, of Pointivy, in France, Merchant, deceased.

ALL persons who have any demands against the estate of the late Mr. Du Reste are desired to furnish the particulars thereof, within one month from this day, to Messrs. Darke, Church, and Darke, Princes-Street, Bedford-Row, Solicitors to the Administrator, in order that the same may be investigated and adjusted; and all claims not then furnished will be considered as abandoned; and the Administrator will proceed to distribute the estate and effects according to law.—Dated the 20th December 1814.

MR. MEEK'S DEED OF TRUST.

Notice is hereby given, that a meeting of the Trustees and Creditors of Richard Meek, of Duustall, in the County of Stafford, Esq. will be held at the White Hart, in Burton-upon-Trent, on Tuesday the 10th day of January next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Trustees compounding with, or paying in full the few creditors who refuse to execute the deed of trust, and on other matters relating to the estate of the said Richard Meek.
