MEMORANDUM.

Whitehall, January 6, 1815.

IN the Supplement to Tuesday's Gazette, in the third article of the 1st column of page 17, after the words "exceed seventy-two," add "exclusive of the Sovereign."

The name of Admiral George Montagu should have appeared in the said Supplement, as a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath; and the name of Rear-Admiral George Burlington should also have appeared in the list of Knights Commanders of the said Order.

Whitehall, January 6, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, having taken into consideration the eminent services which have been rendered to the Empire by the Officers in the service of the Honourable East India Company, has been pleased to ordain, that fifteen of the most distinguished Officers of the said service, holding commissions from His Majesty not below the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, may be raised to the dignity of Knights Commanders of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, exclusive of the number of Knights Commanders belonging to His Majesty's forces by sea and land, who have been nominated by the Ordinance bearing date the 2d instant: and His Royal Highness has been graciously pleased to ordain, that the said Officers of the East India Company's service shall enjoy all and singular the rights, privileges, and immunities secured to the Second Class of the said Most Honourable Order; and that they shall be governed by the rules and ordinances now established, or hereafter to be established by His Majesty, His heirs and successors, for the government of the Knights Commanders of the Bath.

But in the event of future wars, and of actions of signal distinction, the said number of fifteen may be increased by the appointment of Officers who shall be eligible according to the established regulations and restrictions.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been further pleased to ordain, that certain Officers of the East India Company's service, holding His Majesty's commission, may be appointed Companions of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, in consideration of eminent services rendered in action with the enemy; and the said Officers shall enjoy all the rights, privileges, and immunities secured to the Third Class of the said Order; and shall be governed by the regulations and restrictions established with regard to the nomination and government of the Companions of the said Most Honourable Order.

Whitehall, January 10, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto John Marshall, Esq. Post Captain in the Royal Navy, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of the Imperial Russian Order of St. George, of the fourth class, and of a Knight of the Royal Swedish Military Order of the Sword, with which their Imperial and Royal Majesties the Emperor of All the Russias and the King of Sweden have respectively honoured him, in testimony of the high sense which those Sovereigns entertain of his bravery and services during the siege of Gluckstadt, and at the blockade of Hamburg and Haarbours; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration, together with the relative documents, be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.
