

him, in testimony of the high sense which those Sovereigns entertain of his bravery and services during the siege of Gluckstadt, and at the blockade of Hamburg and Haarbours; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration, together with the relative documents, be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Admiralty-Office, January 7, 1815.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given to those whom it may concern, that information has been received at this Office, that the Twee Gebroeders, of Grote Veen, whereof Fikke Benneds Speyard is Master, in the prosecution of her voyage from Leer, bound to London, with a cargo of oats, broke from her moorings on the coast of Norfolk, on the night of the 28th ultimo, and drifted on the coast of Lincolnshire, and was found by the Master (who had previously gone on shore at Hunstanton, in Norfolk, for a pilot) without any person being on board her, and part of her cargo washed away.

JOHN BARROW.

Transport-Office, January 7, 1815.

Notice is hereby given to all British subjects lately detained as prisoners of war in France, who may have any claims on the French Government on account of arrears of subsistence due to them at the time of their release, that upon their transmitting to this Office a statement, specifying their Christian and surname, rank, and place of detention, and the amount of their respective claims, proper measures will be taken to procure the recovery of such arrears.

Exchequer Bill Office, January 10, 1815.

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Month of December 1813, viz. on Aids 1813, 53 Geo. 3. cap. 42; Vote of Credit 1813, £5,000,000, 53 Geo. 3. cap. 161,

TO BE PAID OFF.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Friday the 27th day of January instant, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Monday the 23d of January instant, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to place each description of bills in separate lists (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 27th day of January inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers (being holders or not) are indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of each separate list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 27th day of January, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before the 23d instant, may be accommodated with new bills, carrying an interest of three pence halfpenny by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 27th day of January, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Saturday the 29th day of January, and the following days.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to December 1813, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.
