Admiralty-Office, December 22, 1814.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and in pursuance of the power vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, to issue an Order in Council for improving the system by which Pensions from the Chest and Royal Hospital at Greenwich have hitherto been granted on account of Wounds, Hits, Sickness, or Debility, and for extending to the Petty and Non-Commissioned Offters and Men, even though not disabled, the benefit of Pensions adequate to their length of service, and to the rank they may have borne in His Majesty's Navy.

The Fleet will see, by the Scale hereunto subjoined, that the ancient practice of Smart Money is continued, and that the Pensions hitherto granted from the Chest are also continued, with some variations, beneficial to the general interests of the Seamen and Marines:—that the Pensions heretofore granted from Greenwich Hospital to worn-out and disable Seamen upon uncertain principles, are now reduced to a fixed and more equitable system, in which the nature of the injuries received, and the meritorious services of the different classes of men respectively, have been carefully considered and adequately recompensed:—that a new and most important benefit has been extended to the Service; namely, that every man who may be discharged after Fourteen Years faithful service, even though he should not be disabled, has a right to claim a Pension, liberally proportioned to the number of years he may have served—and that after Twenty-one Years Service, every man, in addition to a Pension of at least One Shilling per diem, may demand his free discharge from the Navy.

The Fleet will also observe the great reward and encouragement which the scale affords to those valuable classes of men the Petty and Non-Commissioned Officers, between whom and persons of inferior ratings no difference had been hitherto made, but who will now receive a reward proportioned to the length and the merit of their respective services.

In communicating this measure to the Fleet, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty cannot but express their conviction that it will be attended with the most beneficial effects, as well to the public service as to the individual interests of the Petty and Non-Commissioned Officers, the Seamen, and Royal Marines; the duration of whose services, and the amount of whose rewards, will be no longer uncertain and variable; every man will know to what benefit he may be entitled, and he will feel that nothing but misconduct on his own part can deprive him of an honourable provision for his future life.

By Command of their Lordships,
J. W. CROKER.

SCALE OF PENSIONS

For the Seamen of His Majesty's Fleet and Royal Marines, and Rules and Regulations for the Granting, Continuing, or Rescinding the same

I. Of Gratuities and Pensions to Men Wounded or Hurt.

Every seaman, landman, boy, or royal marine, wounded or hurt in His Majesty's service, shall receive a sum of money in the nature of Smart Money as heretofore.

Every seaman, landman, boy, or royal marine, discharged from His Majesty's service on account of wounds or hurts received therein, shall be entitled to receive a pension proportioned to his wounds or hurts, of not less than sixpence per diem, and not more than one shilling and sixpence per diem.

II. Of Pensions to Men discharged for Sickness or Debility.

Every able seaman discharged for sickness or debility from His Majesty's service, after having served seven years (or before he shall have served seven years, if the special circumstances of his case shall seem to deserve such indulgence), shall be entitled to a pension of not less than five-pence per diem, nor more than ten-pence, according to the following scale:

If incapable of contributing to earn a livelihood—Ten-pence.

If disabled, but capable of contributing something towards his livelihood—Eight-pence.

If disabled, but capable of materially assisting himself—Six-pence.

If unfit for service, but able to earn a livelihood—Five-pence.

If his length of service exceeds fourteen years, but is less than twenty-one, not less than eight-pence, nor more than one shilling and three-pence per diem, according to the following scale:

If incapable of contributing to earn a livelihood—One Shilling and Three-pence.

If disabled, but capable of contributing something towards his livelihood—One Shilling.

If disabled, but capable of materially assisting himself—Ten-pence.

If unfit for service, but able to earn a livelihood—Eight-pence.

Every seaman, landman, or royal marine, discharged for wounds or hurts, and every able seaman discharged for sickness or debility, whatever be the nature or extent of the injury, after twenty-one years service, a pension of one shilling and sixpence per diem.

All the foregoing pensions may be granted for one year or more, or for life, as the effect of the wound or hurt, or the sickness or debility may appear permanent or temporary.

III. Of Pensions for Length of Service.

Every able seaman who shall be discharged, not for wounds, hurts, sickness or debility, but on a reduction of the fleet, who shall have faithfully served fourteen years, and less than twenty-one, shall receive a pension of one halfpenny per diem, for every year of such service.

Every able seaman who shall have completed twenty-one years service, shall, even though not disabled, be entitled to his free discharge, and a pension of one shilling per diem, on the first subsequent arrival of the ship, in which he may be serving at a Pay-port in England.

Every able seaman who after having served twenty-one years, shall choose to continue his service, shall receive one halfpenny per diem for every year of such additional service; and may claim his free discharge, and his increased pension, at the conclusion of each additional year, or the first subsequent arrival of the ship in which he may be serving, at a Pay-port in England, provided, however, that the whole pension shall never exceed one shilling and sixpence per diem.

IV. Of Ordinary Seamen and Landmen.

In all the scales of the foregoing paragraphs, in which the rates are those to which an able seaman is entitled, the rates for ordinary seamen are to be four-fifths of the able seaman's rate, and those for landmen are to be three-fifths of an able seaman's rate, but no seaman shall be pensioned as able or ordinary, unless he shall have served one-third of his whole time of service in the higher rating, but all service in the higher rating, if not sufficient to entitle the individual to a higher pension, is nevertheless to be allowed as time of service, for the inferior rating and pension.

After twenty-one years service, ordinary seamen and landmen are also to be entitled to their free discharge, and to an addition to their pension according to their rating, for every additional year for which they may choose to continue in the service.

V. Of the Royal Marines.

Privates of the royal marines shall be entitled as landmen, if their length of service falls short of fourteen years, and as ordinary seamen when it shall exceed that period.

After twenty-one years service they are also to be entitled to their free discharge, and to an addition to their pension, at the rate of an ordinary seaman for every additional year they may choose to continue in the service.

VI. Of Boys.

Boys, in cases of sickness or debility, shall be pensioned as landmen: but boys' time shall not be reckoned in computing the pension for length of service, and of persons brought up from boys in His Majesty's service; man's time shall commence from the age of eighteen years.

VII. Of Pensions to Petty and Non-Commissioned Officers.

That the petty and non-commissioned officers (rope-maker, ship's corporal, captain of tops, captain of after-guard, captain of masts, corporal of marines), shall receive, in addition to the rates of pension to which their service, as seamen, landmen, or marines, would entitle them, one farthing per diem for each year of their service as such petty or non-commissioned officer.

That the petty and non-commissioned officers (clerk, schoolmaster, armourer, master at arms, carpenter's-mate, caulker, quarter-master, Boat-swain's-mate, sailmaker, gunner's-mate, yeoman of powder room, ditto of sheets, coxswain, quarter-master's-mate, captain of fore-castle, serjeant of marines) shall be entitled to one halfpenny per diem, in addition to the rate of pension to which their services as seamen, landmen, or marines, would entitle them.

VIII. Of Pensions to Warrant Officers.

If it shall at any time please the King in Council, to grant to any of the warrant-officers (boat-swain, gunner, carpenter, purser, master, surgeon, surgeon's assistant, master's-mate, midshipman), on account of wounds or hurts received in His Majesty's service, a pension on the ordinary estimate of the navy, such officer or person shall not be entitled to any pension from Greenwich Hospital.

IX. Of Discharged Men Re-entering.

If a man, after being regularly discharged, shall re-enter His Majesty's service, he shall be entitled, in computing his ultimate rate of pension, to the addition of his subsequent, to his former service.

X. Of the Forfeiture of Pensions.

As all these pensions are intended for the encouragement and reward of good and faithful conduct in the seamen and marines, all claim thereto may be barred and forfeited—

1st. By such misconduct of the individual as shall induce the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, to order the said pensions to be withheld or refused.

2d. By desertion or running from His Majesty's service; and if any deserter shall be retaken or shall re-enter His Majesty's service, he shall commence a new time from the date of such subsequent entry, and shall not be entitled to reckon any time preceding such desertion or running, except the R. shall have been previously removed, by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

3d. By sentence of a Court-martial.

4th. Pensioners who shall not have been discharged as wholly incapable, or for having served twenty-one years or upwards, or whose age shall not exceed fifty years, may forfeit their pensions by neglecting or omitting to attend at such port or place, and at such time, as shall, in time of war, or in prospect of a war, be appointed for the assembling of the pensioners, by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or by neglecting or refusing to serve His Majesty in such manner as to the said Lords Commissioners may seem proper, except when such neglect or omission to appear, or such neglect or refusal to serve, shall be accounted for by reasonable excuse, to be admitted by the said Lords Commissioners.

All the foregoing pensions shall be paid by quarterly payments, but no fractional part of a shilling shall be payable at any such payment.

N. B. It is not intended to make any alteration in pensions already granted; except that petty and non-commissioned officers discharged since 30th April, 1814, may receive the additional allowance to which they would now under this regulation be entitled.

Transport-Office, January 7, 1815.

Notice is hereby given to all British subjects lately detained as prisoners of war in France, who may have any claims on the French Government on account of arrears of subsistence due to them at the time of their release, that upon their transmitting to this Office a statement, specifying their Christian and surname, rank, and place of detention, and the amount of their respective claims, proper measures will be taken to procure the recovery of such arrears.
