CLOCKS AND WATCHES.

Office of the Company of Clockmakers of the City of London, Clement's-Lane, Lombard-Street, January 9, 1815.

Notice is hereby given, that seizures of clocks and watches having very lately been made at the Custom-House, in consequence of the name of the maker being placed upon the dial plate only, or upon a name plate, instead of being engraven upon the movement thereof, conformable to the Act in that case made and provided; for the information of the trade at large, and to prevent the recurrence of similar seizures, the Court of Assistants of the Company of Clockmakers of the City of London have directed so much of the said Act as relates to the exportation of clocks and watches to be published, as follows:

9th and 10th William Third, Cap. 28.

"That no person or persons whatsoever shall export, or send or endeavour to export, or send out of this kingdom of England, dominion of Wales, or town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, any outward or inward box, case, or dial plate of gold, silver, brass, or other metal, for clock or watch, without the movement in or with every such box, case, or dial plate made up fit for use, with the clock or watch-maker's name engraven thereon."

By order of the Court,

George Atkins, Clerk to the Company.

London, January 16, 1815.

Notice is hereby given to the officers and companies of His Majesty's ships Venerable, J. A. Worth, Esq. Captain, and Cyane, J. Forest, Esq. Captain, who were actually on board at the capture of the French frigate Alcméne, on the 16th January, and of the Iphigenie, on the 20th January 1814, that they will be paid their respective proportions of 30,000l. on account of three fourths of the hulls and stores of said prizes, on Monday the 23d instant; and all shares not then received will be recalled every Monday and Thursday, for three months, at No. 28, Abchurch-Lane.
