AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of December 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, made and passed in the forty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for authorising His Majesty, in Council, to allow during the present war, and for six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, the importation and exportation of certain goods and commodities, in neutral ships, into and from His Majesty's territories in the West Indies and Continent of South America," it was enacted, that, from and after the passing of the said Act, it should and might be lawful for His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, by and with the advice of His and their Privy Council, to permit, or to authorise the Governors of the said islands and territories, in such manner and under such restrictions as to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, should seem fit, to permit, when the necessity of the case should appear to His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, to require it, from time to time during the present war, and for six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, the importation into, and the exportation from, any island in the West Indies (in which description the Bahama Islands, and the Bermuda or Somer Islands, are included), or any lands or territories on the Continent of South America to His Majesty belonging, of any such articles, goods, and commodities as should be mentioned in such Order of His Majesty in Council, in any ships or vessels belonging to the subjects of any State in amity with His Majesty, in such manner as His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, by and with the advice aforesaid, should direct: provided such ships or vessels should duly enter into, report, and deliver their respective cargoes, and reload at such ports only, where regular custom-houses should have been established:

And whereas the said Act has been continued by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, until the expiration of six months after the conclusion of the present hostilities:

And whereas it appears, at present, to be necessary to permit, for a limited time, the importation into, and exportation from the islands and territories of His Majesty in the West Indies (including the Bahama Islands, and the Bermuda or Somer Islands), and the lands and territories on the Continent of South America, to His Majesty belonging, of certain articles, goods, and commodities hereinafter mentioned, in any ships or vessels belonging to the subjects of any state in amity with His Majesty; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and doth hereby order, that the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors of His Majesty's islands and colonies in the West Indies (in which description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands are included), and of any lands or territories on the Continent of South America, to His Majesty belonging, and each and every such Governors and Lieutenant-Governors shall be authorised, and they, and each and every of them, are hereby authorised to permit, for six months from the date hereof, in any ships or vessels belonging to the subjects of any State in amity with His Majesty, the importation into the said islands, colonies, lands, and territories respectively, of corn, grain, meal, flour, bran, biscuit, pulse, rice, horses, mules, neat-cattle, sheep, hogs, and every other species of live stock and live provisions; and also the exportation from the said islands, colonies, lands, and territories respectively, into which such importation as aforesaid shall be made, of rum and molasses, and of any other articles, goods, and commodities whatsoever, except sugar, indigo, cotton wool, coffee, and cocoa; provided always, that such articles so to be imported shall be of the growth or produce of the country to which the ship or vessel importing the same shall belong; provided also, that such ships or vessels shall duly enter into, report, and deliver their respective cargoes, and reload at such ports only where regular custom-houses shall have been established: But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, and His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, is further pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to permit the importation of corn, grain, meal, flour, bran, biscuit, pulse, rice, horses, mules, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, or any other species of live stock and live provisions, into any of the said islands, lands, or territories, in which there shall not be, at the time when such articles shall be brought for importation, the following duties on such articles, being of the growth or produce of the United States of America, viz:

	Current Money of Jamaica.
On wheat flour per barrel, not weighing more than one hundred and ninety-six pounds net weight -	0 6 8
On bread or biscuit of wheat flour, or any other grain, per barrel, not weighing more than one hundred pounds net weight -	0 3 4
On bread, for every hundred pounds made from wheat or any other grain whatever, imported in bags or other packages than barrels, weighing as aforesaid -	0 3 4
On flour or meal, made from rye, pease, beans, Indian corn, or other grain than wheat, per barrel, not weighing more than one hundred and ninety-six pounds -	0 3 4
On pease, beans, rye, Indian corn, callivancies, or other grain, per bushel -	0 0 10
On rice, for every one hundred pounds net weight -	0 3 4
And so in proportion for a less or larger quantity.
Horses, neat cattle, or other live stock, for every one hundred pounds of the value thereof, at the port or place of importation -	10 0 0

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of December 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, bearing date the tenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for the payment of the bounties for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy, and the rewards for discovering seamen who may conceal themselves, so that such seamen should be taken for His Majesty's service, and also the rewards to persons who should procure the voluntary service of able and ordinary seamen and landmen, fit for His Majesty's Naval Service, and should convey such seamen and landmen on board any of His Majesty's ships and vessels, or to any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, will expire on the thirty-first day of this instant December; which bounties and rewards are as follows, that is to say; To every able seaman, not above the age of fifty, nor under the age of twenty years, who should enter himself to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, a bounty of five pounds; and to every ordinary seaman so entering himself, and not above the age of fifty, nor under the age of twenty years, a bounty of two pounds ten shillings; to every able-bodied landman, not above the age of thirty-five, nor under the age of eighteen years, so entering himself, a bounty of thirty shillings; to every person or persons who shall discover any able or ordinary seaman or seamen who may have concealed him or themselves, so that such seaman or seamen shall be taken for His Majesty's service by any of His Majesty's officers employed to raise men, a reward of three pounds for every such able seaman, and fifty shillings for every such ordinary seaman fit to serve on board His Majesty's ships; to any person or persons who shall procure the voluntary service of able or ordinary seamen or landmen fit for His Majesty's service, and shall convey them on board any of His Majesty's ships, or vessels, or to any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, a reward of three guineas for every such able seaman, and two guineas for every such ordinary seaman, and one guinea for every such landman, together with an allowance at the rate of one penny per mile for each able seaman, ordinary seaman, and landman, for every mile such man may respectively travel to the nearest of His Majesty's ships of war, or nearest place of residence of any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, provided such man shall be found fit for His Majesty's service, and there shall not be reason to suppose he is an apprentice: And whereas it is expedient, that the said several bounties, rewards, and travelling allowance, should be continued to be paid for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the payment of the said bounties, rewards, and travelling allowance, be continued to the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, inclusive; and that the same be paid in the manner specified in His Majesty's several proclamations now in force for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy, and for the discovering seamen who may conceal themselves, and for giving rewards for procuring the voluntary service of seamen and landmen; whereof all persons concerned are to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Chetwynd.
