

February next, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Saturday the 18th of February, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to place each description of bills in separate lists (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 27th day of February inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers (being holders or not) are indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of each separate list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 27th day of February, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before Saturday the 18th February, may be accommodated with new bills, carrying an interest of three pence halfpenny by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 27th day of February, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Tuesday the 28th day of February, and the following days.

N.B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to January 1814, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.
