Clerk Crown, Ireland, pro. temp.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of December 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, made and passed in the forty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for authorising His Majesty,

"in Council, to allow during the present war, and for six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, the importation and exportation of certain goods and commodities, in neutral ships, into and from His Majesty's territories in the West Indies and Continent of South America," it was enacted, that, from and after the passing of the said Act, it should and might be lawful for His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, by and with the advice of His and their Privy Council, to permit, or to authorise the Governors of the said islands and territories, in such manner and under such restrictions as to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, should seem fit, to permit, when the necessity of the case should appear to His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, to require it, from time to time during the present war, and for six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, the importation into, and the exportation from, any island in the West Indies (in which description the Bahama Islands, and the Bermuda or Somer Islands, are included), or any lands or territories on the Continent of South America to His Majesty belonging, of any such articles, goods, and commodities as should be mentioned in such Order of His Majesty in Council, in any ships or vessels belonging to the subjects of any State in amity with His Majesty, in such manner as His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, by and with the advice aforesaid, should direct; provided such ships, or vessels should duly enter into, report, and deliver their respective cargoes, and reload at such ports only, where regular custom-houses should have been established:

And whereas the said Act has been continued by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, until the expiration of six months after the conclusion of the present hostilities:

And whereas it appears, at present, to be necessary to permit, for a limited time, the importation into, and exportation from the islands and territories of His Majesty in the West Indies (including the Bahama Islands, and the Bermuda or Somer Islands), and the lands and territories on the Continent of South America, to His Majesty belonging, of certain articles, goods, and commodities hereinafter mentioned, in any ships or vessels belonging to the subjects of any state in amity with His Majesty; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and doth hereby order, that the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors of His Majesty's islands and colonies in the West Indies (in which description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands are included), and of any lands or territories on the Continent of South America, to His Majesty belonging, and each and every such Governors and Lieutenant-Governors shall be authorised, and they, and each and every of them, are hereby authorised to permit, for six months from the date hereof, in any ships or vessels belonging to the subjects of any State in amity with His Majesty, the importation into the said islands, colonies, lands, and territories respectively, of corn, grain, meal, flour, bran, biscuit, pulse, rice, horses, mules, neat-cattle, sheep, hogs, and every other species of live stock and live provisions; and also the exportation from the said islands, colonies, lands, and territories respectively, into which such importation as aforesaid shall be made, of rum and molasses, and of any other articles, goods, and commodities whatsoever, except sugar, indigo, cotton wool, coffee, and cocoa; provided always, that such articles so to be imported shall be of the growth or produce of the country to which the ship or vessel importing the same shall belong; provided also, that such ships or vessels shall duly enter into, report, and deliver their respective cargoes, and reload at such ports only where regular custom-houses shall have been established: But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, and His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, is further pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to permit the importation of corn, grain, meal, flour, bran, biscuit, pulse, rice, horses, mules, neat-cattle, sheep, hogs, or any other species of live stock and live provisions, into any of the said islands, lands, or territories, in which there shall not be a custom-house, when such articles shall be brought for importation, the following duties on such articles; being of the growth or produce of the United States of America, viz:

	Current Money of Jamaica.
On wheat flour per barrel, not weighing more than one hundred and ninety-six pounds net weight	0 6 8
On bread or biscuit of wheat flour, or any other grain, per barrel, not weighing more than one hundred pounds net weight	0 3 4
On bread, for every hundred pounds made from wheat or any other grain whatever, imported in bags or other packages than barrels, weighing as aforesaid	0 3 4
On flour or meal, made from rye, pease, beans, Indian corn, or other grain than wheat, per barrel, not weighing more than one hundred and ninety-six pounds	0 3 4
On pease, beans, rye, Indian corn, or callivancies, or other grain, per bushel	0 0 10
On rice, for every one hundred pounds net weight	0 3 4
And so in proportion for a less or larger quantity.
Horses, neat cattle, or other live stock, for every one hundred pounds of the value thereof, at the port or place of importation	10 0 0

Chetwynd.

At the Court at Carlton House, the 16th of December 1814,

PRESIDENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, bearing date the tenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for the payment of the bounties for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy, and the rewards for discovering seamen who may conceal themselves, so that such seamen should be taken for His Majesty's service, and also the rewards to persons who should procure the voluntary service of able and ordinary seamen and landmen, fit for His Majesty's Naval Service, and should convey such seamen and landmen on board any of His Majesty's ships and vessels, or to any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, will expire on the thirty-first day of this instant December; which bounties and rewards are as follows, that is to say; To every able seaman, not above the age of fifty, nor under the age of twenty years, who should enter himself to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, a bounty of five pounds; and to every ordinary seaman so entering himself, and not above the age of fifty, nor under the age of twenty years, a bounty of two pounds ten shillings; to every able-bodied landman, not above the age of thirty-five, nor under the age of eighteen years, so entering himself, a bounty of thirty shillings; to every person or persons who shall discover any able or ordinary seaman or seamen who may have concealed him or themselves, so that such seaman or seamen shall be taken for His Majesty's service by any of His Majesty's officers employed to raise men, a reward of three pounds for every such able seaman, and fifty shillings for every such ordinary seaman fit to serve on board His Majesty's ships; to any person or persons who shall procure the voluntary service of able or ordinary seamen or landmen fit for His Majesty's service, and shall convey them on board any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, or to any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, a reward of three guineas for every such able seaman, and two guineas for every such ordinary seaman, and one guinea for every such landman, together with an allowance at the rate of one penny per mile for each able, seaman, ordinary seaman, and landman, for every mile such man may respectively travel to the nearest of His Majesty's ships of war, or nearest place of residence of any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, provided such man shall be found fit for His Majesty's service, and there shall not be reason to suppose he is an apprentice; And whereas it is expedient, that the said several bounties, rewards, and travelling allowance, should be continued to be paid for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the payment of the said bounties, rewards, and travelling allowance, be continued to the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, inclusive; and that the same be paid in the manner specified in His Majesty's several proclamations now in force for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy, and for the discovering seamen who may conceal themselves, and for giving rewards for procuring the voluntary service of seamen and landmen; whereof all persons concerned are to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly. Glasgow.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 7, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint the Honourable Colonel Henry King to be one of the Grooms of His Majesty's Bedchamber.

Foreign-Office, February 7, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint Alexander Turnbull, Esq. to be His Majesty's Consul at Marseilles, and all other ports and places in the Department of the Mouths of the Rhône.

Foreign-Office, February 6, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint George Sholto Douglas, Esq. to be Secretary to His Majesty's Legation at the Court of Florence.

Commission in the 1st. or West Norfolk Regiment of Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant.

Quarter-Master William Betts to be Lieutenant, by Broct. Dated December 28, 1814.

Whitehall, January 28, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about six of the clock in the evening of Saturday the 7th instant, as Mr. Richard West, of Sydenham Common, was walking in his garden, a pistol was fired at him; the ball of which passed very near his head; and the person firing exclaimed "That's for the house-searcher." Mr. West immediately ran towards the spot, when a second pistol was fired at him: the words above stated to have been uttered by the person firing, being in allusion to Mr. West's having taken out warrants for the purpose of searching the houses of certain persons who were suspected of having forcibly entered his cottage at Sydenham aforesaid, and stripped it of nearly all the moveable property which it contained (excepting the furniture);

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired such gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FORTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Richard West, to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, February 7, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about seven o'clock in the evening of Monday the 30th. January last, the house of Mr. Robert Tipping, at Newnham, in the county of Gloucester, was assailed with stones, and on his opening the street door a gun or pistol loaded with shot was discharged at him, and wounded him in ten places on his legs, and his wife, who accompanied him to the door, also received two wounds in the arm;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired such gun or pistol) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by either Mr. F. Lawson, Charles Sandford, or Richard Wetherell, Esqrs. Magistrates of the county of Gloucester.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the fortieth year of His present Majesty's reign, the Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College, Dublin, do hereby publish and declare their direction, that Francis Barker, M.D. shall continue to hold the Professorship of Chemistry in the University of Dublin for the term of seven years, to commence on the 1st day of May next.

Robert Phipps Reg. Trin. Coll. Dublin.

January 30, 1815.

Office of Ordnance, January 27, 1815.

THE Master-General and Board of Ordnance having, on the 22d July 1814, thought proper to issue certain instructions for the guidance of Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers pensioned from the Military Corps under the Ordnance, and it being necessary that all men who may have been placed on the Pension List, previously to the 10th August 1814, should be furnished therewith, as well as duly mustered; these are to give notice, that all pensioners who may have been discharged, prior to the 10th August 1814, from

The Royal Horse Artillery,
Marching Battalions of Artillery,
Invalid Battalion of Artillery,
Corps of Royal Artillery Drivers, and Corps of Royal Sappers and Miners (formerly called the Royal Military Artificers), and are now resident at Woolwich, in London, or their environs, and who may have usually received their pensions either at Woolwich or in London, are to appear personally on the days and at the places hereafter mentioned, and to bring with them their discharges, and other documents under which they may have received their pensions respectively, viz.
