Whitehall, February 7, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about seven o'clock in the evening of Monday the 30th January last, the house of Mr. Robert Tipping, at Newnham, in the county of Gloucester, was assailed with stones, and on his opening the street door a gun or pistol loaded with shot was discharged at him, and wounded him in ten places on his legs, and his wife, who accompanied him to the door, also received two wounds in the arm.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired such gun or pistol) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. (11.)

SLIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid, such reward to be paid either by E. Lawson, Esq. the Reverend Charles Sandford, or the Reverend Richard Wetherall, Magistrates of the county of Gloucester.
