

voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, tallow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British plantations in the West Indies; or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments, within the same season: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Carlton-House, February 16, 1815.

This day His Excellency the Count Delachastre, Ambassador from His Most Christian Majesty

Louis the Eighteenth, had an audience of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, to present Monsieur Caminade, de Castres, appointed to convey to His Royal Highness the collar and the robes of the Order of the St. Esprit, in the name of His Most Christian Majesty; they were introduced by Earl Bathurst, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, in the absence of Lord Viscount Castlereagh, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq. Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

The Prince Regent was attended by the Lord Chamberlain and the other Officers of the Royal Household.

Foreign-Office, February 17, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint the Honourable Robert Gordon to be Secretary to His Majesty's Embassy at the Court of His Majesty the Emperor of Austria.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has also been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint John James, Esq. to be Secretary to His Majesty's Embassy at the Court of His Royal Highness the Prince Sovereign of the United Netherlands.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to nominate and appoint Archibald Bell, Esq. Advocate, Sheriff Depute of the shire of Ayr, in the room of Edward M'Curick, Esq. deceased.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto James Rose, Esq. Captain in the Royal Navy, and Commander of His Majesty's sloop Hearty, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Royal Swedish Military Order of the Sword, with which His Majesty the King of Sweden has been pleased to honour him, in testimony of the high sense which that Sovereign entertains of the services rendered by the said Captain Rose to the common cause during the siege and reduction of the fortress of Gluckstadt; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms.

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration, together with the relative documents, be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.
