Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 17, 1815.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday next the 23d instant, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of February 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: and whereas the port of Hull has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in Great Britain, to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Hull is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of February 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-third day of July last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition; or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower

“ His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt “ petre, and to enforce the law for empowering “ His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun“ powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, “ and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the “ carrying boatwise of salt petre, gunpowder, or “ any sort of arms or ammunition: But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall prevent the exportation of any of the articles, specified in the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, to the coast of Africa, under the conditions contained in the said Order: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury; the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain; the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports; the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively ap-pertain, Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of February 1815

PRESENT.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-third day of July last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this Kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, or other naval stores, has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service, and the safety of this Kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever do, at any time for the space of six months from the date of this Order, presume to transport into any parts out of this Kingdom, any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch,
 tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet copper excepted), or to ship or lade any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores (sheet copper excepted), on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, “ An Act to enable “ His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval “ stores, and more effectually to prevent the ex“ portation of salt petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council; But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships of war, or any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of naval stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other;

 and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards.
 But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, tallow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments, within the same season: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of December, 1814,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, made and passed in the forty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for authorising His Majesty, in Council, to allow during the present war, and for six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, the importation and exportation of certain goods and commodities, in neutral ships, into and from His Majesty's territories in the West Indies and Continent of South America," it was enacted, that, from and after the passing of the said Act, it should and might be lawful for His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, by and with the advice of His and their Privy Council, to permit, or to authorise the Governors of the said islands and territories, in such manner and under such restrictions as to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, should seem fit, to permit, when the necessity of the case should appear to His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, to require it, from time to time, during the present war, and for six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, the importation into, and the exportation from, any island in the West Indies (in which description the Bahama Islands, and the Bermuda or Somer Islands, are included), or any lands or territories on the Continent of South America to His Majesty belonging, of any such articles, goods, and commodities as should be mentioned in such Order of His Majesty in Council, in any ships or vessels belonging to the subjects of any State in amity with His Majesty, in such manner as His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, by and with the advice aforesaid, should direct; provided such ships or vessels should duly enter into, report, and deliver their respective cargoes, and reload at such ports only, where regular custom-houses should have been established:

And whereas the said Act has been continued by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, until the expiration of six months after the conclusion of the present hostilities:

And whereas it appears, at present, to be necessary to permit, for a limited time, the importation into, and exportation from the islands and territories of His Majesty in the West Indies (including the Bahama Islands, and the Bermuda or Somer Islands), and the lands and territories on the Continent of South America, to His Majesty belonging, of certain articles, goods, and commodities, hereinafter mentioned, in any ships or vessels belonging to the subjects of any state in amity with His Ma-

esty; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and doth hereby order, that the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors of His Majesty's islands and colonies in the West Indies (in which description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands are included), and of any lands or territories on the Continent of South America, to His Majesty belonging, and each and every such Governors and Lieutenant-Governors shall be authorised, and they, and each and every of them, are hereby authorised to permit, for six months from the date hereof, in any ships or vessels belonging to the subjects of any State in amity with His Majesty, the importation into the said islands, colonies, lands, and territories respectively, of corn, grain, meal, flour, bran, biscuit, pulse, rice, horses, mules, neat-cattle, sheep, hogs, and every other species of live stock and live provisions; and also the exportation from the said islands, colonies, lands, and territories respectively, into which such importation as aforesaid shall be made, of rum and molasses, and of any other articles, goods, and commodities whatsoever, except sugar, indigo, cotton wool, coffee, and cocoa; provided always, that such articles so to be imported shall be of the growth or produce of the country to which the ship or vessel importing the same shall belong; provided also, that such ships or vessels shall duly enter into, report, and deliver their respective cargoes, and reload at such ports only, where regular custom-houses shall have been established; but it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, and His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, is further pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to permit the importation of corn, grain, meal, flour, bran, biscuit, pulse, rice, horses, mules, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, or any other species of live stock and live provisions, into any of the said islands, lands, or territories, in which there shall not be, at the time when such articles shall be brought for importation, the following duties on such articles, being of the growth or produce of the United States of America, viz:

Current Money of Jamaica.

On wheat flour, per barrel, not weighing more than one hundred and ninety-six pounds net weight	0 6 8
On bread or biscuit of wheat flour, or any other grain, per barrel, not weighing more than one hundred pounds net weight	0 3 4
On bread, for every hundred pounds made from wheat or any other grain whatever, imported in bags or other packages than barrels, weighing as aforesaid	0 3 4
On flour or meal, made from rye, peas, beans, Indian corn, or other grain than wheat, per barrel, not weighing more than one hundred and ninety-six pounds	0 3 4

	Current Money of Jamaica.
On pease, beans, rye, Indian corn, callivancies, or other grain, per bushel	0 0 10
On rice, for every one hundred pounds net weight	0 3 4
And so in proportion for a less or larger quantity.
Horses, neat cattle, or other live stock, for every one hundred pounds of the value thereof, at the port or place of importation	10 0 0
	Chetwynd.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of December 1814.

PRESENT,

Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, bearing date the tenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for the payment of the bounties for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy, and the rewards for discovering seamen who may conceal themselves, so that such seamen should be taken for His Majesty's service, and also the rewards to persons who should procure the voluntary service of able and ordinary seamen and landmen, fit for His Majesty's Naval Service, and should convey such seamen and landmen on board any of His Majesty's ships, and vessels, or to any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, will expire on the thirty-first day of this instant December, which bounties and rewards are as follows, that is to say: To every able seaman, not above the age of fifty, nor under the age of twenty years, who should enter himself to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, a bounty of five pounds; and to every ordinary seaman so entering himself, and not above the age of fifty, nor under the age of twenty years, a bounty of two pounds ten shillings; to every able-bodied landman, not above the age of thirty-five, nor under the age of eighteen years, so entering himself, a bounty of thirty shillings; to every person or persons who shall discover any able or ordinary seaman or seamen who may have concealed him or themselves, so that such seaman or seamen shall be taken for His Majesty's service by any of His Majesty's officers employed to raise men, a reward of three pounds for every such able seaman, and fifty shillings for every such ordinary seaman fit to serve on board His Majesty's ships; to any person or persons who shall procure the voluntary service of able or ordinary seamen or landmen fit for His Majesty's service, and shall convey them on board any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, or to any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, a reward of three guineas for every such able seaman, and two guineas for every such ordinary seaman, and one guinea for every such landman, together with a travelling allowance at the rate of one penny per mile for each able seaman, ordinary seaman, and landman, for every mile such man may respectively travel to the nearest of His Majesty's ships of war, or nearest place of residence of any of His Majesty's sea officers employed in raising men, provided such man shall be found fit for His Majesty's service, and there shall not be reason to suppose he is an apprentice: And whereas it is expedient, that the said several bounties, rewards, and travelling allowance, should be continued to be paid for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the payment of the said bounties, rewards, and travelling allowance, be continued to the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, inclusive; and that the same be paid in the manner specified in His Majesty's several proclamations now in force for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into His Majesty's Royal Navy; and for the discovering seamen who may conceal themselves, and for giving rewards for procuring the voluntary service of seamen and landmen; whereof all persons concerned are to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly. Chetwynd.

Whitehall, February 21, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Kenneth MacKenzie, Esq. Post Captain in the Royal Navy, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Royal Swedish Military Order of the Sword, with which His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway has been pleased to honour him, in testimony of the high sense which that Sovereign entertains of the services rendered by the said Captain MacKenzie during the blockade of Norway; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration, together with the relative documents, be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Carlton-House, February 20, 1815.

The Prince Regent has been pleased to appoint Anthony Carlisle, Esq. to be one of His Royal Highness's Surgeons Extraordinary, in the room of John Birch, Esq. deceased.

Worcester, February, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about seven o'clock in the evening of Monday the 30th January last, the house of Mr. Robert Tipping, at Newnham; in the county of Gloucester, was assailed with stones; and on his opening the street door a gun or pistol loaded with shot was discharged at him, and wounded him in ten places on his legs, and his wife, who accompanied him to the door, also received two wounds in the arms; His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired such gun or pistol) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid either by F. Lawson, Esq. the Reverend Charles Sandiford, or the Reverend Richard Wetherall, Magistrates of the county of Gloucester.

Whitehall, February 10, 1815.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday last, the 5th day of February 1815, while Edmund Walsh (foreman to Messrs. Hargreaves and Dugdale, calico-printers) was going from his own house, in their manufactory, situate at Broad Oak, in the parish of Whaley, in the county of Lancaster, towards a place called Daisey-Hill, and was passing through the gate leading from the manufactory, a gun or pistol was fired at him by a man from the corner of the colour shop, on the grounds of Messrs. Hargreaves and Dugdale, the slugs from which gun or pistol penetrated his hat and inflicted two small wounds on his head, and before the man could be seized he made his escape through the manufactory, and eluded the search made for him;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired such gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Messrs. Hargreaves and Dugdale to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons, who shall apprehend and bring the offender or offenders to conviction, or cause him, her, or them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Office of Ordnance, January 27, 1815.

THE Master-General and Board of Ordnance (having, on the 22d July 1814, thought proper to issue certain instructions for the guidance of Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers pensioned from the Military Corps under the Ordnance, and it being necessary that all men who may have been placed on the Pension List, previously to the 10th August 1814, should be furnished therewith, as well as duly mustered; these are to give notice, that all pensioners who may have been discharged, prior to the 10th August 1814, from

The Royal Horse Artillery, Marching Battalions of Artillery, Invalid Battalion of Artillery; Corps of Royal Artillery Drivers, and Corps of Royal Sappers and Miners (formerly called the Royal Military Artificers), and are now resident at Woolwich, in London, or their environs, and who may have usually received their pensions either at Woolwich or in London, are to appear personally on the days and at the places hereafter mentioned, and to bring with them their discharges and other documents under which they may have received their pensions respectively, viz.

The men resident at Woolwich, to assemble at the Office of the Chief Commissary of the Field Train at Woolwich, at eleven o'clock in the morning precisely.

The serjeants and corporals, on Tuesday the 7th of March next;

The bombardiers and gunners, and all others whose surnames begin with the letters A to H inclusive, on Thursday the 9th of March; and Those from I to Z, on Saturday the 11th of March.

The men resident in London and its environs, to assemble at the Office of Ordnance, Tower, London, on the following days, at eleven o'clock in the morning precisely.

The serjeants, corporals, and bombardiers, on Monday the 13th March next;

The gunners, mattrasses, drivers, and horse brigade, from A to H, on Tuesday the 14th March; and Those from I to Z, on Thursday the 16th of March.

Such of the above pensioners who may be incapable of personal attendance at either of the foregoing places, from bodily or mental infirmities, are hereby required to transmit a certificate of that fact from the Ministers and Churchwardens of the parishes in which they reside, together with their discharge or other documents, under which they receive their pensions. The letter to be addressed "To William Lees, Esq. Tower," under cover to the Secretary of the Board of Ordnance, Pall-Mall, London, marked on the back "Certificates, &c. for Ordnance Pensioners." The letter to be forwarded so that the same may be received on or before the day stated for the appearance of the pensioner.

And the aforesaid pensioners are desired particularly to notice, that if they do not personally attend, or transmit the required certificate in proof of their inability to appear at the foregoing places on the dates and in the manner specified, they will be considered as dead or otherwise provided for, and their names struck off the List accordingly.

By order of the Board,
R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, February 13, 1815.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Friday the 10th day of March next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

for the ordnance horses stationed in the following districts, to be delivered at the expence of the contractor, viz.

- North Britain,
- Northern,
- Eastern, exclusive of Warley,
- Southern, exclusive of Chatham,
- Western,
- South West, including Portsmouth, Isle of Wight, and Christchurch,
- Woolwich, with its dependencies, Warley and Chatham,

By His Excellency Major-General George William Ramsay, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over His Britannic Majesty's Island of St. Croix, and its Dependencies, in America, Vice-Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

BY virtue of the authority in me vested, and in conformity with an ordinance of the 23d May, and an edict of the 12th August 1800, I do hereby make known, that, in compliance with a petition delivered in, I have permitted and granted, that the Executors of the deceased William and Susan Kerr, viz. Messrs. John Sempill and George Derrick, may summon by proclama, sub prena præclusi et perpetui silentii, all the known or unknown Creditors of the said deceased William and Susan Kerr, residing in European or American territories, to come forward with their demands, and to enter and prove their claims, in person or by their attorneys, before the said Executors John Sempill and George Derrick, previous to the expiration of the period hereinafter limited, that is to say, within one year and six weeks from the period when this proclama shall have been recorded in the Upper Courts of the islands of St. Croix, St. Thomas, and St. John, and published three times consecutively in the London Gazette; and all such known or unknown Creditors as reside in any of the West India islands or colonies, shall come forward with their demands, and enter and prove their claims, in person or by their attorneys, before the said Executors John Sempill and George Derrick, within three months from the date of this proclama being recorded in the Superior and Inferior Courts of the islands of St. Cruz, St. Thomas, and St. John, and notice thereof being published in the Santa Croix Gazette three times consecutively. And the aforesaid Executors shall further be bound to cause this grant to be produced in the Royal and the Loan Commission's Book-keeper's Offices to the said islands, and procure a certificate of this being complied with; in failure of which, this proclama shall not be valid against any claims or prerogatives of His Majesty; and all persons concerned are to take notice hereof, and to co-act themselves accordingly.

Given under my hand and seal, at the Government-House, Santa Cruz, this 5th day of September 1814.

By His Excellency's command, S. R. JARVIS, Gov. Sec.

BORCH ACHE, Curator bonorum in the within mentioned Estate.

Alrewas, Staffordshire.—Valuable Cotton-Works.

TO be sold by auction, by order of the Assignees of Joseph Dicken, a Bankrupt, at the White Hart Inn, Burton-upon-Trent, in the County of Stafford, on Wednesday the 15th day of March next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon:

A capital built cotton-mill, with a most complete steam-engine, of forty-five horse power, together with all machinery therein, consisting of about 80 sets of breaking and finishing carding machines, with drawing, roving, and stretching frames, appropriate thereto; upwards of 4000 water or sthroble spindles; also of about 800 spindles for doubling and twisting yarn for various purposes; also of fifty power looms for wearing calicoes, with dressing machines, and mules for spinning worst for supplying the same; together with extensive and requisite warehouses, and other buildings, contiguous to the mill, and a large commodious house for the reception of apprentices, twelve cottages or tenements for work people, and a very pleasant and convenient messuage fit for the residence of a principal or superintendent of the concern, with garden, orchard, and paddock, containing together about three acres, all situate at Alrewas, in the County of Stafford, five miles from the City of Lichfield, and seven miles from Burton-upon-Trent.

The whole of the above premises have been built of late years, and are now in the most complete repair.

The mill is now in working, and may be entered upon immediately, with all hands, apprentices, &c.

The Grand Trunk Canal passes within a few yards of the works, and which, from several local advantages, are very well worth the attention of any person wishing for such a concern.

Also an allotment of land on Fradley Heath, containing 5A. 1R. 8P.

Further particulars may be had by applying to Mr. Fowler, Solicitor, Burton-upon-Trent, or to Messrs. Spurrier and Ingleby, Solicitors, Birmingham.
