In consequence of Sir William Garrow being prevented by illness from attending the next ensuing

Great Sessions as Chief Justice of Chester, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been graciously pleased, in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, under His Royal sign manual, to appoint Samuel Marshall, Serjeant at Law, to execute the said Office for the now next ensuing Great Sessions.

Whitehall, February 24, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto William Burton Rayner, of the city of Lincoln, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue, in compliance with the last will and testament of his cousin Robert Burton, late of the close of Lincoln, in the county of Lincoln, Esq. deceased, may assume and take the surname of Burton only, and also bear the arms of Burton; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 7, 1815.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Lewis Turnor, of Christ Church, in the county of Hants, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and enlarging the powers of an Act, made in the forty-third year of His present Majesty, for the further improvement of the port of London, by making docks and other works at Blackwall, for the accommodation of the East India shipping in the said port," it is (amongst other things) recited and enacted as follows:

"And whereas the said East India Dock Company have, in execution of the said Act, made in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, formed two docks at Blackwall aforesaid, called an outer and an inner dock: And whereas the quays or wharfs surrounding such outer dock are bounded on the north side by the wall which separates the same from the inner dock: on the south side by the River Thames; at the east end by the entrance bason and locks leading from the River Thames to the inward dock; and at the west end by the ship-builders yard, in the occupation of Messrs. Perry and Wells: And whereas it may not be necessary that such outer dock should be intirely surrounded by a high wall; be it therefore enacted, that when and as soon as it shall appear to the Lord High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, that such outer
