Licence to import bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, into the Island of Newfoundland.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WITH sentiments of the most profound attachment and respect, We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness to offer our sincere congratulations on the happy termination of the contest with the United States of America, which will, we most cordially trust, permanently unite both countries in the relations of mutual peace and amity.

This gratifying event, while it adds to the proud situation of the British empire, does the greatest credit to the wisdom of your Royal Highness's councils.

That your Royal Highness may long enjoy the blessings of universal peace, is the earnest wish of this loyal and ancient Corporation.

[Presented by Mr. Davis and Mr. Protheroe, Members for Bristol; accompanied by Lord Chief Justice Gibbs, Recorder.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness, WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, beg leave
