Whitehall, April 20, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, taking into His consideration the meritorious services of Sir John Hamilton, of Woodbrook, in the county of Tyrone, Baronet, Lieutenant-General of His Majesty's Forces, and Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, and more particularly the able and highly distinguished conduct displayed by him in the defence of the town and castle of Alba de Tormes, in Spain, on the 10th and 11th of November 1812, when he succeeded in repulsing the enemy, of far superior force, hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto the said Sir John Hamilton His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that to the armorial ensigns of his family, he and his descendants may bear the honourable augmentation following, viz. "On a chief a mount inscribed Alba Te Tormes, thereon a castle, and flowing from the embattlements a Spanish flag;" and for an additional crest, "On a mount a castle as in the arms," and for motto, in an escrol above the said crest, "Alba de Tormes:" provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and especial mark of His Majesty's royal favour be recorded in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 7, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Victor von Arentsschild, Brevet Major in the Army, and Lieutenant-Colonel in the Portuguese 1st Regiment of Artillery, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal hath been pleased to honour him, as a testimony of the high sense which that Prince entertains of the great courage and intrepidity displayed by the said Lieutenant-Colonel Victor von Arentsschild in several actions with the enemy in the Peninsula; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 7, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Joseph Sawle Graves, of Penrice, in the county of Cornwall, Esq. only surviving son of John Graves, late of Barley, in the county of Devon, Esq. deceased, by Elizabeth his wife, formerly Elizabeth Sawle, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that, in compliance with the injunction and proviso contained in a codicil to the last will and testament of Mary Sawle, late of Penrice aforesaid, spinster, deceased, as well as in testimony of his respect for the memory of the said testatrix and the ancient family of Sawle, he the said Joseph Sawle Graves may take and use the surname of Sawle only, and also bear the arms of Sawle; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Crown-Office, April 22, 1815.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.
