Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 1815.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 25, 1815.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on Thursday the 4th of May, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of April 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the trade between the subjects of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect; and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted; shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted. Chetwynd.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where]

WHEREAS [name of the person] one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name] being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof [master's name] is master, that the said ship the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name] residing at [place where] all His Majesty's British subjects; and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now be it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States, and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

Signed by us the at the this day of one thousand eight hundred and Licence to import bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, into the Island of Newfoundland.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS a Treaty of Peace and Friendship, between His Majesty and the United States of America, hath been concluded at Ghent on the twenty-fourth day of December last, and the ratifications thereof have been duly exchanged: in conformity thereto, We have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, hereby to command, that the same be published throughout all His Majesty's dominions: And We do declare to all His Majesty's loving subjects Our will and pleasure, that the said Treaty of Peace and Friendship be observed inviolably as well by sea as land, and in all places whatsoever; strictly charging and commanding all His Majesty's loving subjects to take notice thereof, and to conform themselves thereunto accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring the Cessation of Arms, as well by Sea as Land, agreed upon between His Majesty and the United States of America, and enjoining the observance thereof.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS a Treaty of Peace and Amity, between His Majesty and the United States of America, was signed at Ghent on the twenty-fourth day of December last, by the Plenipotentiaries of His Majesty and the Plenipotentiaries of the United States: And whereas, for the putting an end to the calamities of War, as soon, and as far as may be possible, it hath been agreed between His Majesty and the said United States as follows; that is to say, that immediately after the ratifications of the said Treaty, friendship should be established between His Majesty and the said United States, by sea and land, in all parts of the world; and, in order to prevent all causes of complaint and dispute which might arise with respect to prizes that might be taken at sea after the said ratifications of the said Treaty, it has also been reciprocally agreed, that all vessels and effects which may be taken after the space of twelve days from the said ratifications, upon all parts of the coasts of North America from the latitude of twenty three degrees north to the latitude of fifty degrees north, and as far eastward in the Atlantic Ocean as the thirty-sixth degree of west longitude from the meridian of Greenwich, shall be restored on each side; that the time shall be thirty days in all other parts of the Atlantic Ocean north of the Equinoctial Line of Equator, and the same time for the British and Irish Channels, for the Gulf of Mexico, and all parts of the West Indies; forty days for the North Seas, for the Baltic, and for all parts of the Mediterranean; sixty days for the Atlantic Ocean south of the Equator, as far as the latitude of the Cape of Good Hope; ninety days for every other part of the world south of the Equator; and one hundred and twenty days for all other parts of the world without exception: And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged on the seventeenth day of last month, from which day the several terms abovementioned of twelve days, thirty days, forty days, sixty days, ninety days, and one hundred and twenty days, are to be computed; now, in order that the several epochs fixed as aforesaid, between His Majesty and the said United States, should be generally known and observed, We have thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to notify the same to His Majesty's loving subjects; and We do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, strictly charge and command all His Majesty's Officers both at sea and land, and all other His Majesty's subjects whatsoever, that they forbear all acts of hostility, either by sea or land, against the United States of America, or the citizens thereof, under the penalty of incurring His Majesty's highest displeasure.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the seventeenth day of March, in the fifty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of March 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

It is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the embargo laid, by Order in Council of the thirty-first of July one thousand eight hundred and twelve, upon all British ships and vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, or vessels belonging to the citizens of the United States, clearing out from the ports of the United Kingdom for any of the territories of the United States of America, be taken off: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 9th of March 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 165, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: and whereas the ports of Greenock and port Glasgow have been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the ports of Greenock and port Glasgow are ports fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Chetwynd.

Admiralty-Office, April 29, 1815.

REAR-ADMIRAL Sir Philip Charles Dyrham has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. a letter from Captain Fleming, of His Majesty's sloop Barbadoes, giving an account of his having, on the 15th of February, captured off St. Bartholomew the American letter of marque brigantine Vidette, of three guns and thirty men.

Whitehall, April 28, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Lieutenant William Montagu, of the Royal Regiment of Artillery, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of the Imperial Russian Order of St. Vladimir of the fourth class, with which the Emperor of Russia hath been pleased to honour him, in testimony of His Imperial Majesty's approbation of the distinguished services rendered by the said Lieutenant Montagu during the siege of Dantzic, provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Navy Pay-Office, London, April 25, 1815.

Notice is hereby given, that, by virtue of an authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, fifty-fourth George the Third, chap. 93, I do hereby revoke the licence granted to William Giles, of No. 1, Little St. Thomas Lane, Bristol, on the 14th day of September 1812, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others serving in any of His Majesty's ships, which licence is withdrawn, on the ground of the said William Giles having abused the trust reposed in him.

GEORGE ROSE.

Navy Pay-Office, London, April 25, 1815.

Notice is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, fifty-fourth George the Third, chap. 93, I do hereby revoke the licence granted to Edwin Johnston, of No. 1, Duke Street, Plymouth Dock, on the 24th day of September 1814, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others serving in any of His Majesty's ships, which licence is withdrawn, on the ground of the said Edwin Johnston being under the age of twenty-one years.

GEORGE ROSE.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

TUSKER ROCK LIGHT-HOUSE.

THE Corporation for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin, &c. hereby give notice, that the Light-House erected by them upon the Tusker Rock will be lit, on Sunday evening the 4th of June next, and continue to be lit in future from sunset to sunrise.

The light to be exhibited is upon a revolving principle, embracing three faces, one of which will appear refulgent every two minutes; and one of the lights, which is a deep red colour, will appear every six minutes.

Tusker Rock is situate off the coast of Wexford, at the entrance of St. George's Channel, about six miles south east of Greenore Point.

The Rock is about twenty feet above the sea at high water, and the elevation of the Light-House, one hundred and five feet from the base.

By order,
William Bigger, Secretary.
Ballast-Office, Dublin, April 18, 1815.

CONTRACT FOR BUILDING A VICTUAL- LING HOY.

Navy-Office, April 17, 1815.
THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 3d of May next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for

Building a Victualling Hoy, of the burthen of about 66 tons;
to be delivered at His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth.

A draught of the vessel, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any notice, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of 200*l*. for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR WINNEY BLANKETS.

Navy-Office, April 26, 1815.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 1st of May next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying

Winney Blankets;

to be delivered at the Stop-Office, in Somerset-Place.

A pattern of the blankets, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any notice, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of 1000*l*. for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR THE HIRE OF TWO FAST-SAILING VESSELS.

Navy-Office, April 21, 1815.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 3d of May next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for

The hire of two fast-sailing Vessels, of the same description as the Post-Office Packet-boats employed between Dover or Harwich and France; but the vessels are to be from 100 to 150 tons burthen, and the accommodation for the passengers will be particularly attended to.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any notice, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR OATS, TO BE DELIVERED IN THE WEST INDIES.

Commissary in Chief's Office,
April 26, 1815.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Commissary in Chief to deliver

Oats at sundry West India Islands,

may receive particulars of the contract at this Office, between the hours of eleven and five, and deliver their tenders, sealed up and directed to the Commissary in Chief, marking thereon "Tender for Oats, to be delivered in the West Indies," on or before Tuesday the 9th May; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day; nor will any proposal be noticed unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal, signed by two persons of known property engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

Office of Ordnance, April 19, 1815.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Wednesday the 3d of May; from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

Three hundred chaldrons of Coals,

for service of this Department at Gibraltar, there to be delivered at the expence of the contractor. The coals must be of the description denominated Adair's Main, Eighteen Moor, or equal thereto in quality and goodness.

Further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known upon application at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall, on or before any day between the hours of ten and five o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Coals;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 3d May, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.
