TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1815.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 25, 1815.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on Thursday the 4th of May, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of April 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the trade between the subjects of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted.

Chetwynd.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where]

WHEREAS [name of the person] one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name] being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof, [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof, [master's name] is master, that the said ship the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name] residing at [place where] all His Majesty's British subjects; and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now be it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States, and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

Signed by us the at the this day of one thousand eight hundred and

Licence to import bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, into the Island of Newfoundland.

Whitehall, May 2, 1815.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, at an early hour on the morning of Saturday the 29th ultimo, a fire was discovered in an unoccupied house adjoining to the wood-yard and premises of Messrs. Mottley, Son, and Ellis, at Portsea, and which fire extending in a short time to eight tenements, occupied by poor families, the whole of them were consumed, and imminent danger incurred to neighbouring houses from some stacks of wood taking fire; and whereas it hath been further represented, that there are strong reasons to suppose the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire for the purpose of destroying a newly-erected steam-engine and the other valuable property;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said premises on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid upon conviction by Messrs. Mottley, Son, and Ellis.

TO CREDITORS.

Brighton, April 21, 1815.

ALL persons who have any claims on the estate of Mr. Thomas Palmer, late of Brighthelmston, in the County of Sussex, ironmonger, deceased, are requested to deliver the particulars of their demands at the Office of Mr. Hill, Solicitor, Brighton, on or before the 6th day of May, in order that an arrangement may be made for a settlement of the accounts.

WILLIAM HETLEY'S BANKRUPTCY.

TO be sold, by auction, by John Rowell, by order of the major part of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth and now in prosecution against William Hetley, of Alwalton, in the County of Huntingdon, Miller, Dealer and Chapman, at the Angel Inn, Peterborough, in the County of Northampton, on Saturday the 13th day of May instant, between the hours of Five and Seven in the Evening, subject to such conditions of sale as shall be then and there produced, the following valuable estates:

Lot 1. A messuage or tenement, with the bake-house, stables, and other buildings, situate near the town church, Peterborough aforesaid, in the occupation of Edward Rawlings.

Lot 2. A messuage, adjoining the last, in the occupation of Elizabeth Wales.

Lot 3. A messuage or tenement, with the bakehouse, stables, and other buildings, and a small garden, in Broad Bridge-Street, Peterborough, in the occupation of Mr. Matthew Goodyer.

Lot 4. A right of common in, over, and upon Peterborough Common; and also, in, over, and upon Borough Great Fen, and the Four Hundred Acre Common.

The above estates are copyhold, fine certain.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Platel, Peterborough, Solicitor to the Assignees.

N. B. The baking business, in a very extensive way, has been carried on in lots 1 and 3, for a considerable length of time.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 9th day of August 1810, and an Order dated the 15th day of January 1813, made in a cause wherein John Gray and another are plaintiffs, and the Right Honourable Joshua Lord Huntingfield and others are defendants;

Three eighth parts of a freehold messuage and stamping mill, and land thereto belonging, and leasehold bounds in tin mines, situate and being within the Parish of St. Agnes, in the county of Cornwall; the same will be sold by Charles Scott, Gentleman, with the approbation of Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in three lots, at Pearce's Hotel, Truro, in the said County of Cornwall, on Monday the 29th day of May 1815, the sale beginning at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely.

Particulars whereof may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Dann and Crosland, Solicitors, Old Broad-Street, London; of Messrs. Wadson, Barlow, and Grosvenor, Solicitors, Austin-Friars, London; of Messrs. Grylls, Scott, and Borlase, Solicitors, of Helston, in Cornwall; of Mr. Silvester, of St. Agnes, in Cornwall (who will shew the premises); and at Pearce's Hotel, Truro; and at the Bush Tavern, Bristol; and at the White Hart Inn, at Bath.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hicks and others versus Winter and others, it was referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who were the first and second cousins of John Tucker, late of Landford, in the County of Wilts, Gentleman, deceased, (the testator in the pleadings named,) living at his death.—The first and second cousins of the said John Tucker, who were living at the time of his death, (which happened on the 17th day of May 1812,) are hereby required forthwith to come in and make out their said relationship to the said testator before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Grainger against Berkeley, the Creditors of Elizabeth Berkeley, of Hartbury-Court, in the County of Gloucester, deceased, widow of Robert Berkeley, late of Spetchley, in the County of Worcester, Esq. deceased, (and which said Elizabeth died on or about the 4th day of June 1811,) are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Robert Steele, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hicks against Winter, the Creditors of John Tucker, late of Landford, in the County of Wilts, Gent. deceased, (who died on or about the 17th of May 1812,) are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Gibbons and William Sherwood, both of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Merchants, are desired to meet on Saturday the 3d day of June next, at the House of Thomas Ashcroft, the Golden-Lion, in Dale-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to consider upon the most expedient means to be adopted regarding the contract entered into for sale of part of the separate estate of the said William Sherwood, which contract the purchaser refuses to carry into execution for want of the signature of a person who, as he is advised, is a necessary party.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Boorne, late of Norwich, in the County of Norfolk, Draper, since deceased, dated the 29th day of December 1806, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 25th day of May instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the New Court House, in Wakefield, in the County of York, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit in equity against a gentleman of King's Lynn, in the said County of Norfolk, to compel a specific performance of an agreement made and entered into by and between him and the said Assignees, for the purchase of a certain real estate of the said Bankrupt, situate at Coltishall, in the same County, which descended to him since the making of the dividend of his estate and effects, and which has therefore become subject to the powers and authorities of the said Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees defending certain suits at law and in equity commenced against them by John Nash and William Nash, as representatives of Spooner Nash, deceased, Mortgagee of the said real estate; and on other special affairs.
