SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1815.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 20, 1815.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday next the 25th instant, at two o'clock.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The Address of the Noblemen, Landholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Haddington, in a General Meeting assembled.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Landholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the county of Haddington, beg leave to convey to your Royal Highness the sentiments which we entertain on the present state of public affairs.

We deplore those occurrences which have cast a shade, we trust, a temporary shade, over the brightest prospects ever held out to the world. The unexampled bad faith—the unprincipled ambition—the whole character and conduct of the person now replaced by a lawless soldiery, at the head of the Government of France, convince us that no reliance can be reposed on any compact to which he is a party, or which he has the power to infringe.—We therefore most cordially applaud the measures which have been adopted by your Royal Highness, in conjunction with your Allies, for the restoration of order and security to Europe.

The lustre which has been reflected on the national character under your Royal Highness's Government—the tone which pervades your councils—the well-tryed skill and valour of your forces and of those of your Allies, and above all, the principles on which the present union is founded, fill our minds with unreserved confidence, that the result of the impending contest will, under the blessing of Providence, prove honourable to the alliance and permanently advantageous to the world.

We entreat your Royal Highness to accept the humble assurance of our strenuous support, and of our devoted attachment to your Royal Highness's illustrious house and person.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the meeting, at Haddington, the 8th day of May 1815. Haddington, Lt. Præses.

[Transmitted by Lord Binning, and presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]
