THE following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Francis Lord Napier, His Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Viscount Sidmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Members of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, have received, with sentiments of the profoundest respect, the gracious letter with which your Royal Highness, in name and on behalf of His Majesty, has condescended to honour us, on this occasion.

It is peculiarly gratifying to us, to be assured that, while in the exercise of our constitutional rights, we are again assembled to deliberate on the affairs submitted to our judgment and review, your Royal Highness has thought fit, in the exercise of His Majesty's paternal care, to sanction our meeting; and we esteem it as a fresh token of royal favour, that this assurance is communicated to us by a Nobleman so eminently qualified to perform the duties of the royal representative as Francis Lord Napier. The long experience which the General Assembly has had of his piety, virtue, and regard to the interests of true religion, disposes us to listen with the most respectful deference to his admonitions, in declaring to us what your Royal Highness has commanded; and will render his name not less distinguished in the records of our national church, than that of his illustrious ancestor in the annals of science. We are satisfied, that the same fidelity in the discharge of his important functions, which has already so often merited and obtained the royal approbation, will, on this occasion, be still evinced, in a manner equally honourable to himself, and beneficial to us.

We are grateful to your Royal Highness for the high sense you are pleased to express of our loyalty, and for the assurance which has been given, at the same time, of your determination to maintain the rights and privileges of the Church of Scotland pure and unimpaired. Your Royal Highness has also permitted us to believe that the proofs we have given of attachment to the supreme authority of the land, have inspired you with confidence, that nothing will be done in our ecclesiastical assembly, prejudicial to the royal authority or prerogative. These favourable sentiments, it will ever be our study to confirm in the mind of your Royal Highness; and strongly influenced by the gracious terms in which they are conveyed, we will anxiously endeavour to maintain, in all our proceedings and subjects of discussion, the temperance, moderation, and propriety, which have thus been honoured by your approbation, and which your Royal Highness has now so earnestly recommended.

While we conduct our deliberations in the spirit of freedom, under the protection of royal favour, our first object will be to promote the great interests of religion and virtue, in the sphere of our influence. We shall also cherish among our people, by all the means we possess, the spirit of loyalty, of submission to the laws and establishments of our country, and of attachment to our happy constitution, under which we enjoy such invaluable blessings civil and religious—blessings unparalleled in the history of man. In all our exertions for these highly important purposes, it will be a powerful encouragement that our labours for the advancement of true piety, in that part of the United Kingdom which is committed to our pastoral care, are animated by the unceasing countenance and support of your Royal Highness. And assured of your solicitude for all that respects the welfare and prosperity of our ecclesiastical establishment, we shall firmly persevere in the discharge of the important duties which we have undertaken.

The royal donation of two thousand pounds for the propagation of Christian knowledge in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, we accept with the warmest gratitude, as a pledge of the anxiety of your Royal Highness to fulfil the pious and benevolent intentions of His Majesty, and we shall endeavour to apply it with all fidelity.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may bless, console, and restore our gracious Sovereign; that He may bless the Queen, your Royal Highness, the Princess of Wales, and all the Members of the Royal Family; that He may direct and prosper the measures of His Majesty's Government, and maintain to the latest ages the national blessings we enjoy, are the fervent prayers of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed, in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

Lewis Gordon, Moderator.
Edinburgh, May 20, 1815.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in our General Assembly, beg leave to approach the throne, to present to your Royal Highness the respectful expression of our loyalty to your venerable Sovereign, and of our attachment to your Royal Highness, by whom the Government is administered in his name and on his behalf.

While we condole with your Royal Highness, on the continued indisposition of your august Father, our most gracious Sovereign, and earnestly pray that the Father of mercies would visit him with His tender mercy, we regard it as a mark of the goodness of Providence to this realm, that we have in your Royal Highness, a Prince who, by the wisdom and firmness of his administration, so well sustains the honour and promotes the interests of the United Kingdom.

Since we last had it in our power to lay the dutiful expression of our attachment before the throne, many events have occurred deeply interesting to this country, and to the civilized world. We have seen brought to a happy termination, the war which had been declared against us by America, after the ostensible cause of it had been removed by your Royal Highness. It is gratifying to think, that although this country has to deplore the loss of many gallant men who have fallen in the contest, yet the measures adopted by your Royal Highness, joined to the unrivalled skill and intrepidity of our soldiers and sailors, have effectually sustained the honour of the country, and enabled you to conclude peace without the smallest diminution of the territory, or the least infringement of the maritime rights of the empire.

To the great public events which have happened in Europe, we look back with feelings of satisfaction, though unhappily mingled, of late, with deep regret. After a war the most extensive, protracted, and calamitous that ever afflicted the world, the man whose arrogant ambition, checked by no principle of justice, or feeling of humanity, had so long oppressed and insulted the nations of continental Europe, was driven from a throne supported by violence and stained with blood. The ancient race of Sovereigns was restored to France, and peace, in the spirit of peace, concluded with that nation.

It is with peculiar pleasure that we remark the honourable principles which have invariably guided the councils of your Royal Highness, in the management of these great transactions. It is with high satisfaction we observe, not only that you have made no attempt to encroach on the rights of other nations, but that the interests of humanity in distant lands, have not escaped your benevolent regard. By your active, unremitted and judicious endeavours, so much in consonance with the declared sentiments of the British nation, to put a stop to the African slave trade, that stain on the civilized world, your Royal Highness has procured its condemnation as unjust, by the great Congress of the European Sovereigns; and we doubt not that by a continuation of the same enlightened endeavours, you will, at no distant period, obtain its final suppression.

While the adjustment of the interests of the different nations of Europe, was gradually approaching to its completion, we beheld, with the deepest sorrow and indignation, that man whom the French nation had so lately abjured as their Sovereign, return to France; and supported by the soldiery, advance without opposition to the capital, and seize the reins of Government. This event, by raising a military Government in the heart of Europe, and throwing the whole power of the French empire into the hands of an individual, with whom (in as far as the future may be anticipated from the experience of the past) the relations of peace can be expected to subsist no longer than till he finds himself in a condition to declare war; threatens to frustrate the generous endeavours of your Royal Highness and your august Allies, for securing the repose of Europe; and to bring back the calamities and the crimes which have so long afflicted and dishonoured the nations of the continent.

But we trust that by this unlooked for occurrence Divine Providence is preparing the way for making the final overthrow of the tyrant more conspicuous and impressive; and while, as the servants of the Prince of Peace, we deplore any event which is likely to renew the calamities of war, and hope that means may still be found of preserving peace, yet we trust that should war be inevitable, the wisdom, promptitude and vigour of the councils of your Royal Highness and your august Allies; the pre-eminent skill of the great Captains who lead the allied armies; and the intrepidity of the forces arrayed in defence of the independence of Europe, will, by the blessing of Heaven on a righteous cause, speedily bring the contest to a happy conclusion, and establish the peace of the civilized world on a secure basis.

Sensible that the singular and unexpected circumstances of the times require of this country to submit to many sacrifices for the common welfare, as well as for our own individual security, we shall not fail to promote, by our influence and example, a cheerful acquiescence in the exertions that may be necessary for bringing the great cause, in which your Royal Highness is engaged, to a fortunate termination; and we have peculiar satisfaction in being able to assure your Royal Highness, that the people of this part of the united empire, aware of the urgency of the case, and relying confidently on the protection of Heaven, and on the wisdom and integrity of your Royal Highness's Government, are prepared cordially to concur in the measures which it may be deemed necessary to adopt for the general good.

That Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, may console, support, and restore to health our venerable Sovereign; that He may bless Her Majesty the Queen; protect and bless your Royal Highness, the Princess of Wales, and all the Members of the Royal Family; and that He may crown with success the measures of your administration, and render them the means of speedily conveying the blessings of peace and security to this nation and to Europe, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed, in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

Lewis Gordon, Moderator.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the undersigned Liverymen of the City of London.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the undersigned Liverymen of the City of London, feel ourselves imperiously called upon to approach your Royal Highness, as the representative of our venerable and beloved Sovereign, for the purpose of tendering to your Royal Highness the assurances of our affectionate and unalterable attachment to His Majesty and His illustrious House, and of our confidence in the Government at this momentous crisis.

Deeply sensible of the blessings of peace, and in an especial manner, taught to appreciate their value, by an experience of the difficulties and burthens necessarily attendant upon a state of protracted warfare, we hailed, with gratitude to the Author of every mercy, the late return of peace; and had indulged the pleasing expectation, that the re-establishment of legitimate authority, in a neighbouring country, would have ensured to Europe a long continuance of that tranquility for which, under Providence, she was indebted to the vigour of the councils and operations of Great Britain and her Allies.

Proportionate to the pleasure excited in our minds, by the events to which we have alluded, has been the sorrow with which we have been called to contemplate the disappointment of our fondest hopes in the recent usurpation of power in France, by an individual who has ever proved himself the enemy of all legitimate government: a usurpation founded in a perfidious contempt of the most solemn treaties, aided and supported by treachery and treason; and menacing, in its consequences, the interruption of repose thus happily attained, and the revival of jacobinical principles, the effects of which, for the last twenty years, have proved the scourge of man.

Amidst the feelings occasioned by this sad catastrophe, we have beheld with confidence the vigorous measures which, under the directions of your Royal Highness, have been adopted at this awful crisis: and we deem it incumbent upon us, to express to your Royal Highness our humble hope, that Providence will smile upon such efforts, as may be made by your Royal Highness, in conjunction with His Majesty's Allies, for the attainment of peace upon a secure foundation.

We should ill discharge our duty, either to your Royal Highness or ourselves, were we not to express the grief and indignation, with which we have witnessed the proceedings of a faction, who, arrogating to themselves the title of the Livery of London, have abused the privilege of petitioning the Commons House of Parliament, for the purpose of declaring our Faith and the Government, and investing against the Legislature, and the Government, and giving currency to doctrines, tending to depress the spirit of His Majesty's subjects, to lower the national character, in the estimation of foreign states; and to afford facility to Napoleon Buonaparte, in his endeavours to propagate deceptions as to the sentiments of the British people.

WE beg to express to your Royal Highness, our fervent hope, that the present cloud will speedily be dissipated; that this United Kingdom will continue to maintain her exalted rank, amongst the nations of the world; and that your Royal Highness may long be spared to a free, a happy and a grateful people. C. Smith, Chairman, Draper. London, May 4, 1815.

[Presented by Mr. Alderman C. Smith, S. Dixon, N. Atcheson, A. D. Welch, A. Palmer, R. Rothwell, H. Pounsett, E. Manley, M. A. Robinson, R. Elliott, R. Brook, T. Hodgson, A. Ross, I. Leech, Esqrs.—1738 Signatures.]

Carlton-House, May 25, 1815.

This day His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to invest Rear-Admiral Sir Charles Rowley with the ensigns of a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath.

By command of the Prince Regent, Rear-Admiral Sir Charles Rowley was conducted, with the usual reverences, to His Royal Highness, preceded by Sir George Nayler (the Officer of Arms attendant upon the Knights Commanders), bearing upon a crimson velvet cushion the star, ribband, and badge of the second class of the Order.

The sword of state was thereupon delivered to the Prince Regent, and Sir Charles Rowley, kneeling, was knighted therewith, after which he had the honour to kiss His Royal Highness's hand.

Then His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence, Knight Grand Cross of the Order, having received from the Officer of Arms the ribband and badge of a Knight Commander, presented them to the Prince Regent, who was pleased to invest Sir Charles Rowley with the same. The Rear-Admiral having again had the honour to kiss the Prince Regent's hand, and having received from His Royal Highness the star of a Knight Commander, retired.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was also pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to confer the honour of Knighthood upon the following officers, Knights Commanders of the said Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath:

Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Richard Williams.
Lieutenant-Colonel Sir James Malcolm.
Lieutenant-Colonel Sir James Archibald Hope.
Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Hew Dalrymple Ross.

Carlton-House, May 25, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood on the following Gentlemen:

John Sewell, Doctor of Laws of Pembroke College, Oxford, Kite Judge of His Majesty's Vice Admiralty Court of Malta.

William Coke, Judge of the Supreme Court of Ceylon.

Lieutenant-Colonel William Osborne Hamilton, of the 8th Royal Veteran Battalion, in consideration of his meritorious services in the Government of Heligoland.

Captain Robert Mends, R. N. on obtaining permission to wear the Order of Charles the Third of Spain.

Whitehall, May 18, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Major-General Sir George Townshend Walker, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the insignia of an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, with which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal has thought fit to honour him, in testimony of the high sense which that Prince entertains of the great courage and intrepidity displayed by the said Major-General, in several actions with the enemy in the Peninsula :

And His Royal Highness is further pleased to command, that this His Majesty's concession and especial mark of the royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in His College of Arms.

War-Office, May 27, 1815.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to approve of the undermentioned regiments being permitted to bear on their colours and appointments, in addition to any other badges or devices, which have been heretofore permitted to be borne by those regiments, the word "Niagara," in consequence of the distinguished conduct of those corps in the capture of fort Niagara, by assault, on the 19th December 1813, and in the battle at Lundy's-Lane, in North America, on the 25th July 1814.

PROCLAMATION

FROM

HIS MAJESTY'S REGULAR LAND FORCES.

War-Office, May 20, 1815.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that there are, at this time, several deserters from the different regular corps in His Majesty's land service, who might be induced to return to their duty, by an offer of His Royal Highness's gracious pardon, and, that such an instance of His Royal Highness's clemency might have a due influence upon their future behaviour; His Royal Highness has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant His free pardon to all deserters from His Majesty's regular land forces, who, not having been previously apprehended, shall surrender themselves on or before the 20th day of July next, to the Commanding Officer of any regiment, or to any of the Inspecting Field-Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose stations are mentioned in the margin hereof, or, to the Commandant of Albany Barracks in the Isle of Wight, or, to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Great Britain.

Leeds.
Newcastle-under-Line.
Nottingham.
Gloucester.
Aylesbury.
Chelmsford.
Taunton.
Andover.
Edinburgh.
Glasgow.
Aberdeen.

Such deserters, if able-bodied men, and fit for service, shall be sent to the regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such regiments in the United Kingdom as

His Royal Highness may be pleased to command; and when so placed, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other corps, to which they may formerly have belonged.

And whereas many of the said deserters may have enlisted into other regular corps, and are now serving therein, His Royal Highness is graciously pleased to extend to such deserters the benefit of this pardon; and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the corps wherein they now are, upon declaring themselves to their respective Commanding Officers on or before the said 20th day of July next, and, after having so declared themselves, they shall not be liable, at any future time, to be claimed by the regiments from which they had formerly deserted.

The Magistrate, to whom any deserter from His Majesty's regular forces shall surrender himself, is authorised and required to certify the day on which such deserter surrendered; which certificate is to be delivered to the deserter, to continue in force until the arrival of the deserter at the head-quarters of the nearest military post, provided he proceed at the rate of ten miles a day, unless prevented by sickness, such sickness to be certified by some medical practitioner, on the back of the Magistrate's certificate, or, to be otherwise proved, to the satisfaction of the Officer commanding at such military post.

And His Royal Highness having further commanded, that the greatest exertions shall be used, for the future apprehension of all deserters, every soldier now serving ought to be deeply impressed with a sense of the danger to which he will expose himself, if he should be guilty of the crime of desertion; and all those, who have already committed that offence, ought to feel, that they will render themselves liable to the severest punishment if they do not immediately avail themselves of the pardon held out in this Royal Highness's most gracious Proclamation.

Any soldier who may desert after these His Royal Highness's gracious intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost severity.

By the command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, PALMERSTON.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

War-Office, May 25, 1815.

WHEREAS His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to increase the rates of the pensions allowed to the widows of the Officers of the land forces and royal marines. These are to give notice, that the said pensions have been increased to, and established at, the following rates, from 25th December 1813, inclusive:
