And We do further declare, that this Our Proclamation shall not extend to require any Alien to obtain such licence as aforesaid, who shall have obtained, under any former Act relating to Aliens, His Majesty's Royal licence to reside in any part of this kingdom.

And We do further direct, That every Alien who shall have obtained any licence under any former Act, the term of which licence has expired, shall transmit the same to the Alien office in Crown-street, Westminster, for the purpose of being renewed or exchanged for such other licence as may be granted by our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or by such other person or persons appointed by us to grant the same.

tioned in the margin hereof, or, to the Commandant of Albany Barracks in the Isle of Wight, or, to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Great Britain.

Such deserters, if able-bodied men, and fit for service, shall be sent to the regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such regiments in the United Kingdom as

His Royal Highness may be pleased to command; and when so placed, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other corps, to which they may formerly have belonged.

And whereas many of the said deserters may have enlisted into other regular corps, and are now serving therein, His Royal Highness is graciously pleased to extend to such deserters the benefit of this pardon; and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the corps wherein they now are, upon declaring themselves to their respective Commanding Officers on or before the said 20th day of July next, and, after having so declared themselves, they shall not be liable, at any future time, to be claimed by the regiments from which they had formerly deserted.

The Magistrate, to whom any deserter from His Majesty's regular forces shall surrender himself, is authorised and required to certify the day on which such deserter surrendered; which certificate is to be delivered to the deserter, to continue in force until the arrival of the deserter at the head-quarters of the nearest military post, provided he proceed at the rate of ten miles a day, unless prevented by sickness, such sickness to be certified by some medical practitioner, on the back of the Magistrate's certificate, or, to be otherwise proved, to the satisfaction of the Officer commanding at such military post.

And His Royal Highness having further commanded, that the greatest exertions shall be used, for the future apprehension of all deserters, every soldier now serving ought to be deeply impressed with a sense of the danger to which he will expose himself, if he should be guilty of the crime of desertion; and all those, who have already committed that offence, ought to feel, that they will render themselves liable to the severest punishment if they do not immediately avail themselves of the pardon held out in this Royal Highness's most gracious Proclamation.

Any soldier who may desert after these His Royal Highness's gracious intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost severity.

By the command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, PALMERSTON.

East India-House, May 30, 1815.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the papers relative to the claims of Mr. Thomas Graham for pecuniary compensation from the Company, on which a ballot is to be taken at the East India-House on Friday the 9th of June, now lie open for the inspection of the Proprietors.

And the Court of Directors having felt it to be their duty to refuse four several times a compliance with the applications of Mr. Graham for such compensation, and having in consequence also demanded the ballot to be taken upon that question, they beg leave to recommend to the Proprietors the perusal of the said papers, particularly of a report, in which the Court of Directors assign their reasons at large for the determination to which they have so frequently come in this case; and they confidently hope, that if they shall be found to have discharged their duty in guarding the property of the Company, they will receive on the ballot the support of their Constituents.

The papers respecting Lieutenant-Colonel Walker, to whom the Court of Directors have recommended a grant of 20,000 rupees, also continue open for the perusal of the Proprietors.

James Cobb, Secretary.
